Huntingdon, Wednesday, July 16, 1856.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS .- The attention of our readers is invited to the new advertisements in to-days paper. Want of time prevents us from speaking more at length of several of them.

'DROWNING OF A CHILD .- An interesting little child, aged 15 months, son of Mr. Jacob Snyder, of this borough, was drowned on Wednesday last by falling into a tub of water which was standing uncovered in the yard. The little fellow was unobserved for about half an hour, and when search was made, he was found in the tub a lifeless corpse. The stroke was severely felt by the family and the sympathizing community.

To be pitied-the insane editors of the Journal. Their friends, if they have any, should take them in charge.

J. SIMPSON AFRICA, Szeretary. From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 11, 1856. The Black Republicans are running this Summer debate into the ground. They have overshot the mark in their unholy endeavor to create sympathy for their Abolition protege. A reaction is now clearly manifest in the House of Representatives, and the same may be said throughout the entire North. The people,-the sober, reflecting, thinking is reported, has married a foreign ambassapeople, those who have the good of the whole country at heart-who are not bound by geographical limits-when they take the second soher thought, which they surely will -this miserable faction-the Nigger Worshippers - will be left in a minority in almost every State in the Union. I have seen, within the last few days, quite a num_ ber of highly intelligent gentlemen from the North and West, and they inform me that a re-action is now in progress, which will continue until the day of election, in favor of the Democratic nominees. The letter of Mr. Van Buren, and his son John, giving in their adhesion to the Cincinnati platform, and the distinguished statesmon whose names are unfurled on the proud banner of the invincible, unyielding and indomitable Democracy, have caused great consternation and dismay among the ranks of that tesselated party-the Black Repub-licans. A fifty-four bomb-shell in the ranks of an unsuspecting enemy, could not have produced greater excitement. The Democratic party in New York, as in days gone by, will now be united-and when united, who ever knew them to be de- | see for yourselves. feated. New York will now cast her vote for James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge. And as an earnest of this, a gentleman of this city yesterday, offered to bet five thousand dollars that the Empire State would go for the Democratic Nominees; but he could find no takers. I admit that there is nothing in this but it shows that the opposition have no idea of carrying the State. The Committee on Elections are ready. I understand, to report on the contested election case from Illinois. The seat is now held by J. C. Allen, a Democrat, who has the certificate of the Governor of the State. and was declared by the canvassers of his district duly elected, having received a clear majority of all the votes polled. A man by the name of Archer, better known hereabouts as the "insatiate Archer," who is a Black Republican Know-Nothing, comes here to contest his seat. The committee, the majority of whom are Black Republicans, are ready to report in favor of the contestant .-- Word has gone round in the House among the Abolitionists, that Mr. Archer must have his seat; and the reason they assign is this: The delegation from Illinois stand at present four Democrats and four Black Republicans, one vacancy, which is soon to be filled. Now, if Archer gets Allen's seat, that gives the Abolitionists a majority of the delegation, which, in case the Presidential election should be thrown into the House. will give them the State. Therefore, without reference to the facts of the case, Mr. Allen, who is clearly entitled to his seat. must be ousted, and Mr. Archer must have the seat. When this thing is properly understood, as it will be before the case comes up, they will utterly fail in their scheme. The debate is still progressing on the Brooks case, and is likely to go on for some days, as there seems to be a great deal of gas that has not as yet been let off on the Black Republican side. Their speeches are all of a piece, full of fuss and feathers.

Fillmore's Albany Speech. We do not like Mr. FILLMORE's Know Nothing principles, but we do admire the sound national sentiments he enunciated in his late speech at Albany. We must do him the justice to say that on that occasion he held the language of a patriot. Speaking of the Republican nominations, Mr. FILLMORE said :

"We see a political party, presenting candidates for the presidency, selected for the first time from the free States alone, with the avowed purpose of electing these candidates by suffrages of one part of the Union only, to rule over the whole United States. Can it be possible that those who are engaged in such a measure can have seriously reflected upon the consequences which must inevitably follow, in case of success? (Cheers.) Can they have the madness, or the folly to believe that our southern brethren would submit to the same rule prescribed by those who elected him in making his appointments? If a man living south of Mason and Dixon's line he not worthy to be president, would it be proper to select one from the same quarter, as one of his cabinet council, or to represent the nation in a foreign country? Or, indeed, to collect the revenue, or administer the laws of the United States? If not, what new rule is the president to adopt in selecting men for office, that the people themselves discard in selecting him? These are serious, but practical questions, and in order to appreciate them fully, it is only necessary to turn the table upon ourselves. Suppose that the south, having a majority of the electoral votes, should declare that they would only have slaveholders for president and vice president, and should elect such by their exclusive suffrages to rule over us at the north. Do you think we would submit to it? No, not for a moment. (Applause.)-And do you believe that your southern brethren are less sensitive on this subject than you are, or less jealous of their rights ?-Tremendous cheering.) If you do, let me tell you that you are mistaken. And, therefore, you must see that if this sectional party succeeds, it leads inevitably to the destruction of this beautiful fubric reared by our forefathers, cemented by their blood, and bequeathed to us a priceless inheritance.

I tell you, my friends, that I speak warmly on this subject, for I feel that we are in danger. I am determined to make a clean breast of it. I will wash my hands of the consequences, whatever they may be; and I tell you that we are treading upon the brink of a volcano that is liable at any moment to the German Reformed Church, and praying- burst forth and overwhelm the nation. I relief in the premises. The petition was re- might by soft words hold out delusive hopes, and thereby win votes. But I can never consent to be one thing to the north and another to the south. I should despise myself if I could be guilty of such evasion. (Tumultuous applause.) For my conscience would still ask, with the dramatic poet-

Alig State uses, "reserve curse-"is there not some secret curse-Some hidden thunder red with immortal wrath-To blast the wretch who owes his greatness ""bit connerv's ruin ?" (Cheers.)"

A GOOD MOVE .-- A wealthy family in New Orleans, so tainted with negro bloed on the mother's side, that they could not be admitted into the "best society," sold out last year, and went to Paris. One of the daughters, it dor at the Court of Louis Napoleon.

Huntingdon, July 16, 1856. TUBLIC SALE OF TOWN LOTS, in THE TOWN OF HOPEWELL, Bedford county, Pa. sale of lots in the town of Hopewell, will take place by Public Auction, on the premises, on Thursday, the 31st day of July, 1856. The Sale to commence at 9 o'clock in the of July, ISB. The sate to commence at 9 octoor. In the forencon. The town of Liopewell, the termination of the Hunting-don and Broad Top Mountain Rail Road, is located on the east bank of the Juniata, opposite the mouth of Yellow Creck. It is destined to be a large and important town : Ir is within half a mile of the Coal openings : it lies directly upon the mail line of rail road, and at the point where the visitors to Bedford Springs will leave the rail road for the plank road. It is the only point on the main rail road, where the produce of the great rich linestone valleys, wa-tered by the Raystown Branch of the Juniata and its trib-utaries, can find a convenient shipping place to market.— Here they will find a common centre. But the great ad-vantages of Hopewell, are the facilities which it affords to the manufacture of iron. There is no place its superior in the manufacture of iron. There is no place its superior in Pennsylvania. There is an inexhaustible supply of coal, iron ore and limestone, and also a great abundance of water power in and adjoining the town. & The terms will be made known at the time of sale.

President of the H-pewell Coal and Iron Company. H. R. COGSHALL, Secretary. July 16, 1856.
