Politics and the Money Panic. Some of the unserupulous Black Republicans in the State are endeavoring to make political capital out of the prevailing financial alarm, by telling those who are not acquainted with its origin, that it is the result of the election of Mr. Buchanan, and that the triumph of the Democratic party this fall, will only add to the difficulty under which all are now laboring. Such attempts to gain votes (the Lycoming Gazette truly remarks) are unworthy of anybody claiming to be a man. The election of Mr. Buchanan, it is well known, had no more to do with producing these financial troubles than the ascent of Faustin I. to the throne of Hayti. They have been brought about by a wild spirit of speculation, and are aggravated by everybody becoming suddenly frightened .---The greed to become speedily rich and an extravagant mode of living has caused men to overstep their limits in business, thereby making a crash inevitable. The "financial crisis," of which we hear so much, means nothing more than that men doing business far beyond their means have run out all the string to their kite, and it has come down; and the number of such kiteflyers being very great, the number of falls has been great accordingly. The very reverse of what the Black Republicans say about the coming election, is the truth. After this financial revolution, we shall need a man at the head of State affairs who thoroughly understands the necessities of the times, and the remedy to apply. The only man of that kind now before the people, for the office of Chief Magistrate, is Gen. Packer. He has the ability and the experience necessary for such an exigency; while on the other hand, Mr. Wilmot has had no experience in State affairs. Slavery is and has been his hobby, and aside from that he can do nothing. He would be powerless to recommend any measure of relief, because of a want of proper knowledge in State matters. A man of Gen. Packer's qualifications is more than ever needed at Harrisburg, after such an upheaving of the whole financial system.

Trickery.

Some of the more unserupulous of the opposition are making every effort to deceive the voters of the county. We find the Journal, the organ of the Evans party, predicting the withdrawal of Wharton in favor of Houtz. In the districts likely to give Evans a respectable vote, his friends, to deceive the Democrats, have circulated a report that Houtz will be withdrawn in Evans' favor on the eve of the election. And, pretty generally over the county, Wharton's friends would have the votors to believe that the Democrats will, on the day of election, withdraw from Winter Goods, and we notice that the stock | Such conduct on the part of politicians, and of each is unusually large, embracing every others, is mean-too mean for any honorable variety of goods to be found in the eastern gentlemen to be guilty of. Houtz is the nomi-

DON'T BELIEVE THEM!

We have been informed by a gentleman intend to circulate on the eve of the election, a report to the effect that DANIEL HOUTZ had We wish the voters of Huntingdon county to Marine: understand that Mr. Hourz does not intend to withdraw in favor of either Wharton or Evans-that he will continue on the course as a candidate until the voters of the county shall designate by ballot their choice for the Legislature.

on the Democratic ticket. Voters, remember seven berths in the brig. Shortly after getthis, and be prepared to meet with the truth any dishonorable attempts at deception by a very few of the opposition, who might be day morning; so it was the best tea I ever mean enough to be guilty of such conduct.

What is Involved.

LET PEOPLE REMEMBER that the elec-tion of WILMOT would be hailed as an ABO-LITION TRIUMPH, and that it would place Pennsylvania under the foretical information Pennsylvania under the fanatical influence our use. The berths were mostly occupied of New England, making her the enemy of by children. Mrs. A Ellis, of Waterford, of New England, making her the enemy of the Southern States.

LET PEOPLE REMEMBER that such an Abolition Triumph would spread Terror throughout the South, and would involve the Nation in a scene of wild excitement which would be most destructive to the interests of the Farmer, Mechanic, and Laboring man, nothing. I sat down right by the cabin door and would prove most disastrous also to through which the water was rushing in all peace, quiet, and morality. LET PEOPLE REMEMBER that the election of WILMOT would be whispered among the slaves of the South as a Negro triumph, and that fact would fill our towns, our workshops, and fields, with runaway slaves, who would disgrace labor and reduce workman's prices to ruinously low rates.

LET PEOPLE REMEMBER that the election of WILMOT would so destroy business confidence, by adding excitement to all our State and National troubles, that all confidence and credit would soon be uprooted from the bottom, and our State would become a scene of disaster and pecuniary embarrassment from end to end. LET PEOPLE REMEMBER that all these troubles can be avoided, and peace, and quiet, and public confidence will be restored by the election of Gen. PACKER.

Important Circular.

