

TERMS OF THE GLOBE.

Table with 2 columns: Term (e.g., Per annum in advance, Six months, Three months) and Price (e.g., $1.50, $1.00, $0.75).

The Globe

WILLIAM LEWIS,

PERSEVERE.

Editor and Proprietor.

VOL. XII,

HUNTINGDON, PA., SEPTEMBER 3, 1856,

NO. 11.

Campaign Song.

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM SONG.

Of all the mighty parties, from the East and from the West, The Democratic party is the greatest and the best...

Buchanan and Breckinridge.

A Southern Statement of the Issue. We commend to our readers the subjoined extract from a late number of the Richmond Enquirer.

The extract below is a clear and dispassionate statement of the issue that now absorbs the country. It never was presented anywhere in so lucid a style, or precise a form.

Black Republicanism affects all respect for the legal safeguards of slavery. It does not propose to impair the security of the institutions of the South.

Such persons will admit that although an evil or a wrong may be very hideous, yet there may be only certain ways of curbing it.

The Black Republican party misrepresents the issues of the canvass, in that they impute an imaginary purpose to the South, and claim a false credit for themselves.

It is not touching the abstract character of Negro Slavery—it is how shall the subject be treated? We in the North are not concerned with it in the Southern States at all.

So far from coveting the Slave States of an ambition to extend their institutions, and to assert a supremacy over the free States, the history of the country is but one consistent record of Southern compromise and Southern concession.

It is easy to anticipate the reply to this vindication of the character of the South. Black Republicanism pretends to find in the repeal of the Missouri restriction incontestible proof of the sectional ambition and aggressive spirit of the South.

A Further Word to Anti-Slavery Men. We address ourselves not to those fanatics of the Garrison School, who are in favor of dissolving the Union.

Such persons will admit that although an evil or a wrong may be very hideous, yet there may be only certain ways of curbing it.

The Black Republican party misrepresents the issues of the canvass, in that they impute an imaginary purpose to the South, and claim a false credit for themselves.

lem is, "How shall the question be solved so as to maintain Peace and Union?" A word more to you. Have you any confidence at all in the South? If you are reasonable or observant men, you must be aware that the people of the South are not Indians, or Barbarians, or heathens.

Washington's Warning Voice against Black Republicanism. Gen. Washington, in his Farewell Address, thus warns the country against the Black Republicans:

"The unity of government which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so, for it is the main pillar in the edifice of your real independence—the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that liberty you so highly prize.

And then, speaking of sectional parties, such as are now embodied and represented at New York and Philadelphia, he says: "In contemplating the cause which may disturb our Union, it occurs as a matter of serious concern, that any ground should have been furnished for characterizing parties by geographical denominations—Northern or Southern—Atlantic or Western; whence designing men may endeavor to excite a belief that there is a real difference of local interests and views.

Is Fremont Eligible to the office of President. A question has been raised as to the whereabouts of Col. Fremont's birthplace. The Boston Daily Bee, one of the Fremont organs, in its issue of April 22, 1856, has the following:

"Fremont.—Col. J. C. Fremont was born in FRANCE, January, 1813. His father was an emigrant from FRANCE, and his mother a native of Virginia." The biographies of the Colonel assume some very queer positions regarding the gentleman's nativity, and a writer who claims to know something asserts that he was born in Canada.

Religion before Politics.

It is very rare that we have occasion to speak of any favor shown to us by the Independent. But we are truly grateful for its kindness in copying our declaration that we shall print nothing with a design to influence the pending Presidential election, for or against any candidate.

Washington's Warning Voice against Black Republicanism. Gen. Washington, in his Farewell Address, thus warns the country against the Black Republicans:

"The unity of government which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so, for it is the main pillar in the edifice of your real independence—the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that liberty you so highly prize.

And then, speaking of sectional parties, such as are now embodied and represented at New York and Philadelphia, he says: "In contemplating the cause which may disturb our Union, it occurs as a matter of serious concern, that any ground should have been furnished for characterizing parties by geographical denominations—Northern or Southern—Atlantic or Western; whence designing men may endeavor to excite a belief that there is a real difference of local interests and views.

Is Fremont Eligible to the office of President. A question has been raised as to the whereabouts of Col. Fremont's birthplace. The Boston Daily Bee, one of the Fremont organs, in its issue of April 22, 1856, has the following:

"Fremont.—Col. J. C. Fremont was born in FRANCE, January, 1813. His father was an emigrant from FRANCE, and his mother a native of Virginia." The biographies of the Colonel assume some very queer positions regarding the gentleman's nativity, and a writer who claims to know something asserts that he was born in Canada.

Col. Fremont—Is He Honest?—Is He Capable?

The Jeffersonian standards of qualification for office—honesty and capacity—should never be overlooked by the American people in selecting an occupant for the exalted position of the Presidency.

Washington's Warning Voice against Black Republicanism. Gen. Washington, in his Farewell Address, thus warns the country against the Black Republicans:

"The unity of government which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so, for it is the main pillar in the edifice of your real independence—the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that liberty you so highly prize.

And then, speaking of sectional parties, such as are now embodied and represented at New York and Philadelphia, he says: "In contemplating the cause which may disturb our Union, it occurs as a matter of serious concern, that any ground should have been furnished for characterizing parties by geographical denominations—Northern or Southern—Atlantic or Western; whence designing men may endeavor to excite a belief that there is a real difference of local interests and views.

Is Fremont Eligible to the office of President. A question has been raised as to the whereabouts of Col. Fremont's birthplace. The Boston Daily Bee, one of the Fremont organs, in its issue of April 22, 1856, has the following:

"Fremont.—Col. J. C. Fremont was born in FRANCE, January, 1813. His father was an emigrant from FRANCE, and his mother a native of Virginia." The biographies of the Colonel assume some very queer positions regarding the gentleman's nativity, and a writer who claims to know something asserts that he was born in Canada.

Democratic statesman or politician that expresses this monstrous doctrine, which the Republicans falsely attribute to the Democ. Party.

The Election in Arkansas—Brilliant and Glorious Triumph.

From the True Democrat. We send greetings to our Democratic brethren throughout the Union the cheering news of the most glorious victory ever achieved in this or any other State.

Washington's Warning Voice against Black Republicanism. Gen. Washington, in his Farewell Address, thus warns the country against the Black Republicans:

"The unity of government which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so, for it is the main pillar in the edifice of your real independence—the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that liberty you so highly prize.

And then, speaking of sectional parties, such as are now embodied and represented at New York and Philadelphia, he says: "In contemplating the cause which may disturb our Union, it occurs as a matter of serious concern, that any ground should have been furnished for characterizing parties by geographical denominations—Northern or Southern—Atlantic or Western; whence designing men may endeavor to excite a belief that there is a real difference of local interests and views.

Is Fremont Eligible to the office of President. A question has been raised as to the whereabouts of Col. Fremont's birthplace. The Boston Daily Bee, one of the Fremont organs, in its issue of April 22, 1856, has the following:

"Fremont.—Col. J. C. Fremont was born in FRANCE, January, 1813. His father was an emigrant from FRANCE, and his mother a native of Virginia." The biographies of the Colonel assume some very queer positions regarding the gentleman's nativity, and a writer who claims to know something asserts that he was born in Canada.