The Speakership.

There may be many names prominent before the next House of Representatives of this State for the Speakership, and in this connection Col. J. M. B. PETRIKEN, of Lycoming county, is favorably mentioned. He is a gentleman of fine address, and popular manners, and if selected to that post, would make an excellent and impartial officer. He is a sterling, hard-working democrat, and during the late contest, labored with untiring industry for the success of the democratic nominees; but his election was generally considered by the party as a great triumph, and his pleasure by his numerous friends.

Thanksgiving in Pennsylvania.

PENNSYLVANIA, ss.-In the name and by the authority of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. James Pollock, Governor. A PROCLAMATION.

FELLOW-CITIZENS:-A public acknowledgement to the goodness of Almighty God, and of our constant dependence upon his providence, is eminently becoming a free and enlightened people. As the "Giver of every good and perfect gift, He has crowned the past year with His goodness and caused our paths to drop with fatness." Our Free Institutions, our rights and our privileges, civil and religious, have been continued and preserved; Science and Art, with the great interests of Education, Morality and Religion, have been advanced, industry, in all its departments has been honored and rewarded, and the general condition of the people improved.

Our Commonwealth has been greatly blessed. The ravages of disease and death-of famine and pestilence-have not been permitted to come near us; nor have the horrors of war disturbed the peaceful quiet of our homes. The earth has yielded her increase and richly rewarded the labor of the husbandman. Abundant prosperity, with smiling plenty and the blessings of health, has been ours.

Acknowledging with gratitude, these bless-ings of a kind Providence, let us "enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise; be thankful unto Him, and bless His name."

& Deeply impressed with the importance and propriety of the duty, and in accordance with the wishes of many good citizens, I, JAMES his own conscience. They have shackled him POLLOCK, Governor of the Commonwealth of with oaths repugnant to the spirit of liberty. Pennsylvania, do hereby recommend THURS-DAY THE 20TH DAY OF NOVEMBER NEXT, as a throughout this State; and earnestly implore the people that, abstaining from all worldly business and pursuits on that day, they unite in offering thanks to Almighty God, for his past goodness and mercy, and hum-bly beseech Him for a continuous of His blessings.

Given under my hand, and the Great Seal of the State, at Harrisburg, this 21st day of October, in the year of our Lord, 1856, and of the Commonwealth the eighty-first.

By the Governor.

Democracy.

Democracy is the last resting place of LIE-ERTY, as the dove returning to the ark, because amidst the waste of waters it could not find rest for the sole of its foot. So liberty, seeking to expand its pinions over this hemisphere, often returns to the bosom of the Democracy, bleeding with the shafts which its enemies have leveled at its breast. There it Adam hath repose; there it hath solace; there it Alleg Arms hath disciples who worship liberty that is Beave immortal. Bedf

We are in the midst of the nineteenth cen-Berk Blair tury of the Christian era; in the twentieth Brad we shall be dust, without a tribute or memo- Buck rial to our memories. "The path of glory Butle leads but to the grave," but Liberty will sur-Cam  $\mathbf{Carb}$ vive us, and before the dread tribunal of pos-Cent terity we shall be judged according to our Chest present devotion to the essential principles Clari Clear which underlie the foundations of human Clint selection as Speaker would be hailed with happiness and prosperity. Present success Colu is not material: the arts and diplomacy of Craw ophemeral politicians may not have been be-Cum Dau queathed to us, but if we will deserve the Dela laurel of honors the children of the future Elk. will bestow it. Erie

Since it is plain that the first, last great Faye  $\mathbf{Fran}$ duty of man is to foster Liberty, and to dif-Fult fuse it, and to give it a habitation everywhere, Gree let us emulate the example of the heroes Hun India whom history has placed among its defend-Jeffe

ers. Juni "Oh LIBERTY what crimes are committed in thy name!" Lanc Those words were uttered upon a scaffold, Lawr in the eighteenth century; it is a hundred Leba Lehi years later, and we repeat the cry which that Luze martyr put up to heaven. We are not surrounded by the accessories of death, the McK Merc beam, the muffled drum, the funeral bell, the Miff scaffold ; but we are surrounded by the ene-Mon mies of human liberty, who would precipi- Mont tate moral and physical death upon us if they Mont Nort had the power to do it. The Know-Nothing party has inaugurated Perry its natural reign in this free State, by equal-Phila Pike ized imposition of taxes, acquittal of crimi-Potte nals, embezzlements of public monics, em-Schu ployment of spies, ostracisms and persecu-Some tions of public officers. They have put tram-Snyd Susq mels upon reason and thought, and freedom Sulli of action, and like the holy inquisition, they Tioga deny to free born man the imperceptible Unio right of acting according to the dictates of Vena Warı Wash with oaths repugnant to the spirit of liberty, | Wayr and have deliberately violated that provision | West Day of General Thanksgiving and Praise of our Magna Charta which made the soil of Wyor York America an asylum for children of every clime. But death has laid his hand upon the Order: and the organization which betrayed í Ma the existence of traitere among us, 15 approaching its fall. A weed of unnatural Offic growth-a vile and obnoxious seed, thrown by some unfriendly hand into our domain of Adam freedom-it cannot flourish beneath the shad-Alleg ow of the tree of liberty, but it decays and dies. Erie. The grave which the Democratic party has Faye dug for Black Republicanism is broad and Frank deep enough for that also. Without the as- Fulton Gree severation made by Macbeth to Banquo's Hunt ghost, we will fight the monster of faction in India any shape, material or incorporeal Know- Jeffer Nothingism, Black Republicanism, Native Junia Lanc Americanism, or any other name which it Lawr most affects-we contend in the Constitution, Leba and we say to you as we say to our enemies Lehig Luze across the sea: "You may injure us in the Lyco first onset-you may destroy our seaports and McK burn our towns, but in the end we will en-Merc Miffli tirely whip you." announcement of that step by the Texas, at New York a few days since, was unfounded. The following is a resume of the condition of Gen. Walker's forces and resources, published on the 11th, just before the advance on Massaya:

