This work embraces the prominent public events of the last half century, both at home and abroad; a complete autobiography of the author—his early days, education, and literary career; and an amount of original, curious, and valuable personal incident, ancedote and description, seldom, if ever, met with in a single work. It is the auseldom, if ever, met with in a single work. It is the author's life-long work, and nothing superior if equal to it blended amusement and instruction, has ever been published. Mr. Goodrich is the author and editor of 170 vol. lished. Mr. Goodrich is the author and editor of 170 volumes, of which seven millions of copies have been sold! and this the great work of his life time, embodies the condensed substance of his ample literary and practical experience; the war with. England in 1812-14, in which Mr. Goodrich was a private soldier: the Hartford Convention, whose operations took place under his immediate observation, and with most of the members of which he was personally acquainted. Embracing curious and interesting details respecting old Jeffersonian Democracy, Old Federalism, and Connecticat Blue Lights; curious and marvellous events connected with the rise and progress of religious sects in the United States: with descriptions of the French-Revolution of 1838, and Louis Napoleon's Coup of Etat, both of which the author witnessed. Also, a full account of the Peter Parley's Tales,' of which four millions have been sold. lions have been sold.

In the course of the work will be found pen and ink portraits of over Two Hundred celebrated persons—Presidents, Vice-Presidents, Kings. Queens. Emperors. Soldiers. Poets, Wits, Enthusiasts, Physicians, Lawyers, Politicians. Diplomatists, &c.—all described from personal acquaintance lions have been sold.

The books which have heretofore been published on this subject, have been adapted to mere children, or to those who made it a thorough study. Hence, very few of the millions of readers in this country have, within their reach, anything satisfactory upon this subject. This indicates a great and an obvious want, as no subject is more intensely interesting, and none more improving, than that of the living beings that people the globo.
