Laying up for Children.
Parental affection naturally inquires what can best do for the welfare of its children in future years, and when the bosom which now throbs with love to its offspring shall be cold in death.

The Printer's Dollars!
Where are they? We'll suppose one of them is in somebody's pocket in Philadelphia, another in Boston, a third in New York, a fourth in Baltimore, while a fifth is resting securely in some city or town in the West.

Pork.—"A fat hog is the very quintessence of serofula and carbonic acid gas; and he who eats it must not expect thereby to build up a sound physical organism. While it contributes heat, there is not a twentieth part of it nitrogen, the base of muscle."

The dissipation that some persons resort to to drown care, are like the curtains that children in bed pull around them to keep out the dark.
