

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, August 6, 1856.

Charge it upon them, Democrats!

Do not let our adversaries drive us into a defensive attitude. We have the right with us, and we have the memories of the Past to cheer us, and the Hopes of the Future to spur us on in the good work.

Charge upon them, that they violate daily and deliberately, the solemn warning of Washington, who, in his Farewell Address, admonished his countrymen to beware of sectional and geographical parties.

Charge upon them, that the leaders of the Fremont party are in nearly every instance the avowed advocates of a dissolution of the American Union.

Charge upon them, that they assail and t'aduce our fellow countrymen of the South more than they would assail and traduce the vilest despotism on the globe.

Charge upon them, that they selected Fremont as a candidate, first because he would prove to be their passive instrument in the work of disunion, and next because he was supposed to have grown enormously rich by his speculations.

Charge upon them that they are presenting to the Northern States, as an inducement to secure votes for Fremont, by speeches and editorials, in maps and in pictures, the advantages that would result from the dissolution of the Union to Northern prosperity, and comfort, and religion.

Charge upon them, that their open championship of Disunion doctrines, directly follows from the infamous example of the Hartford Convention in 1814-15, and like that dark plot, is most earnestly sustained by Great Britain.

Charge upon them, that the British press hails the Fremont nomination, and the agitation that led to it, as certain steps to a dissolution of the Union.

Charge upon them, that not satisfied with the overthrow of our civil rights and liberties, they have prepared mankind for that dread catastrophe by sowing the seeds of discord in the Christian Church.

Charge upon them that they expect to carry this election with money. They nominated Fremont for his wealth. Seward says there is plenty of money to be had to ignore and violate the Constitution, in his speech at Albany, on the 12th of October; and Francis P. Blair says, the Missouri Compromise will be restored if Fremont is elected, by buying up the Senators of the United States with the patronage of the General Government.

Charge upon them, that this Union cannot stand if the North, as they propose, shall exercise the government to oppress and outrage the South.

Charge upon them that they have invoked force to their aid in the event of failing to elect Fremont by sectional vote. See Webb's speech at the Black Republican Convention; Giddings' threats in Congress; the infidel columns of the Boston Liberator; and the sermon of the Rev. H. Ward Beecher.

Charge upon them, that their love for the black is so intense, that while they would degrade and disfranchise a white man because he was born, like Lafayette, in a foreign land, they would elevate Fred Douglas and his school to social and political equality with our fellow-countrymen, because they are negroes.

Charge upon them, that until they invoked the twin fiends of Know-Nothingism and Abolition, Christian Churches were peaceful and pious assemblages, but now too many are torn with discussions and presided over by political priests.

Charge upon them, that while blaming Mr. Brooks for his attack upon Sumner, they never blame Fremont for his attack upon Foote, in both cases the offence given having been during a debate in the Senate.

Charge upon them, that while howling over the disturbances in Kansas, they never condemn the murders in our great cities, by Know-Nothing rowdies, of inoffensive and deserving adopted citizens.

Charge upon them, that they have revived the Missouri Compromise for nearly forty years, and now demand that it shall be restored after it has been repealed.

Charge upon them, that they have selected a candidate for President who has neither the character, the capacity, the experience nor the integrity, to preside over the affairs of the Government.

Charge upon them, that in their war upon the Southern States, they refuse to hesitate, because their schemes must end in a civil and servile war, and laugh at the certain catastrophe of three millions of suddenly liberated Slaves being poured down upon the North.

Charge upon them, that they denounce and condemn the decisions of the highest tribunal in the land, and openly traduce the venerable jurists who compose our United States Supreme Court.

Charge upon them, that while they ask the votes of the adopted citizen, they prepare the state that is to deprive him of his rights; and while they say they are not against the Catholics, their own candidate swears he is not a Catholic, as if to be so were a crime; and that one of the Conventions which nominated Fremont affected to repudiate Know-Nothingism, while the other, which nominated him made Know-Nothingism its chief corner-stone.—Pennsylvanian.

Experience of a Free State Man in Kansas—the "Border Ruffians."

M. W. KING, of Racine, gives a most interesting relation of his experience in Kansas. After relating the circumstances that led to his emigration—his arrival in Kansas city, in Missouri, with his family—he writes: "Leaving my family, I started for the 'promised land.' I traveled just one hundred and eight miles, according to the survey, before I could find a sufficiency of timber to warrant me in an attempt to build a house. At Parvane, the capital as projected by Governor Roeder, or rather within a distance of five miles from that paper city, I succeeded in raising a house that would shelter myself and family. During all the time of my struggle in the wilderness, I was aided and assisted in every way by my neighbors, Missourians, and indeed, never even had to wait longer for their help than they saw wherein they could assist me.

My claim made, and my house, such as it was, completed, I started for Kansas city to bring my family out. Judge of my feelings when I learned that for nearly the whole period of my absence my child had been lying at the point of death, and my wife, the mother, among strangers, too. And remember, also, that these strangers were all 'border ruffians.' Of course, I was anxious. I questioned my wife, how did you get along?—What did you do? Why, she answered me, no people could be more kind; I took an interest in our suffering and sorrow; I never saw a more kind-hearted and generous people. I was astonished, I confess it. Of course, I said but little—what could I say? They asked me—the 'border ruffians'—of my politics. I told them I was an out-and-out free State man. The answer was invariably—'That's right, Mr. King, vote as you think—we wish every man to enjoy his own opinion.'

