

TERMS OF THE GLOBE.

Table with 2 columns: Term/Description and Price. Includes rates for per annum, per month, and per line of advertisement.

The Globe

WILLIAM LEWIS, HUNTINGDON, PA., APRIL 22, 1857. Editor and Proprietor. VOL. XII. NO. 44.

Select Poetry.

From the Montgomery Watchman. WRITTEN ON RECEIVING A GIFT. A simple 'token of regard,' Presented by a friend; Will often prove of more account And greater pleasure lend...

Select Story.

MARY MOORE. BY MARY W. STANLEY GIBSON. CHAPTER I. All my life long I had known Mary Moore. All my life long, too, I had known I loved her.

'In a year,' I thought, as the stage whirled away from our door again, 'in a year, or three years at the very most, I will return, and if Mary is as pretty as she used to be—why, then, perhaps I may marry her.'

CHAPTER II.

A tall, bearded, sun-bronzed man, I knocked at the door of my father's house. The lights in the parlor windows, and the hum of conversation and cheerful laughter, showed me that company were assembled there.

A Safe House to Sleep in.

A lawyer of high reputation, in the city of Philadelphia, was traveling in one of the Southern States; and being belated one evening, after a long day's ride, he was compelled to turn into a house on a solitary plantation, and ask for shelter and hospitality for the night.

SACREDNESS OF TEARS.

There is a sacredness in tears. They are not a mark of weakness, but of power. They speak more eloquently than ten thousand tongues. They are the messengers of overwhelming grief, of deep contrition, of unexpressed love.

MYSTERY, MURDER, ROMANCE AND CRIME IN MEMPHIS, TENN.

A short time since a young man by the name of Tanner, in Memphis, Tenn., of most blameless life and manners, was assassinated in the streets at night.

Activity.

Activity is one of the everlasting laws of existence. There is no religion without work. Laziness is a spiritual death. Whoever acquires anything worth having by lying still and waiting for it to come to him.

How to 'Go It.'

Go it strong in your praise of the absent. Some of it will be sure to get round. Go it strong when you make love with a pretty widow. More people have erred by too little than too much in this particular.

Political.

Sketch of the Democratic Nominee for Governor.

The following biographical sketch of the Democratic candidate for Governor has been prepared to accompany the proceedings of the convention which placed him in nomination, and which will soon be issued in pamphlet form: Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

He was born in Centre county, Pa., on the 2nd day of April, 1807. At an early age he was apprenticed to the printing business in the office of the Bellefonte Patriot, published by Hon. Henry Petriken, Deputy Secretary of State under Gov. Shunk, a distinguished and able Democrat, and in 1827 became the editor and proprietor of the Lyscombing Gazette, which he published for many years.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Gen. Packer is about six feet in height, well proportioned, open, frank, expressive features, cordial and kind in his intercourse with his fellow citizens; very popular wherever well known, and enjoys a wide and extensive reputation for morality, his neighbors and acquaintances. He is an able and experienced statesman, thoroughly versed in all the measures of State policy for the past twenty-five years.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Of all the offices in the Commonwealth, that of Governor is most important—more so even than the Legislature, or all other departments of the government combined, for he controls the whole. His veto gives him power over the Legislature, and in these days of corruption and incompetency, is about the only sure protection the people have against bad laws and extravagant expenditures.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Our candidate, then, has all these positive qualifications. Are there any negative ones? We have heard none suggested—we know of none—and there are none. His long and prominent career has exposed him to every species of attack, yet he stands untarnished and invulnerable.

Political.

Sketch of the Democratic Nominee for Governor.

The following biographical sketch of the Democratic candidate for Governor has been prepared to accompany the proceedings of the convention which placed him in nomination, and which will soon be issued in pamphlet form: Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

He was born in Centre county, Pa., on the 2nd day of April, 1807. At an early age he was apprenticed to the printing business in the office of the Bellefonte Patriot, published by Hon. Henry Petriken, Deputy Secretary of State under Gov. Shunk, a distinguished and able Democrat, and in 1827 became the editor and proprietor of the Lyscombing Gazette, which he published for many years.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Gen. Packer is about six feet in height, well proportioned, open, frank, expressive features, cordial and kind in his intercourse with his fellow citizens; very popular wherever well known, and enjoys a wide and extensive reputation for morality, his neighbors and acquaintances. He is an able and experienced statesman, thoroughly versed in all the measures of State policy for the past twenty-five years.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Of all the offices in the Commonwealth, that of Governor is most important—more so even than the Legislature, or all other departments of the government combined, for he controls the whole. His veto gives him power over the Legislature, and in these days of corruption and incompetency, is about the only sure protection the people have against bad laws and extravagant expenditures.

Gen. Wm. F. Packer.

Our candidate, then, has all these positive qualifications. Are there any negative ones? We have heard none suggested—we know of none—and there are none. His long and prominent career has exposed him to every species of attack, yet he stands untarnished and invulnerable.

but an energetic actor, following the substance and not the shadow. Springing from the people, he is always ready to do battle for their rights. Looking to them as the legitimate source of all political authority, he is ready to trust them with every power consistent with representative government.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Amount. Lists names like Lewis Cass, Howell Cobb, Jacob Thompson, John B. Floyd, Messrs. Toucey, Black and Brown, and a total of $4,500,000.