By S. G. Goodman, author of several works of History. Teler Parley's Tales.' &c.
It is believed that the above work will be very acceptable to the American public. It is the result of years of toil and labor, assisted in his researches by several scholars of known ability, and has been got up at a great expense by the proprietors. No pains have been spared in the execution of the Illustrations and Maps, which are prepared expressly for this work. Indeed, all the other historical writing of Mr. Goodrich, sink into insignificance, when compared to this, the result of hisriper and maturer years. It is admitted that one hundred dollars could not purchase the same matter in our other shapes and the realistors.

Many of our Agents having been told when solicting subscribers, that this work would soon be sold in Bookstores, and at a reduced price, we hereby give notice, as Sole Publishers of it, it will not be sold in Bookstores at any price, and will be offered by our canvassing Agents only, who have the sole right of sale in their respective districts, except that where we have not appeinted an agent, WE will send copies by mail, postage pre-paid, to any part of the United States, upon receipt of the retail price.