For many weary days I walked around, waiting for the returning strength of my child, and during these days I saw many things that would have been disbelieved by myself if stated to me before I left Racine, and while I was a reader of, and believer in, the New York Tribune. I saw many—very many poor families landed at Leavenworth—sent on by the New England Aid Society, who had not the means to bury the dead of their company. Men, women and children were there, sent on by these aid Societies, without funds to purchase one meal of food after landing. They came there, expecting one knows what, but in as destitute a condition as ever emigrants landed at the docks of New York.

It was not Missouri, the 'border ruffians,' took to them into their homes, they fed them, the living ones—and buried the dead—they gave them clothes, food, and kind words; they acted, in short, the part of noble, generous, Christian men, and their reward has been abuse and misrepresentation.

That the men of Missouri felt and feel aggrieved is not to be wondered at by any who know anything of the facts. They have been flooded by companies sent on by "aid societies," of men who at home could not command the respect, hardly the forbearance of the communities in which they lived; they have been obliged not only to feed these men, but to listen to their scurrilous abuse, and now, when they have sought nothing more, as I well know, than an equal and just share of the advantages of the newly opened territory, they are belied by press and pulpit through the entire North. As I said before, I hate slavery, and never by act or word will give it aid or countenance, but I hate it so much that I cannot bear even to see the mistaken, (though I believe honestly mistaken), supporters of it lied about and abused.

HUNTINGDON, JULY 16, 1856.

SHERIFF'S SALES.—By virtue of a writ of Venditioni Exponas and Fieri Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Huntingdon county, and to me directed, I will expose to public sale, at the Court House in Huntingdon, on the 20th day of August, 1856, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the following real estate, to wit:

1. All the right, title and interest of Defendant, of, in and to a lot of ground in the borough of Alexandria, fronting 90 feet on Market street, and extending back to the Pennsylvania Canal, bounded on the west by lot belonging to John A. Weaver, on the east by lot of Hannah Albright, having thereon erected a two story log weather-boarded dwelling house, with lack buildings and a well of water on the lot, also, the interest by lot of John A. Weaver, on the west by land of the heirs of Robert Lytle, dec'd., on the south by an alley, by lot of John A. Weaver, on the east by lot of John A. Weaver, containing in the whole about one acre and a quarter, more or less, with a large frame stable thereon. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of William J. Williams.

ALSO—A lot or parcel of ground lying on the north side of the Woodcock Valley road, in Hopewell township, of Huntingdon county, containing three quarters of an acre of land, more or less, upon which is erected a two-story log dwelling house; adjoining lands of Leonard Weaver on the east, and on the north by the lot of Hannah Albright, having thereon erected a two-story log weather-boarded dwelling house, with lack buildings and a well of water on the lot, also, the interest by lot of John A. Weaver, on the west by land of the heirs of Robert Lytle, dec'd., on the south by an alley, by lot of John A. Weaver, on the east by lot of John A. Weaver, containing in the whole about one acre and a quarter, more or less, with a large frame stable thereon. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of William J. Williams.

ALSO—A log house below the borough of Huntingdon, adjoining Henry Strutzman on the north, Jacob Decker on the east, and the lot of John A. Weaver, containing about one acre of ground with brick basement. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of William J. Williams.

ALSO—A lot of ground situated in the borough of Birmingham, Huntingdon county, Pa., fronting 60 feet on Tyrone street, and extending back at right angles 120 feet to an alley on the north by the public School House lot, with the following improvements thereon erected: a two-story plastered house and tailor shop, stable and out-houses. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Wesley P. Green.

ALSO—All the right, title and interest of the defendant, of, in and to a lot of land lying partly at Brady and partly in Henderson township, adjoining lands of Irvin Green & Watson on the east, the Juniata river on the south, the lot of John A. Weaver on the west, and the lot of James Simpson on the north, containing about 60 acres, more or less, most of which is cleared with a large Tavern House, stable, saw mill, store house and ware room, and an excellent orchard thereon. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of James J. Goodman.

ALSO—All the right, title and interest of the defendant, of, in and to a body of wood land extending from the Raystown Branch of the west to Sideling Hill on the east, and lying on both sides of a narrow mountain and in the head of Trough Creek Valley, in Walker and Union townships, Huntingdon county, adjoining lands of Thomas Reed, Daniel Africa, Jacob Greenman, and the Heister land on the east of Trough Creek Valley, and on the north by the north west lands of David Corbin, Rudolph Ereneman, and John Shiver on the west, or Raystown Branch side, and the lot of John A. Weaver on the north, by the lot of Shaver's Gap on Terrace mountain, being composed of several surveys and parts of surveys, in the names of Dr. John Henderson, George H. Simpson, John A. Weaver, Fea and Robert Fea, and containing in the whole between twelve and thirteen hundred acres, more or less. Seized and taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Elen B. Pike and James Gardner.
