Senator Bigler's Speech.

We intend in our next paper, to lay before our readers the admirable speech of Senator Bigler, recently delivered by him at Clarion, Clarion county, in reply to Wilmot, the abolition candidate for Governor. It effectually exposes that arch-demagogue, and will repay an attentive perusal.

The Financial Crisis.

The Banks, with few exceptions, have suspended in Baltimore, Pittsburg, Washington, D. C., Wheeling, and other cities. The banks of Lancaster, York, Reading, and Harrisburg, have suspended—and nothing short of a general suspension for a short time, of the Banks of this State is looked for, if they have not already suspended.

We learn that the Governor has issued his proclamation convening an extra session of the Legislature, on Tuesday, the 6th of October, to consider the special subject of

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—It is the general impression that the approaching fair will exceed those heretofore held in this county, both in the quantity and quality of articles exhibited, and the indications are, that it will be more generally attended by citizens of our own as well as of adjoining counties. We are glad to see the increasing interest that is being taken by our farmers and other citizens in agricultural affairs, and we feel confident that our county can give as creditable an exhibition as any other in middle Pennsylvania, if all interested will but make the effort to do so.

The fair will commence this day two weeks and continue three days. The committee of arrangements are busily engaged in preparing the grounds, erecting the necessary sheds, stalls, &c., and it is to be hoped that every farmer, and manufacturer in the county, or his agent, will be here with something to exhibit. Indeed, let everybody come, and represent some branch or department of industry, and let the world know what you have been doing and how you have done it.

FARMERS' HIGH SCHOOL .- We direct the attention of furmers, and our readers generally, to the proceedings which took place on the occasion of the annual election of Trustees of the Farmers' High School of Pennsylvania, which will be found on our first page. This important institution claims, and should receive, the co-operation and assistance of our whole people. That such an institution is necessary, there cannot be a doubt, and that, when fully established and in active operation, its beneficial results will be felt throughout our agricultural commonwealth, all we believe, admit. Then, in order to realize the benefits which it is the object of this institution to confer, let our people take that interest in its establishment, which their appreciation of it would seem to dictate. Let not Huntingdon county be behind in this matter, but let her thrifty, generous hand be seen at work for the common

Black Republican Regard for White Labor.

The Black Republican party of this State, at the present time are acting upon the prinpapers are vociferating for Wilmot, and prepiest, freest, most prosperous people on the are made to the sturdy inhabitants of the old of October next. Keystone, to swerve them from their attachment to the Democratic party and those national principles upon which that organization is based. We give an extract from the latest issued in order to cheer the Black Republican troops in the coming contest:

Be active, be diligent, be persevering, be untiring in your efforts. Wherever you have influence, exert it—let no occasion pass without doing something to promote the cause of WHITE LABOR. Be instant in season and out of cause of White Labor. He instant in season and out of season, remembering that the cause is worthy for which you contend—the triumph of free white labor over Slave Labor—and the honor and glory of our Commonwealth is the product of the labor of her hardy sons of toil. Lot not the Nigger Democracy fasten its blighting policy upon our State by a supineness on your part. Let not the advocates of Slave Labor triumph over the friends of Free White Labor! Let not the beautiful and fertile Territories of our common Country by your your earlesness be our common Country, by your vote or your carlessness, be cursed by the blighting tread of the Slave.

This is a specimen of the miserable cant of these Black Republican, Abolition preachers. They assume the championship of white labor. And how do they propose to advance the interests of white laboring men in the North? By developing in a proper and Constitutional manner those great interests of our country which afford work to the millions -by protecting the rights of poor white men from the crushing effects of monied monopolies—by advocating such measures as will give the laborer a fair return for his industry? Not one of these reformatory steps have been taken by the Black Republican party. On the contrary, they propose to promote and to the Northern States to enter into competition with white men in all the walks of productive industry. The Black Republican party are the advocates of slave labor in opposition to that of free white men. This is fairly established by all their efforts to place the colored man on an equality with the white. The Black Republican party is but another name for the ultra-Abolition organization of our country, and the effects of its doctrines upon the white laborers was thus set forth in 1853, by Hon. Henry Clay, in a letter to Mr. Colton, his biographer. A more truthful and graphic picture of the consequences that must inevitably flow from the triumph of Black Republicanism, has never been presented .-

Mr. Clay says: The slaves, being free, would be dispersed throughout the Union; they would enter into competition with the free laborer—with the American, the Irish, the German—reduce his wages, be confounded with him, and affect his moral and social standing. And as the ultrus go both for Abolitionism and analgamation, their object is to unite in marriage the laboring white man and the laboring black woman, to reduce the white laboring man to the despised and degraded condition of the black mon.

