THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Dec. 31, 1856.

Line upon Line... Here and There a Little.

A Happy New Year. Quier-Our town since the exodus of the snob teachers.

Hope they'll thrive on their laurels. A menagerie—on a small scale—the conspirators: GOT THEIR CERTIFICATES-The Classical Teachers of the Institute. Hope they will appreciate our generosity. Enemies in peace, in war friends—Sundry teachers.

"A fellow feeling made them wondrous kind." Nor Hard-To "account for the milk in a cocoa nut"-Thomas C. Macdowell, Esq., has become associate editor of the Harrisburg Keystone. The Col. is a writer of marked ability, and will doubtless add much to the popularity of the "Keystone."

Wir" It would not be safe to say even that much of the Globe."—Lewistown Democrat. Unfortunately for the editor of the "Democrat," his neighbor of the "Aurora" calls him "Taffey," and says,

"Taffey Lies Again." A clever paper-politics excepted-The Johnstown Tribune. Ditto-The Editor. Let us hear the thunders of the Tribune.

A Fremont clergyman met a Democrat on the side walk, and said to him, "Brother, can you account for this remarkable result in favor of Buchanan, after all we have done?" "Oh, yes," said the Democrat, "the Buchanan men trusted in the Lord, while the Fremonters relied on

The Warsaw (Mo.) Democrat has the following: "We strike the names of two of our subscribers from our books this week, who have recently been hung in Texas. We do this because we are not advised, as yet, of their present locality."

"How can Protestant Democrats support a paper like the Globe. Owned, controlled and guided by bitter-hearted Catholics. How can they? that is the question.—It is not consistent."

A So repeats Samuel Gabriel Whittaker! And that, too, after refusing a wager of $100 that the statement is a lie. But mark the proscriptive tone of that paragraph .-It exposes the stench of cow-stable, privy, and hog-pen Know-Nothingism-of traitors and infidels-perjurers and blasphemers—of men "who steal the livery of heaven to serve the devil in." Professed Christians preaching Proscription! Persecution! Exclusive Dealing, &c. Verily, Christianity is degenerating. But what are the editors of the Journal? Let their characters, their conduct, their misrepresentations, scandals and false dealing, answer.—

Minelsts or Infidels?—without any God, any Heaven, any proceeding the stated annual meeting of the Stockholders will be held at the office of the Company, 56 Walnut street, Philadelphia, on MONDAY the 12th JANUARY 1857, at 10 o'clock, A. M., which time and place an election will be held for a President and twelve directors to serve for the ensning year.

JOHN P. AERTSEN, Secty. Mineists or Infidels?-without any God, any Heaven, any Hell! What "poor homeless orphans, what helpless, desolate children." Let the hand of pity and mercy be extenden them. If they believe in a God, what consciences they

The "Journal" editors are losing their own small party patronage, and now, with uplifted hands they be eech Democrats to withhold their patronage from us! Have they lost all confidence in their own party? Has it entirely abandoned them? If so, we pity them-we do. "The editors of the Journal insinuate that somebody has been robbing the mails; will they name the person.—

To which the editors of the Journal reply:

"Well will this do:
"Postmaster at Coffee Run: You will give Mr.—all printed mail matter lying at your office for the offices beyond it.

WM, LEWIS. P. M. at Huntingdon."

That's mail robbery, is it? Then why do you not "jerk us up?" What did you lose by that "robbery"-can't your fellows who assisted in the "robbery" tell? Do get up an expose certified to by several P. M's. at that office-it would be interesting-besides it would show our "rascally conduct" in the assistance we gave the ".imerican" publishers to have their papers circulated before the election. A religious revival is now progressing in the Methodist Episcopal Church in this borough. Some fifteen or twenty persons are "under conviction." God speed the Sam Whittaker "insinuates" that it is very "humiliating" that we should have confessed going into a barroom on business. If so, how "humiliating" the reflection that you were born and raised in a bar room and fed and clothed with the proceeds of whiskey-"rot gut," at that. "Curses, like chickens, come home to roost," mind that, Sammy. 20 Messys, Browster & Whittaker will take notice the their stabs at the foreman in our office are entirely gratuitous and uncalled for, as he is in no way responsible for what may appear in the Globe.

Col. BENTON ON THE SCRIPTURES .-- Col. Benton, in one of his eastern lectures, indignantly repudiates the term "lady," and says it cannot be found in the Scriptures. A correspondent of the Washington Star knocks
