DECLINATION.

WM. LEWIS, ESQ .- Dr. Sir: Through you I wish to announce to the Democratic citizens of Huntingdon county, that I respectfully decline the nomination given me at their County Convention for Assembly. I feel diffident of my qualifications to serve them in that capacity—and hope that a good man, and true democrat, may be nominated to fill the station. Yours truly, Alexandria, 9th Sept., 1856. N. CRESSWELL.

The Democratic Delegates To the late Democratic County Convention will re-assemble at the Court House in Huntingdom, on Tuesday Evening, September 16th, at 70-clock, for the purpose of filling the vacancy occasioned by the declination of Nicholas Chesswell, Eq. WM. COLON, Chairman of Democratic County Committee. Huntingdon, Sept. 10, 1856.

We have hundreds of readers in the county who are not subscribers! How many of these will send in their names? Since the first of August we have added the names of a good number of the most influential men in the county who have heretofore acted with the Whig party. We have room for at least one hundred more of the same kind, and for all Democrats, Black Republicans and Know Nothings who want correct information .-Send in your names. Don't depend upon borrowing from your neighbors.

Our Candidate for Congress.

By reference to the proceedings of the Congressional Conference held at Johnstown on Friday last, it will be seen that on the fourth ballot Cyrus L. Pershing was unanimously selected as the candidate of the Democratic party of this Congressional district. Mr. Persuing is a young man of brilliant talents, an able lawyer, and of unspotted character. He is popular at home with all parties, and it is only necessary for him to be known thro'out the district to secure not only his own party vote hut also a heavy vote from the opposition. Without a single exception, he is ing their flags and banners, accompanied the best man in the four counties for the office to which he has been nominated, and we ask for him the vote of every man who desires the district to be ably and honorably represented. In his own county, we are assured, he will run at least three hundred ahead of his ticket, and with proper exertions on the part of our democratic friends throughout the balance of the District, he can be elected by a handsome majority. Go to work, then, Democrats, and use every honorable means to secure for Mr. Pershing a majority of the votes in the district.

Our Candidate for State Senate.

The Senatorial Conference met at Altoona on Monday, and unanimously re-nominated JOHN CRESSWELL, Esq., of Hollidaysburg. .The proceedings of the Conference have not yet came to hand—they shall appear next week. We are free to admit that Mr. Cress-WELL was not the first choice of many of our Democratic friends, but he received the nomination of a full Conference, and we are confident he will be re-elected over the candidate of the factions.

The Democratic County Convention of Blair county, met in Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday of last week, and nominated Dr. R. W. Christy, of Duncansville, for Assembly. He is a good man.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE GLOBE.

BARNETSTOWN, TOD TOWNSHIP,) Sept. 8, 1856.

DEAR "GLOBE:"-Knowing your undeviating opposition to all "ists" and "isms" calculated to endanger the freedom, justice and equality characterizing our institutions, and your fidelity to the principles of the Democratic party through sunshine and storm, I am induced to drop you a line from here—a township heretofore given up to the enemy without apparently a struggle. Democrats of Tod are not disposed to give it up so easily now. New issues have been forced upon them; that great party, commanding the respect of their political opponents in Tod, has disappeared from the canvass. They seek in vain for those great fundamental principles of its action, either in the sectional Black Republican platform, or the proscriptive resolutions of Know-Nothingism. The alarm bell of disunion is heard from the former, and the dark spectral figure of Religious Intolerance is seen strolling through the latter. These are no parts or parcels of the great Whig party-defunct though it be-under whose banner the men of Tod did battle.-No, no-only noxious weeds growing upon the grave of a saint. Farmers by profession, they are calling upon their neighbors to rally-bring their scythes and pruning hookscut down this noxious growth and cast it into the fire—and they will do it.

As evidence of this, already have the unterrified held two meetings-raised at Barnetstown, a hickory pole, from which may be seen "floating in the breeze," our National flag, with its thirty-one stars, and a Streamer bearing the time-honored name of our own beloved Buchanan, and that of his associate in the good work-the young, generous and whole-souled Kentuckian. These meetings were well attended. Able speeches were made by both Democrats and Old Line Whigs. It was, indeed, a grand sight to see those veterans from the old Whig ranks, coming boldly forward in this the hour of our country's peril, co-operating with their old political enemy, and fighting shoulder to shoulder for the preservation of our glorious Union, and the purity and perpetuity of our free institutions. It shows an earnest that will produce good results. The meeting on Saturday evening last, as well as the one preceding, exhibited the most perfect harmony. Good feelings prevailed between members of all parties-all resolving to "buckle on their armor" and fight with "right good will" from this until the fourth of November next, for the success of James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge.