All the internal and external foes of the States have been straining their utmost energy to cripple us at a season when it was impossible to take the field ; and yet, despite all these obstacles, the Government stands firmer than it ever did. With two thousand men capable of bearing arms, with all the improvements of warfare, with a better knowledge of the country, with a steamship line bringing means to us at every juncture, and with renewed confidence, how can we entertain an opinion contrary to the speedy and certain restoration of peace and executive authority over all the departments of the State? It is only a matter of time, of weeks, before this whole difficulty will be terminated.

Interesting from New Mexico.

[Correspondence of the St. Louis Republican.]

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 23, 1856. The Santa Fe mail reached here to-day. By it we have little news of importance. Business of every kind is reported to be dull, and trade, unless the mines yield more readily than usual, or the gold hunting expeditions turn out more favorably, must continue to offer little inducements to adventurers. The quartz chrushing apparatus, introduced into the Territory recently, have not yet fulfilled the sanguine expectations of the proprietors, and unless their erection is completed soon, many will begin to lose faith in the firmness of the companies. It is certainly true that the refuse material at the "placers," if properly used, will yield very abundantly of the precious metal, and we will await with anxiety to hear of the results of the different enterprising companies who have already their apparatus in the Territory. The Indian relation with the department has not much changed since I last wrote to you. The majority of the tribes are comparatively quiet, yet, true to their natures, they cannot let an opportunity escape for com-mitting theft. Those most noted for this are the Mescaleros, and it is said their depredations arise from the fact that the Senate failed to ratify the treaty made with them.

The Kowahs tried their hands recently in. the same way, and were proceeding still further to deeds of daring in the Nabajo coun-try, but were turned back.

In military matters, General Garland and Major Brooks were about leaving for the States. Col. Bonneville, in the absence of the General, will command the department, and has removed the Regimental Head-Quarters to Santa Fe. The Rifles, who are to replace the Dragoons, are on their way up the valley of the Del Norte ; their Head-Quarters will be at Fort Union.

In local matters, the work on the State House is progressing rapidly, and before cold weather sets in the work will have reached the second story. Nothing has, as yet, been done on the penitentiary-a building, judging from the necessities of the country, which needed erection previous to any other. The summer and fall rains have been very abundant, and many houses have suffered in consequence.

tacked at noon of the On the first Monday in September the elections were held, and the Democrats have a majority in both Houses. The mail party y bodies of troops from had a pleasant trip out and in, barring one or two cold rains. In the outward bound uatemala, with a few had advanced upon train, Mr. Porthoff, a passenger, accidentally shot himself in the hand. Quite a number nt road from that leadof Cheyenes and other Indians were seen on

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer.] Sectionalism Rebuked---The General Episcopal Convention.

Amid the fanaticism which has beset several religious denominations, the phrenzy of many political preachers, and the unkind and censorious spirit indulged by certain pastors and flocks toward our brethren of the South, it is refreshing to notice the cordial, fraternal feelings which seem to animate the proceedings of the Episcopal Convention, now assembled in Philadelphia. We refer especially to their appointment of Richmond. Virginia, as the place for holding the next triennial convention. This act is well timed, and adopted by a body so well entitled to the respect and reverence of the public, cannot fail to have a most beneficial influence. The councils of this great and powerful church have been uniformly distinguished by a tolcrant and conservative spirit. They truly represent the Episcopalians of the whole United States, and of each separate State and Territory.

There may be seen sitting side by side, in Christian love and fellowship, men from all the various climes of our wide-spread confederacy, eminent for their talents and virtues, and as less honored for their national patriotism than the sacredness of their functions. How different the tone of indulgence and magnanimity pervading the conduct of these reverend and honorable men from the uncandid, bitter, and intolerant utterances of those pulpit demagogues, whom we have hereto-fore felt it our duty to hold up to public reprobation !

