Pay your debts.

We don't like to dun, but we want money-particularly that which has been long due us. We hope all old accounts will be settled between this and the first of April next. Our business arrangements require that this be Advance payments are always the best. Some forty or fifty persons have been added to the Methodist Episcopal Church in our borough during the past two weeks. The meetings still continue. In Session-Our County Court. Proceedings of the "Ouarter Sessions" next week. The attendance at Court is reasonably large. MANLY-Sucing an aged lady for nine cents! Who would have thought that even "the meanest man that was tver raised in Franklin county," could have been guilty of such a small act? It is strango-yea, 'tis passing strangebut true. The hero of this feat is the same who refuses to pay his postage bill, and boasts that the law cannot compel him to do so! Look out for your hen-roosts! The three papers published in Huntingdon have the following town circulation: vis:

A FAST Propie.-The Boston Post says they are now lighting places "Out West" with gas, which were entered as wild lands last fall.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said, "I will a paper take," both for my own and my children's sake! If such there be let him repent, and have THE GLOBE to him sent; and if he'd noss happy winter, he in advance should pay the printer. COLORED ELOQUENCE.-"My Brudders," said a waggish colored man to a crowd, "in all affliction, in all your troubles, dar is one place you can always find sympathy."-"Whar! whar!" shouted several. "In de dictionary," he replied rolling his eyes skyward. A poor "forsaken" in Philadelphia thus announce the departure of his "better-half": "My wife has left, with bed and board, For a few days, a few days; She left it of her own accord, When I was out from home.

FIZZLED OUT .- The Demarara "Royal Gazette," of the 10th ultimo, says: John Soyers Orr, better known by his cognomen of "the Angel Gabriel," is no more. CONTEMPTIBLE—The practice of chewing tobacco in house of divine worship. It is a most disgusting practice. and the individual who follows it is more of a hog than a man-more of a pagan than a christian. It is a common thing to see in some of our churches streams of tobacco juico sufficiently large to swim a thimble. It is to be of decency, if nothing else, that th fifthy practice will be entirely abandoned.

P. S.-Ladies i mark the man who chews tobacco during divine service—he is not a worthy companion. The new Methodist Church in this borough is rapidly approaching to completion. The interior of the building is now undergoing fresco painting, and will be the handsomest in town. The paster of this congregation, Rev. D. Shoaff, deserves much credit for the untiring zeal and energy with which he has pushed forward this work, notwithstanding the adverse circumstances under which he has labored. It will be dedicated on Sunday the first of February next.

A St. Louis paper says that the grass-hoppers have cat up the entire tobacco crop of Franklin county, and the last that was heard from them they were seated on the corners of the fence begging every man that passed for a chew. He (Lewis) sent his postage bill to us the other day which we considered exorbitant, and refused paying until he gave the items. This he could not do; and to vent his spite stuck up a bill in his office to the effect that our ac-count was for sale, &c.—Hunt. Journal.

Brewster's postage bill amounts to 66 cents, which he refused to pay unless we would "give the items"—that is to say, a regular bill for a paper to day, or a book or something else to-morrow, and so on. Such accounts are never kept in a Post Office, and this fact the scoundrel knows.-We are willing to be qualified to the aggregate amount of Browster's bill, which he refuses to pay, and which we have "stuck up for sale," and which, unless sold at private sale, will be offered at public auction in the streets of Huntingdon, during the present week! Thus, every act of Bill Brewster's is pregnant with meanness and dishonesty, and the public must hereafter excuse us for taking no further notice of him, or the "poor witty-cur," of whom he is making a consummate dupe and fool. They have piled up lie upon lie-no assertion, however extravagant, they have not hesitated to make—and in private, boast of their meanness and rascality. They stand before this community branded, by common consent, as liars and scoundrels, mor al periurers, and poor, weak, and imbecile whelps, whom it would be a pity to spit upon or to kick!

A Grand Cotillion Party will come off at the Broad Top City Hotel, on the 22d of February. The cars will then run within a half mile of the City, and we learn that Excursion Tickets will be issued for the occasion. It is intended to make this "the Party" of the Season, and we doubt not it will far surpass anything of the kind ever-be fore seen in these parts. Prepare for a pleasure excursion A new saddlery ostablishment has been opened by Mr. John G. Gilbert, in the room formerly occupied by M. Strous, opposite the Post Office. Read his advertisement and give him a call. The notes of the Eric City Bank are selling at 70 cents on the dollar. The notes of the Lancaster are bought at 80 cents. There are rumors afloat unfavorable to the credit of several of the Ohio and Indiana

Banks.

ALBERT OWEN,

January 7, 1857. County Superintendent. NEW BOOK FOR A GENTS.—
THE LIFE and TIMES of ALEXANDER HAMILTON; by Samuel M. Smucker, A. M., author of the Life and Reign of Nicholas I, of Russia, &c., &c.
This is the only complete and reliable biography of this great Man. He was the intimate personal friend of Washingron, and by many considered his equal.
This work includes a history of the times and men of the Revolution, and many incidents not heretofore given in history. It has all the charms of romance, although prepared from the most reliable and authentic sources, and should be in the hands of every American who reveres the great and good men of our Revolution. A sketch of Burn is also given, and an account of his miserable end.
Agents wanted in every part of the United States, for this and other valuable works, to whom the largest commissions will be paid. Copies sent by mail, on receipt of the price, $1.

November 26, 1856. SCOTT&CO'S REPRINT of THE BRITISH PERIODICALS AND THE FARMER'S GUIDE. A great reduction in the price of the latter pub ication.

5. SCOTT & CO., NEW YOKK, continue to publish the following leading British Periodicals, viz:

THE LONDON QUARTERLY (Conservative). THE EDINBURG REVIEW (Whig). THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church).

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal). BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURG MAGAZINE (Tory).

These Periodicals ably represent the three great political parties of Great Britain—Whig, Tory, and Radical—but politics forms only one feature of their character. As Organs of the most profound writers on Science, Literature, Morality, and Religion, they stand, as they ever have stood, unrivalled in the world of letters, being considered indispensable to the scholar and the professional man, while to the intelligent reader of every class they furnish a more correct and satisfactory record of the current literature of the day, throughout the world, than can be possibly obtained from any other source.

ONEY, MONEY, MONEY.—Why be without Money? when it is just as easy for any one to be around with a pocket full as not, if they only think so. I have got a new article, from which from five to twenty dollars a day can be made, either by male or fomale. It is highly respectable business, and an article which is wanted in every family in the United States. Enclose me two dollars by mail, and I will forward by return mail a Circular, with full instructions in the art. The business is very easy. Try it, if you are out of employment, and you will never regret it; for it will be better for you to pay the above sum, and insure a good business, than to pay twenty-five cents for a spurious advertisement. This is no humbug. Try it! Try it! Try it! Address your letters to