Unanimously tendering to Mr. JAMES DUNN, the gentlemanly proprietor of the Barnetstown Hotel, our sincere thanks for his courtesy and kindness on those two occasionsthree cheers for his sterling democracy always—nine for the Union—the Constitution

Hear the Michigan Whigs!

We publish in another column an earnest and eloquent appeal of SIXTY-NINE Whigs of Detroit to their fellow Whigs of the State, to which we invite the serious attention of the Whigs of Huntingdon county. The Whigs who have issued this address are represented by the Detroit Free Press as being among the most intelligent, respectable and prominent in the State. One of them was the Whig candidate for Governor in 1843, and several others have occupied responsible public positions. Appeals from such men cannot, we think, fail to have a good effect—at all events they should be carefully read and

The mass meeting at Lewistown on Saturday, was largely attended. It was cheering to every friend of "Pennsylvania's favorite son," to witness delegation after delegation coming in from all directions, bearwith hands of music, and rending the air with shouts of enthusiasm. It was a perfect | the citizens, and increased the stability of avalanche of people-the enthusiasm was unbounded-and the speeches able and effective. Mifflin county will undoubtedly go for Buchanan by a very respectable majority.

FIRE IN ALEXANDRIA.-On Tuesday night last, the new house of Enoch Kline, Carriage manufactory, tools and unfinished work of attributes which challenged the admiration, Joseph. Isenberg, and blacksmith shop of Abraham Piper, were destroyed by fire. How it originated we did not learn.

Facts for the People.

The following facts detailed by a cotemporary should be read and considered by every

1. That the Black Republicans are guilty of the blackest falsehood, when they charge that the Democracy are in favor of the extension of slavery. They know well that the Democracy, by their platform, insist that the people of every State and Territory shall decide the matter themselves, whether they will have that institution or not. Being in favor of this doctrine the "Blacks" call advocating the extension of slavery. Shame upon their misrepresentation and falsehoods!

2. It is a fact that no one can oppose the Democratic doctrine above alluded to, of popular sovereignty for the Territories, and be a good American, since such opposition must ment, however patriotic the motives of the be founded in the kingly doctrine that the people are not capable of self-government.

3. It is a fact that the difficulties in Kansas originated with the Northern Abolitionists, who formed societies for the purpose of controlling its institutions-in advance of the actual settlers-by sending out men from Massachusetts to vote at the elections, and that such have since been kept up by the Black Republicans for the purpose of political capital.

4. It is a fact that the Democratic United States Senate passed a bill abrogating certain obnoxious laws of the Kansas Legislature, of which the Black Republicans, complain, and that the latter voted against and defeated the measure, because they desired to make political capital out of them.

5. It is a fact that the British monarchists are sending money to aid the Black Republicans, because, as their journals state, he being a sectional candidate, his election would dissolve the Union.

6. It is a fact that recent discoveries make it probable that Fremont was not born in the United States, and, therefore, by the Constitution, is not eligible to the office of Presi-

7. It is a fact that, while in California, he certified that certain claims against the Government for supplies furnished by him were just and right, and that the Government, upon investigation, found that those claims were fraudulent to the amount of nearly a million necessity, so east our suffrages as to promote the election of Mr. Buchanan to the Presi-

8. It is a fact that the Black Republican party exists in but sixteen States; that it is entirely geographical and sectional; that it displays banners upon which are inscribed but sixteen instead of thirty-one States; that the basis of its strength is hostility to the South; and that its success would lead to disunion and civil war.

From the Detroit Free Press. Appeal of Whigs of Detroit to the Whigs of Michigan.

The undersigned, being heirs, with you, of a priceless political inheritance; fellowtizens of a common country: members of a great, conservative, national, and once triumphant party, desire to address to you a few words of warning and of exhortation, in view of the causes which endanger the perpetuity of the government, disturb the repose of the country, and threaten to eradicate from the national mind that sentiment of unity which has hitherto made us one people.

Though disbanded by the death of our parliamentary leaders, reduced in number by defection in our ranks, disheartened by the political infidelity of some of our chosen instrumentalities, we believe there still slumbers in the bosom of our party a sentiment which will cordially respond to every note of appeal coming in the name of that revolutionary watchword which did so much to sustain our fathers during the long struggle which intervened between the battle of Bunker Hill and the termination of the siege of Yorktown, in the surrender of Lord Corn-

It is to the scattered but living members of that national and gallant band who wept for their country at the defeat of Henry Clay in 1844, that we make this brief address.

