Line upon Line-Here and There a Little.

Brewster & Whittaker.—Query No. 1.—How many of your former patrons have discontinued your paper since the 1st of August, and for what reason? Is there a single white or black man in the town, who will go before a Justice of the Peace, and make oath that he will believe either of you if not put under oath?

Do you not know, that since you have backed out from proving the assertions you made against us, that you cannot scare up a single subscriber to the Journal, who will believe any charge you have since, or may hereafter make

Do you know that respectable men would rather that you should not crowd yourself into their company?

Is it not a fact that the candidates on the Fremont county Ticket, feel that the less you say in their favor, the higher they will stand as respectable men?

A HANDSOME PRESENT.—Mr. J. A. HALL, has our thanks for several bunches of delicious grapes, and a number of very large and handsome tomatoes. If we are not greatly mistaken, Mr. H. will take the first premiums at our county fair. We advise all others to do their best. Specimens delivered at this office, shall undergo a careful examination.

THE MORALITY OF BREWSTER & WHITTAKER.—Some weeks age, we proposed to Brewster & Whittaker, to wager $100, that the charges they made against us, were false. They declined to accept our offer for the reason that they were morally opposed to betting. But in a late number of their paper, they propose to bet the editors of the American, $25, that the Fremont meeting did not adjourn with three phoens for Fillman. As they are no larger mercally oppose. rs for Fillmore. As they are no longer morally opposto betting, we renew our propositions. Dare they take

CURIOSITIES FOR THE FAIR—Brewster & Whittaker. As every man, woman and child in this neighborhood, has seen them stript of their disguise—strangers will be admitted free of charge, on application to their keeper. ass "Query No. 1," in the Journal, will be answered satisfactorily, if the editors will risk more than their characters on the result. Will they back up their queries with

The repeated insinuations of the "small potato out-Egriphe repeated insinuations of the "small potato outsiders," of the woolly-head Organ, that there is any person connected with or engaged in the "Globe" office, who is a habitual drinker of Lager Beer, or any other kind of beer, or liquor, are destitute of truth. The charge is as untrue as it is ungentlemanly and contemptible. The community know the source from whence it emanates, and they also know that the author is the last person who should make a charge of that kind!

"The man wot wrote a book, was run out of Huntingdon for amalgamating with niggers." As Need we tell our readers that the above morsel of low lying is from the 'Huntingdon Journal?' That charge is but the ultra coinage of a madman's brain—the last, desperate stab of an out-done assassin! The gentleman desperate stab of an out-done assassin! The gentleman against whom it is directed, Max. Greene, Esq., came here by invitation of a committee, (ourself amongst the number) and while here was the guest, and in the enjoyment of the society, of many of our most respectable citizens—some of whom have been intimately acquainted with him from boyhood, and respect him for his moral character as well as his talents. We ask the question whether the characters of respectable men who may happen to visit our town are thus to be assassinated by the low, grovelling wretches, who control the columns of that unprincipled, filthy sheet? Their conduct is a step at the interests and wretches, who control the columns of that unprincipled, iithly sheet? Their conduct is a stab at the interests and reputation of the community, and should be frowned down. To the community the Journal promises to prove a greater plague, or at least to equal the "ten plagues" which were visited upon the land of Egypt—the lice, the frogs, the locusts, the mildew, murrain, &c., and it is now a question whether the borough authorities should not take measures to abate it.

132 Some half-witted fellow through the columns of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, a paper bought up by the Abolitionists, advises James Buchanan to withdraw from the contest. There may be some simple enough among the opposition to believe that he will, but Democrats know hat he is made of too stern stuff to surrender to enemies of this blest Union. James Buchanan withdraw! Bah! A SECRET OUT.—The cause of the bitter opposition of Brewster & Whittaker to the Know Nothings in this county, has fully leaked out. Brewster couldn't get in after being expelled from the Huntingdon Medical Society, for ungentlemanly conduct—and Whittaker was expelled for ingentlemanly conduct—and Whittaker was expelled for LYING and VOING ILLEALIX. Since then, Whittaker has been compelled to vacate the position of Chairman of the Fremont County Committee, and have his name taken off the Committee altogether, before respectable men would consent to act with his party. He is permitted, however, to do the hard lying and dirty work of the party, to which respectable men would not stoop. He has an honorable position, truly. Poor Gabe!

The Democratic Standard says that the Know Nothing ticket in Blair county may be elected, but—as the Dutchman remarked of his chances of going heavenward—"it'll pe a tam tight schqueeze!"

HE Found Out.—Gov. Letcher, in a speech at a barbacue n Kentucky, asked—'Who is John C. Breckinridge?' An old Democrat in the crowd suggested that he was the estrip-pling Democrat who beat Letcher for Congress in the strong-est Whig district in the State." It is hardly necessary to add that the Governor did not put that question again.