No sensible man will fail to see that this view of the case is sustained by all the teachthe colored domestics of a country. Wherever they have been put upon equality with white laborers, they have injured the latter to a most serious and disastrous degree. Yet with these facts indisputably known, the Black Republican Abolition party, advocate doctrines which tend to place slave labor on a libel on the character of our country—a libel a par with that of white men, in the North, upon the Declaration of Independence, and and then have the impudence to call that "doing something to promote the cause of white labor."

But this nonsensical parade of Black Republican sympathy for the white laborers of the North is fully understood in Pennsylvania. Eleventh hour appeals will not avail Mr. Wilmot and his friends. The white laboring men appealed to, are fully as intelligent as the leaders of that party, which is in favor of reducing them to an equality with standing, and the amount of compensation received for their honest industry. They can judge of men and measures, and try both by facts and experience They know what party has protected industry, and those who live by the labor of their own hands. The free white laborer of the North can take care would fall like a blight upon all the best interests of the working man.

Mr. Wilmot is the candidate of this dangerous faction, which under the guise of friendship for the white laboring men of the North, is attempting to supplant them by black laborers from the South. His election would be a fatal blow not only at the peace and prosperity of the Union, but at the real interests of all classes of working men in this section of the Union. Any policy calculated to flood the Northern States with colsupported by Northern laborers or mechanics. Such will be the effects of the Abolition measures advocated by the Black Republican party, and though at the present time they attempt to impose upon the people by affecting a regard for laboring men, they are truly in favor of reducing their compensation, and to reach that goal would free the slaves of the south, and put them in competition with the white men of Pennsylvania.

Mr. PACKER and the Democratic party is opposed to all such doctrines, and hence claims the votes of all who are really friends of the poor white man,-Pennsylvanian.

> The Westfield Argus has the following, which is not only a good joke, but a fact:

> "The best political joke we have heard this season was "done" on the occasion of 'King' David Wilmot's speech at Erie. An Irishman who had listened attentively to him, finally turned to a friend and enquired, "An' that's David Wilmot, eh?" "Yes," was the response. "And what is he running for?" Governor." "Governor of Kansas, is it?" No, Governor of Pennsylvania." "Faith, he said nothing of Pennsylvania. I thought was Kansas, sure!"

> THE PROSPECT.—Wilmot is omitting many of his appointments published with such a flourish at the opening of the campaign. He sees that his cause is lost, and would back out of the canvass entirely, if he could do so

The Prospect of the State. The Genius of Liberty says:—There never was a better prospect for an overwhelming Democratic victory in our State than at present. Indeed many sensible men of the opposition freely concede the election of the Democratic State ticket; and we doubt very much if the mass of the opposition have the least hope of electing their ticket. It is said by the knowing ones that Hazelhurst advance the cause of white labor by freeing will outrun Wilmot in Philadelphia and this the negroes of the South, and bringing them | alone will elect Packer by a tremendous majority. It is also confidently claimed by the be neck and neck with Wilmot in the general vote of the State. But let the race between the opposing candidates be as it may, there is but little doubt of the election of Packer by a large majority. The opposition is merely fighting to keep up its organization the reform necessary to be engrafted upon with the hope of carrying certain counties our banking system, will then be opened for and districts for the local offices. Whilst all this is true, it does not become democrats to remain inactive and trust altogether to the inherent strength of their cause. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" and unabating vigilance is the price of Democratic victories. Every Democrat should be prepared to do battle for his party, should see to it that his neighbor is aroused to the importance of attending the polls and aiding in the election of the whole democratic ticket. Let every fication of witnessing the defeat of his party and its usages. It is a true saying that "forewarned is forearmed."

A Demagogue Exposed!

"Resolved, That we consider the society denominated the North American Association, upon the character of those who subscribed against Liberty.