The following circular from the Chairman of the State Central Committee is well timed, and its caution and advice should be heeded and profited by.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22, 1857. DEAR SIR: The Democratic State Committee are impressed with the importance of effort to secure a full vote of our friends at the election. With a full vote our triumph is sure ;---and nothing but exertion is necessary to secure it and obtain an overwhelming victory over the opposition. We appeal to you to see that every reasonable effort is made in ycur County to get out the full vote of our party. We do this because there is room to fear that a sense of security — a confidence in I never had my shoes off for a week. I lay our strength — is operating to decrease interour strength—is operating to decrease inter-est and paralyze exertion. The opposition are adapting their tactics to this condition of things, in failing to nominate local tickets in Berks and many other Counties where Demo- ery soul on board has gone to Davy Jones' cratic majorities are large, and in holding eities. For particulars we refer the reader nee of the Democratic party-Evans is the those parts of the State where they have ma- after, Mrs. Badger sprang forward to the meetings and putting forth their exertions in jorities. Their object, doubtless is, that the vote shall be full where they are strong, and light where they are not. We therefore earnestly urge you to give your influence and active aid for the short time that will elapse before the election, to the measures necessary to secure a full Democratic vote in your County. Our friends everywhere will be urged should be defeated than that he should be to co-operate in this duty, and it is hoped successful by deceiving a single voter in the that it will be everywhere fully discharged. The salutary results of a decided victory over the opposition at this time, will be felt for many years, and will relieve us from much effort and difficulty hereafter. It will settle all the fanaticisms of the day, destroy the factious spirits who would array one portion of the national confederacy against another, and utterly crush the fell monster of disunion. Every instinct of patriotism, then, de-mands our best efforts, and every man who loves his country, his party and his race, should now show his faith by his works-by decided, vigorous, energetic effort. We look to you for it. • The candidates on the State ticket deserve our exertions, and their success will be ours; and besides, years will elapse before another important election will be held-before an opportunity will offer to do so much as can now be done for our principles and our cause. It is not a mere assumption that Pennsylvania holds the fate of the nation in her any man upon the same ticket with himself to a remarkable degree, that makes him one hands, dictating its policy, and curbing and controlling its factions and its fanaticisms .---If she waver, these latter will soon riot in triumph over the ruins of our national glory and power; but while she remains firm, patriotism can bid defiance to wrong, and the bulwark of civil liberty will remain as free from injury as though no boisterous wave beat against its base. In a recent contest, Pennsylvania, by the influence and power of vass, that his hearers were in the habit of her great name, while the country was tremregarding all falling from his lips on the bling with fear of the worst results, placed her most eminent son in the National Execustump, as so much testimony from one on tive Chair. He has administered the Governthe witness stand in whom all confided: a ment with marked ability and justice, and reputation and influence rarely possessed in has well nigh stilled the voice of faction and these days of prevalence of vehement de- turbulence. Shall we now prove recreant to him in his hour of triumph, and by supineness lose the glory and the public profit of his achievements? Rather, shall we not, like true men, strike a final blow with energywith all our power-to overwhelm the opponents of his policy, establish his and our doctrines as indisputable law, and thus secure lasting peace to our country, and good will amongst all our people? To discharge this great duty, and to secure these highly patriotic ends, we repeat to you, it is only necessary to go to work with manly determination to get out a full vote of the people at the ensuing election. Let us not fail in this, nor have cause hereafter to reproach ourselves with indolence or indifference. We desire also to call your attention to the proposed amendments to the Constitution.-These are of very great importance and deserve general support. They will arrest much improper legislation, prevent many local difficulties, and protect the people against the accumulation of public debts. We hope you will see to it that tickets in proper form for -no better than a pickpocket. Pass him round that the printers and the public may not be imposed upon. State ticket in your County. cabin door and said, "I hear my husband's She stood there looking out some voice." time. At length we succeeded in recovering her from the sort of hysterick fit into which she had fallen.

The air in the cabin was very stifling .--The vessel was filled with molasses and sugar. The hogsheads of molasses had burst, run loose in the hold, and made an excessively noxicus smell. The pumps brought up more molasses than water. I did not sleep any on Saturday night. I did not sleep any for a whole week. My eyes became as it were set, and I could not close them. On down stairs, and said we ladies must all go had become accustomed to the air and did not want to go up, but did so. During the day the rigging of the ship was filled full of our wet clothes, to dry them. Sunday morning we breakfasted on hard crackers, and the same good tea in the same five cups. Afterwards, our fare was changed to gruel. At first we drank our soup and gruel out of soup plates, but at length we got quite aristocratic and eat them out of wooden spoons. Mr. Jones made four wooden spoons-one for Mrs. Marvin, one for Mrs. Easton, one for Mrs. McNeil, and one for myself. Sometimes we passed these spoons around; we would take them right out of our mouths and pass them to the applicants, who would immediately use them with gusto. The last day we were out the captain of the Marine came to me and borrowed mine. At night we used the life preservers for pillows. During the last part of the voyage we slept on deck under a sail. We liked this very much, better than the cabin.

I wish it was in my power to express our gratitude for the kindnes; with which we were treated by the people of Norfolk.--About twenty of us went in there, and stopped at the principal hotel. The ladies of the place immediately sent in great baskets of clothes to us-so that those who went there without anything came away with carpet bags full. Some one sent in and took the measure of all our feet, and then supplied us with very good gaiters. Especially are we indebted to Mrs. Waters, the landlady of the hotel, Mrs. Sally Tazewell, Mrs. A. F. Leonard, Mrs. R. H. Stevens, Mrs. A. Santos, Mrs. R. N. Bagner, and Mrs. Sharp, who were stopping at the hotel. Our own sisters could not have treated us with more consideration; they did everything in the world that could be done for us. We shall ever remember their kindness with the deepest gratitude. The citizens of Norfolk held a meeting and raised money for us. A committee was appointed, who presented us with a certain sum of money-the single women with $50 and women with children with $100. They also paid our fare by railroad on to New York. We were not charged anything at the hotel in Norfolk, nor were we charged anything at the hotel in Baltimore. So we all arrived in this city with a change of clothing and $50 or $100 in our pockets .---The amount is small, but to those who have lost their husbands, or all they had, and on their way home, it is of the greatest importance, for it enables them to reach their i homes.