We cannot imagine that we shall be thought to overrate the significance of this selection of Richmond as the next place of meeting. It is the first time the Convention has ever chosen to go so far South. As the next meeting will not be held till 1859, it is a proclamation to the North and South of the Convention's firm faith in the stability of the Union, and in the persistence of one United Church. ed and his papers scattered over the floor in the wild hunt for plunder. About 10 A. M., of the 13th, the gallant band in the plaza heard the first intimation that succor was at hand in the booming of the howitzers and the rattle of the musketry in the attack of Gen. Walker on the enemy at Jalieba Church, about three-quarters of a mile immediately behind the Ordinance Department.

Immediately on receiving the news brought to Massaya by the express, Gen. Walker vacated that town with all his troops, and com-menced a forced march for Granada. At 10 A. M., he attacked the enemy, who were post-ed in force on the height of the Jalteba Church, and charging at once, captured two field pieces, and drove them, at the point of the bayonet, into and through the city. The rout commenced in every direction. But on all sides they were met by parties that Gen. Walker had ordered to make a detour round the city, and their dispersion was complete. It was estimated that about 400 of the allies were killed at Massaya, and an equal number at Grenada. Nearly every house on the evening of the 13th, when our informant left, was filled with their wounded. The loss of the Americans in both engagements was only 16 killed and 25 wounded. We have not been able to learn the names of any of the killed. Among the wounded are Capt. Bell, Dr. Scott, Capt. Hardy, Mr. Tabor, editor of the Nicaraguense: Capt. Green, Har-bormaster, Capt. Pickersgill, and Major Giles. The enemy were reported to be retreating from Massaya, and Gen. Walker would advance northward as soon as his troops had some little rest.

Capt. Williams informs us that his baggage was packed ready to start when the attack took place. He was rifled of everything by the enemy in the assault on Granada. In his trunk was nearly two hundred letters from persons in the United States, but he was able to gather up only a few of them, and many and choice calico, and of these without their envelopes, after the en stand up before her as route of the enemy. A company of Gen. Walker's troops are stationed on the San Juan river, at the mouth of the Scrapiqui, and about 100 recruits arrived at Greytown on the Tennessee. They would proceed to Granada at once.

Captain Williams informs us that he learned from one of the men who returned from the battle of San Jacinto, that Mr. Callahan, our late esteemed correspondent, was last seen wounded, and nearly exhausted, pursued by some cavalry, and endeavoring to get into the bush. In this he did not succeed, as the horses were nearly upon him at that time. THE SLAVERY DECREE.

Wealth of British Aristocracy.

The Duke of Bedford includes, or included, a mile square in the heart of London, where the British Museum, once Montague House, now stands, and the land occupied by Woburn Square, Bedford Square, Russell Square. The Marquis of Westminster built, within a few years, the series of squares called Belgravia. Stafford House is the noblest place in London. Northumberland House holds its place by Charing; Chesterfield House remains in Audley street. Sion House and Holland House are in the suburbs. But most of the historical houses are masked or lost in the modern uses to which trade or charity has converted them. A multitude of town places contain inestimable galleries of art. In the country the size of private es-tates is more impressive. From Barnard Castle I rode on the highway twenty-three miles from High Force, towards Darlington, east Ruby Castle through the estate of the Duke of Cleveland. The Marquis of Breadalbane rides out of his house a hundred miles in a straight line, to the sea, on his own property. The Duke of Sutherland owns the county of Sutherland, stretching across Scotland from sea to sea.

The Duke of Devonshire, besides his other estates, owns ninety-six thousand acres in the county of Derby. The Duke of Richmond has forty thousand at Goodwood, and three hundred thousand at Gordon Castle. The Duke of Norfolk's park in Sussex is fifteen miles in circuit. An agriculturalist bought lately the Island of Lewes, in Hebrides, containing five hundred thousand acres. The possessions of the Earl of Londsdale gave him eight seats in Parliament. This is the Heptarchy again; and before the reform of 1832, one hundred and fifty-four persons sent three hundred and seven members to Parliament. The borough mongers governed England.

These large dominions are growing larger. In 1786 the soil of England was owned by two hundred thousand corporations and pro-prietors; and in 1822 by thirty-two thousand. These broad estates find room on this narrow island. All over England, scattered at short intervals among shipyards, mines and forges, are the paradises of the noble, where are lifelong repose and refinement, heightened by the contrast with the roar of industry and necessity out of which you have stepped aside.—R. W. Emerson's English Travels.

CHILD CARRIED OFF BY A BEAR .--- One of those fearful incidents occurred near the village of Neshota, on Saturday week, which go so far to create the thrilling interest in written romance of pioneer life. Just before sunset, a child, five years old, was seized in presence of its mother, by a full grown bear, and in spite of its screams, and the frantic efforts of its mother, was borne into the thicket. The alarm was given, and the men with clubs and firearms, commenced searching the woods, but up to Tuesday nothing had been found of it, upon which to base a conjecture with reference to its fate. Bears are quite plenty in this neighborhood, but this is the first instance where human life has been sacrificed by them, though they have frequently carried off stock from the farmers, coming up, as in this case, to the door of the house.—Manitowoc (Wis.)
