Line upon Line-Here and There a Little

ME WM. BREWSTER AND SAMUEL G. WHITTAKER.-LIARS SCOUNDRELS, and COWARDS. They are afraid to meet us before a committee of their own selection-and therefore, are too low down to descrive any further newspaper notice.

go_Gone-Leap year.

Ladies, give them a call, and get "done up sleek." Dring our-Black Republican Abolitionism in Hun. tingdon county. What ism will be tried next?

tablishments of Mrs. Steel and the Misses Slick & Wallace.

DIDN'T LIKE IT .- Sundry members of the Teachers' Institute didn't like our notice of their conduct. Just as we expected.

Suppery-Our pavements. The injunction of St. Paul is applicable: "Let him who thinketh he stands, take heed lest he fall."

STILL SILENT-"Mr. Gillam." Does conscience make him

UP-The frame work of the new bridge.

Down-A part of the building in market square formerly occupied by Alex. Carmon, as a hotel. The property has been purchased by Moses Strous, who will have erected by Spring a handsome store room to be occupied by himself. REDUCED.-We learn that by a vote of the pew holders in the Presbyterian Church, the salary of Rev. Mr. McClean has been reduced from $1000 to $800!

FAST YOUNG MEN-and not a few, "make night hidcous" in our borough. Parents may be ignorant of the fact that their children, from 10 to 16 years of age, are frequently in the company of those who delight to instruct in the ways of the intemperate and wicked. This is a fit subject for the pulpit-let its thunders be heard.

A shad, "the first of the season," was caught at Savannah on the 25th, and sold for $30.

Many persons wear India rubber overshoes in cold weather, to keep their feet warm. This is an injurious and unhealthful practice. They may be worn during wet and sloppy weather, but should be worn as little as possible in the house, because they are air-tight, and both retain and restrain the perspiration of the feet. Their sole use should be to keep out water, and in any other way they are positively injurious to health.

MUSIC-SOUL-STIRRING-That at midnight by the string band. Col. W. is musical all over-from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet. His associates are ditto. They may wake us up with the same kind of "noise" whenever and as often as they feel so inclined.

New Year's Day .- But for the Huntingdon Brass Band, the day would have been dull indeed. They partook of a dinner at the "Orlando House" at the expense of Captain Thomas, of Philadelphia, and paraded the streets several times, delighting our citizens with their best music--not to be beat out of the city.

PRESENTS .- We received two "suspicious" presents on New Year's Day-one from Mr. H. Reman, and one from Sheriff Miller. They have our thanks for the same.

ACCIDENT .- Mr. Geo. Emerson, of this borough, met with a severe accident on New Year's Eve, while shooting the old year away. The barrel of his rifle bursted shattering his left hand very severely.

A HANDSOME REGINNING FOR THE NEW YEAR-The new subscribers, with advance payments, we have received.

Our particular friend, the 'Squire, in the neighborhood of the Green Tree, should keep cool until the 'return' on 'Squire Port's big book is wiped out. He gave us 'fits behind our back, during the late campaign, -- we shall en deavor to return the compliment, before his face.

WE CAN'T BE BEAT.-We commence the new year with several additional fonts of new type-new styles-which for beauty can't be beat in the State. We are fully prepared to do printing in the neatest and most fashionable style. Our little card press turns out "some pumpkins." Call and see for yourselves. Every business man should have a neat eard, upon envelopes or otherwise.

Pennsylvania Legislature.

Harrisburg, Jan. 6. House.—This being the day designated for the assembling of the Legislature, the House of Representatives was called to order at 11 o'clock, by Mr. Jack, the clerk of the last

The certificates of the election of the members were read. There were two returns presented from Philadelphia: one returning Mr. Ramsey as elected from the city, and the other returning George R. Smith.

Mr. Smith addressed the House in support of his right to a seat. Mr. McCalmont moved to postpone the matter for the present.

Mr. Eyster supported the motion. Messrs. Foster and Knight opposed the motion. It was unparliamentary and should not be entertained.

The Clerk decided that he could not entertain the motion, and Mr. Smith was thus

The roll was then called, when 96 members answered to their names.

The absent members are, Messrs. Augustin of Somerset, Wintrode, of Huntingdon, Morehead, Indiana, and Benson, of Potterall Republicans.

On motion, the House then proceeded to the election of a Speaker, when J. Lawrence Getz, of Berks, was elected on the first vote. The vote stood—Getz, Dem., 52; S. P. Me-Calwart, opp., 40; scattering, 2, and two not voting.

The Speaker was conducted to the Chair, and in a short address thanked the House for the honor conferred, pledging himself to perform the duties of the position faithfully and impartially.

The oath of office was then administered to the Speaker by Mr. McCalmont. The members were then severally sworn in, and the House adjourned.

The Senate meets at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Senatorial Caucuses.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 6 .- Both parties of Ser er, and George W. Hamersly for Clerk, unanimously. The other candidates being all withdrawn. The caucus then adjourned officers.

The Democrats in caucus nominated William Wilkins for Speaker, unanimously. No two very interesting children to mourn their irreparable nomination was made for Chief Clerk, but loss. all the other old officers were renominated, except one transcriber; J. W. Moore being named in place of A. Yerkes.

DIED,

In Castle Finn, of Dysentery, on the 17th of October, Rev. P. E. Waters, of Baltimore Annual Conference. The deceased, as a friend, was companionable; as a husband, affectionate and kind; as a father, mild and judicious. but it was especially as a Christian that his excellencies shone forth. In this respect, we think, he has seldom been surpassed. In preparing for the pulpit much of his time was spent upon his knees, and as the result he came before is people prepared affectionately to warn the disobedient, englien the believer and comfort the penitent. In all did he was exceedingly conscientious, seeming stantly to live with eternity in full view. As a minisators met in caucus this morning. The Republicans nominated David Taggart for Speakhold Poly calling, and when out of the pulpit, visiting from house to house, and in his intercourse with the world, ever bore a testimony in behalf of the power of the Gospel which had a happy effect upon all with whom he mingled. Of to meet this evening for the nomination of his closing hours we are sorry to say that we are unable to write, but doubtless they "brought glory to God." He was a good man. He leaves an amiable and pious wife and > Thus it is with man's present evanescent life. "It is like a vapor which appeareth for a little while, and then vanisheth away." He springs into existence, enters upon the stage of action, exhibits his part in the strange drama of life, and, standing upon the shore of death's dark river, bids adieu to weeping friends and earthly scenes, and is buried beneath its billowy waters. But far, far beyond this rest peacefully the souls of the pious dead.