Being ourselves among the number of those who joined the Whig standard, no less from an ardent adoration of two men, one distinguished above all others for his power of marshalling the hosts which entered the ranks of his friends, and the other for massiveness of intellect which gave a breadth and solidity to the party commensurate with the Constitution of our country, than from a sincere conviction that their views of the offices of a revenue tariff, of a national currency, and of the principles which should govern the administration of public affairs, as well as the legislation of Congress, if carried into effect, would have promoted the prosperity of the government. These convictions enable us to retrace our party history with a just sentiment of pride, embittered only by the regret that we failed to enstamp our principles upon the government and the country, and to requite, with a becoming manifestation of gratitude, those eminent men who inspired it with those great secured the support and confidence of much of the talent and intelligence of the country.

Whilst we still approve of the measures advocated by the champions of the good old Whig cause re-affirmed in the acts of our national conventions; whilst we revere the memory of those who have departed in the faith, leaving us the fragrance of their good names, and the influence of a great example; and whilst we admire and would humbly imitate the example of our great men, both in the past history of the party and in the recent acts of some of its distinguished members, we would fain have you remember that there is only left for us the duty of choosing between an effort to re-organize and re-construct the Whig party, or to abandon our duty as citizens in refusing to vote at the coming election, or to merge ourselves, in violation of all our antecedents, into a party sectional in its organization and dangerous in in the present campaign with our ancient but national opponent, the Democratic party. As Whigs—as men, having the warnings of Washington in our memories—as citizens knowing our own history, so as to distinguish between the powerlessness of a population, as seen during the continuance of the confederation, as the might and majesty of a people, as organized under our glerious Constitution; as intelligent and patriotic freemen, knowing the impossibility of re-constructing such another political fabric, if we permit this one to be ruthlessly destroyed, we warn you against an alliance with any party of men, Republicans, or otherwise in name, who seem ready to do acts that will inevitably loosen the bonds that now hold us together as a nation, and constitute us one people.

Whatever our Whig friends in other States of the Union may, in the circumstances by which they are surrounded, conclude to do for ourselves, in the absence of an unalloyed Whig organization, after a careful survey of the signs which mark the political horizon of the country—in view of the temperament of one people when excited to execute the country of Member of the House of Representatives our people, when excited to exasperation by the designs of the demagogue, and of the danger that acts may be done by them under the influence of a temporary aberration of judgactors, which will cause the stars of our cherished confederation to go down in the endless political night, and the flag of our Union to be stained in fraternal blood—we deem it to be a paramaunt duty to leave undeem it to be a paramaunt d ute to the defeat of the Republican ticket and thereby preserve to ourselves an independent existence, ready for future action and entitled to a glorious triumph, when our now excited and deluded friends shall resume their wonted deliberation and renew their allewonted deliberation and renew their allegiance to that conservative party which has hitherto looked upon the United States as one country, and has engraved in illuminated district, composed of Dublin township, at Pleasant Hill School House near Joseph Nelson's, in said township. 3d district, composed of so much of Warriorsmark township, as is not included in the 19th district, at the school letters upon its own chosen standard this natriotic motto: "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseperable;" and therefore have resolved-

'That we will preserve our political identity by joining "no party that does not carry the flag and keep step to the music of the Union;"

ing the disposition and the capacity to use it so as more certainly than the other to become instrumental in consolidating the government and promoting the happiness and prosperity of the people. For these reasons we proclaim our intention to retain our position as Whigs: but, for the sake of the government and the country, whose duration and peace we desire to promote, in the absence of a distinctive Whig organization in this State at the approaching election, we will, as an alternative dency of the United States, in which patriotic

[God save the Commonwealth.] DROCLAMATION.—NOTICE OF GENERAL ELECTION.—Pursuant to an act of the teneral Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania entitled "An Act relating to the Elections of this Commonentitled "An Act relating to the Elections of this Commonwealth," approved the second day of July, 1839, I. JOSHUA GREELAND, High Sheviff of the County of Huntingdon, in the State of Pennsylvania, do hereby make known and give notice to the Electors of the county aforesaid, that a GENERAL ELECTION will be held in the said county of Huntingdon, on the SECOND TUESDAY (and 14th day) of OCTOBER, 1856, at which time, State, Congressional, and County officers, as follows, will be elected, to wit:

One person to fill the office of Canal Commissioner of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Ome person to fill the office of Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person to fill the office of Surveyor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

One person, in connection with the counties of Blair, Cambria and Somerset, to fill the oflice of Member of the House of Representatives of the United States. One person, in connection with the counties of Blair and Cambria to fill the office of State Senator.

that in our judgment it is too late to attempt to reorganize the Whig party for the purpose of securing a commanding position in the election of 1856.