THE GRAND RALLY ON SATURDAY NIGHT.-The meeting of the friends of Buchanan and democracy on Saturday evening, was truly a his native State, and saved a recurrence of a of the people of Pennsylvania, and the cer-'Grand Rally," and demonstrated very clearly the fact that it required no "drumming quence. up" of the "faithful" on an occasion of that kind, but actuated solely by a spirit of devotion to the cause of their country, they turn- meet with the entire approbation of his coned out with spontaneous unanimity and en-

Having paraded the several streets, the procession repaired to the Court House. John called the meeting to order, after which Col. WM. Colon, the Chief Marshal of the procession, moved that THOMAS C. McDow-ELL, Esq., of Hollidaysburg, address themeeting. Mr. McDowell mounted the stand amidst the enthusiastic cheers of the crowd, and proceeded to make one of the ablest speeches it has ever been our fortune to listen to. For one hour and a half, by the watch, the audience listened with spell-bound attention to his able and masterly review of the present contest, and the candidates of the several parties. The silent attention with which he was listened to, was only broken by cheers of approbation. He retired from and we ask, what living statesman has done the stand as he mounted it, receiving the enthusiastic plaudits of the assembly. A procession was again formed, which marched through the principal streets, and finally hauled up at the Exchange Hotel, where it was dismissed by a brief and pertinent address from Marshal Colon, after having first given three cheers for Buchanan and Breckinridge—three for our State and county tickets —and three for Col. Thos. C. McDowell.

The democracy of the Borough of Huntingdon send greeting to their fellow-laborers in the good cause throughout the county, that they have buckled on their armor-commenced the good fight-and are ready for the contest; and that they promise a largely increased vote in the Borough of Huntingdon,

In the torch-light procession of the Democrats, at New York, on the 9th inst., there were five miles of Democrats, from 35 to 40,000 in line!

At the mass meeting of the Western Democracy, at Pittsburg, on the 10th inst., there were 15,000 present.

That "Vast Assemblage."

Ennisville, Sept. 15, 1856. Mr. Lewis-In last week's "Journal" I see a communication giving the important information that a Fremont Club was organized in Jackson township—giving the names of the officers, &c. The correspondent who styles himself "Free Labor," proceeds to say-"It is but just to add, that the vast assemblage was composed of the respectable and influential men-citizens of both the old parties."-Does he mean the Know Nothing and Democratic parties? If so, then there were men in that "vast assemblage" who have persistently disclaimed all connection with the dark lantern order heretofore, and we are glad even now to know their true standing. Of all the vast assemblage every one are known to be Know Nothings save three, and one ofthem a democrat, and the only democrat among them. But the great query is—where was the "vast assemblage" alluded to by "Free Labor?"

He must have optics sharp, I ween,

To see what ne'er was to be seen." Why the fact is—the whole "assemblage" was composed of five Black Republicans and one American—just enough to make the officers of the Club. The American was elected President against his wishes—protesting all the time he was for Fillmore—and would not have his name published as such—therefore he was dropped, and Mr. Wm. B. Smith substituted in his place. They tried to coax a few democrats to "pitch in," but they had no idea of engaging in the "wool business" at present, and therefore declined. As the School Directors were in session at the Fort at the same time that this monster assemblage was organizing "to shriek for freedom," and to resist the "aggressions of the slave oligarchy!"-perhaps they were included in it also? If so, our good democratic directors will be more careful than to meet at the time and place this "vastassemblage" meets again. It is a mystery how "Free Labor" could con- tavern, into which the men of the place asjure up a "vast assemblage," when, in reality, there were only five Republicans there-not enough to compose the officers of the Club | men nau punt a line of block house actions the Territory, from which they intended to without "impressing into the service" an American—unless it would be by a process of "Mental Arithmetic" in which he certainly excels. I have only further to say-"honesty is the best policy." Such "bleeding there seems a settled determination to chastize the Abolitionists thoroughly. It is not Kansas" humbuggery don't take here—the at all surprising that the people of Missouri democracy of "Old Jackson" will report favorably for Buck and Breck and the whole ticket.

"What Has He Done?"

This question was asked in regard to Mr. BUCHANAN, some days ago by the "Daily News," of Philadelphia, and since that time it has been reiterated by almost all the papers opposed to the Democracy. The question is absurd. We will answer it, and give a few of the important things which Mr. Buchanan has done for his State and nation.

1. He volunteered to defend his country against foreign invaders in 1814. 2. He labored zealously in the Pennsylvamonetary panic by his prudence and elo-

3. He served ten years in the Congress of the United States, and during the whole of that time performed no act which did not

4. He originated an amendment to the penal code of the Federal Government, providing for the punishment of crimes, which became the law of the land.

5. He negotiated a treaty with Russia, which secured to the United States all the privileges extended to most of the nations,

6. He served as Chairman of the Committee of Foreign Affairs in the United States

7. He served as Chairman of the Judiciary Committee of the United States Senate. 8. He advocated the establishment of a Sub-Treasury, and aided as much as any SIMPSON, Esq., the President of the Club, man in the Union in having that wise measure incorporated in our Government.