" Resolved, That the Association of Native Americans had its origin with the Federal Whig Party, the supporters of Henry Clay; that it is a renewal of the spirit of the odious Alien and Sedition Laws; that the Federal Whig Party have openly and manifestly identified themselves with it in the recent charter election in the city of New York, and is no less than a declaration of hostilities against the colored race both in social and political all foreigners who come to our shores in pursuit of freedom."

"Sink or swim, live or die, survive or persh, I stand by these resolutions."-DAVID

We copy the foregoing literally from the Bradford Argus, then the Whig organ of that county, and we quote it as our authority in charging Wilmot with the declaration that sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish,' of himself without a fear save that proceeding from the possibility of a Black Republidenounce Americanism not only as "a libel can triumph in the Northern States, which upon the character of our country," but as anti-Republican, anti-American, anti-Christian, and a most foul and treasonable plot against Liberty," having its origin with the Whig Party, and intended only to promote the election of Henry Clay, the Father of the American System. Such was the mode of warfare of Wilmot then against Americanism—such his style of vituperation and falsehood against the Whigs; such his means resorted to for the purpose of defeating Henry Clay! And yet this same dirty, lying demagogue of 1844, now professes not only to be an American, and solicits as such the support of those whom he then denounced as engaged in "a most foul and shameless audacity to traverse the State and seek the support of the Whigs, whom he then for a long time to come.—Phila. The Monetary Crisis.

The monetary crisis having come, people once more breathe freely and look matters fairly in the face. There is no unmanly despondency, no shrinking from those duties made so much noise at the door of his em- that of your neighbor is enrolled among the which altered circumstances have cast upon almost every man in the community. As Saturday were away the feeling of returning confidence infused itself more generally among the business men of our city, and things bore a healthier and more cheerful aspect. Some of the Banks paid all their notes, and all, we believe, with but two exceptions. exerted themselves to accommodate the public by paying specie on their notes of the denominations of five and ten dollars, and adopting also such means with regard to checks, as tended materially to the convenience of those having payments to make. These conciliating measures were readily responded to by the public, and a generous spirit of forbearance pervaded all classes of our citizens. Men no longer looked at the dark side of affairs, but talked of the abundant crops in all sections of the Union, the vast wealth of the country, and the certainty of relief coming f each one would have patience, and all assist to bring affairs right again, by industry and co-operation. The confident belief which took possession of the public mind, that the indebtedness of the different banks will be fully liquidated, no person losing a dollar, also acted most soothingly upon the excited masses, and made them easy and hopeful for the future. Indeed, we can safely congratulate the community upon having weathered the height of the storm, and with prudence and caution the bark may be safely brought to port once more.

The continuation of specie payment upon notes of the denomination of five and ten dollars, was a wise and prudent step, and must be continued at all hazards. The community would not tolerate any measure calculated to flood our business avenues with a paper issue below the denomination now fixed by law.— We have had too much experience to again be cursed with such a currency as used to infest our State, and injure the business of its citizens. There is an abundance of gold and silver to furnish a circulating medium up to that point required by a healthy condition of trade and commerce, and those institutions whose notes are based upon the precious metals, must see that they are kept in active circulation. The community have acted with prudence and forbearance to the Banks; it is now incumbent upon strain every neve to keep their charter engagements with the community. If this be done, there will be no want of sympathy and co-operation on the part of the community of this crisis.

purpose of considering what relief, if any, should be extended to those Banks whose charters are liable to be declared void, under the Act of 1850. The whole question, as to full and free discussion. It is a grave and important question, one that should not be treated with careless indifference, or determined without an intelligent examination into all the facts relating to the workings of our present financial system.

From the Pittsburg Daily Union, Sept 28. The Exchange, Merchants' and Manufacturers' and Citizens' Banks of this city made a partial suspension of specie payments on Saturday. This course, we hope, was dictated by a due consideration of the best interthe several institutions and whose property is entrusted to their keeping. We believe that all our Bankers and other Banking institutions continued open and able to meet every liability, and that such will be the case throughout.

In 1846, the Harrisburg Telegraph, then the State organ of the Whig party, spoke of Wilmot as follows—an opinion that was republished and endorsed by all the Whig papers in the State: "But one BRITISH FREE TRADE TO-