9. He stood in the foremost rank of the defenders of General Jackson, and voted to expunge from the Journal of the Senate the resolution censuring that great man. 10. He first proclaimed the Democratic doctrine on the Tariff question, and his views on this subject were reiterated by Andrew Jackson in one of his messages to Congress. 11. He aided as much as any man living in securing California and New Mexico to the United States. 12. He prevented war on the Central American question, and cemented, by his prudence and ability, the bonds of amity between Great Britain and the United States. These are a few of the many things he has done during his long course of public service, more? We have set these acts down from memory, and if our opponents are not answered we will be happy to reply to them

Lawrence City.

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Aug. 31, 1856. Mr. Editor:—Enclosed please find an extra from the Dispatch office, in this city, giving an account of the action between the pro-Slavery men and the Abolitionists, at the town of Ossawattomie. I have no doubt the facts stated in the extra are substantially correct, and may be relied upon. I saw the express who came in, and he gave the same statement. The leader, Brown, who is said to have been killed, was a notorious man in all this country, was known as a noted robber, and has been in the Penitentiary for his crimes. He was formerly from Illinois, but more recently an inhabitant of this State.-He was a fit lieutenant of the Abolition forces, and has met his deserts. The main body of the Abolitionists are at Lawrence, under the command of Lane. It was doubted, for some time, whether Lane was really there: but it is now known for certain that he is present, as he has thrown off the red wig, with which he was disguised, and declared himself publicly. Both the pro-Slavery and Free State settlers are leaving their homes and joining their friends, the latter principally going into Lawrence.

The Territorial Militia, some eight hundred strong, under Richardson, are to the North of Lawrence, and in a position to cut off all Abolition reinforcements; while the Missourians, some twelve hundred strong, are marching up towards that place, in order to attack it, when the two forces will act in concert. If the troops of the United States do not interfere to prevent an action between the opposing parties, you may expect to hear, in a few days, of a bloody battle at Lawrence. The blood is up on both sides, and discreet counsel will avail nothing if the parties come in contact. This unfortunate state of things is greatly to be deplored, by every person, and I am well satisfied, the Black Republicans are alone answerable for it. There was peace in the Territory, since the disturbances last May, until Lane and his ragamuffin Abolition cohorts entered it about a month ago. Their attack upon Franklin and Col. Titus' house was without a shadow of justification or excuse, as were also the numerous depredations upon property in different parts of the country. There is not one word of truth in the Abolition story, that the people of Franklin had built a block house in that place. The town consisted of some twenty-five light frame houses, and one log house used as a sembled for protection on the night of the attack. Neither is it true that the pro-Slavery men had built a line of block houses across issue to attack the Free State men. These things are sheer Abolition fabrications, offered to palliate the bloody deeds.

There is not much excitement here, but there seems a settled determination to chasshould step over the borders to help their friends and relatives, and which they are as much justified in doing as the Abolitionists are coming into the Territory, in armed bands, for hostile purposes. The course of both parties is much to be regretted. The war is just begun—who can tell where and when it will W. W. H. D.

> From the Blair County Whig. Alex. C. Mullin.

The Senatorial Conferees for this District, belonging to the American party, met at Altoona, on Thursday last, and on the first ballot, nominated ALEX. C. MULLIN, of Cambria County, for State Senator. We feel sorry, for the sake of the District, the character of nia Legislature, in 1815, for the interest of the party which nominated him, the interests tainty of throwing the District into the hands of the Locofocos, that they nominated this man Mullin. If bargains of this kind are to be made by candidates in the several Counties in order to promote the weak and obnoxious of the party, the people will repudiate them.

We may as well state it now as in the future that the Blair County Whig will in no way prostitute itself by aiding in the election of Alex. C. Mullin. Any man of character in the District would have received our unqualified support, but in the present crisis, we hope the Republicans will select a man and go into the contest against Locofocoism, and endeavor to succeed.

Negro Representation.

The Black Republican freedom "shrickers" frequently refer to the three-fifths provision of the Constitution as conferring a political power on the South which the North does not enjoy, and they denounce it as monstrous, and something which should not be endured. Not content with confining themselves strictly to the truth, they take more than poetic license, and tell us that, for every three-fifths of his negroes the Southern planter has a vote at the ballot-box. This is simply a baldface falsehood. In no state in the Union can one man cast more than one vote. We have adverted to this before—but as the falsehood is still kept in circulation we think it our duty to clinch it once more.—The three-fifths provision simply gives the right to the South to have every five negroes counted as three in the aportionment for representation in Congress—and when the aportionment is 90,-000, inhabitants for every member of Congress, it requires just 150,000 slaves to be entitled to one; while, in the North, each negro counts as much as a white man in the enumeration, and every 90,000 negroes give us a representative in Congress. The North, therefore, instead of being the loser by the operation of the three-fifth basis, is decidedly the gainer, and all the groans uttered by the negro-worshippers over this "great outrage" as they call it, are either the result of ignorance or hypocrisy-or, more probably, the promptings of that demoniacal spirit which seeks, at any price, to dissolve the Union. If the same rule were observed at the South as at the North in the enumeration of negroes, that much abused section of the country would have twenty more representatives in Congress than it now has.

These are simple truths which every Northern man should know, so as not to be led astray by the assertions of the hired traitors who are now traversing the State, scattering, wherever they go, "arrows, firebrands and
