Line upon Line--Here and There a Little.

On Tuesday next, the Pennsylvania Legislature assembles.

On Tuesday following, the inauguration of Gov. Packer will take place.

Our best Exchange-the Germautown Telegraph. It is none of your large trash papers.

BOS-Mr. Jas. A. Brown, has the thanks of our "better half" for a handsome Christmas present.

Our particular friend H. Roman, will please accept our thanks for the bottle of Port received on Christmas morning.

Still a few more of the same sort.-Mrs. James Saxton has our thanks for a few feet of excellent pudding and sausage.

Trouble in the Camp-Who's to blame?-The advocates of a fraud, or the people who contend for their just rights?

Secretary of State.-Hon. Wm. M. Hiester, of Berks county, has been offered, and has accepted, the important post of Secretary of the Commonwealth, under Gov. Packer. At York, Pa., on Wednesday, the dress of a girl named Henrietta Mate, aged fifteen or sixteen years, took fire from the explosion of a fluid lamp. She burned to death in the street before assistance could reach her.

Shrewd business men-the men who advertise the more liberal when "the times are tight." The people too, are sensible-they know that the men who advertise liberally are good fellows to deal with, --- and they know that merchants who "can't afford" to advertise can't afford to give good bargains.

The Justices' business looking up.-Since we have issued from the "Globe Job Office" the handsome marriage certificates to be filled up by Justices of the Peace, we notice that marriages are more numerous before Justices than formerly. We have a supply of the same kind always on hand. Ditto for Clergymen.

Christmas .- The day passed off pleasantly, no doubt to a large majority of our citizens. The number of turkeys roasted was greater made to believe. The "fantastics" made their appearance about 10 o'clock and "run the thing in the ground" before they retired. In the evening the Excelsior Brass Band appeared in the streets and delighted our citizens with music, such as few towns, if any, can brag of.

A Gobbler for New Years .- After we had made two dinners on our Christmas gobbler, leaving enough for a third, on Monday a suspicious looking box was deposited in our sanctum. We instantly removed the lid and found it to contain, instead of an infernal machine, a large fat gobbler, neatly cleaned, and a note requesting us to accept the gobbler as a present for a New Year's roast, from our young friend Henry Zimmerman, jr., of Paradise Furnace. Of course we acceptwith thanks to our young friend for the handsome present-and when he is old enough should we still be in the land of the living, we will make it our business to recommend him to the handsomest and best girl in the county.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS. DECEMBER, 20th—Evening.—The holiday season having interrupted the usual course of business, the produce mar-kets have been very dull to day, but without any material change since the receipt of the late foreign news. There is very little stirring in breadstuffs, and the sales of Flour were confined to a few hundred bbls., mostly for home con-sumption, at $5 for stiperfine, and $5.25@$5.50 per bbl. for extra; fancy lots are bringing $5.76@$6.75, but there is very little doing. Ryo Flour and Corn Meal arc selling slowly at $4 for the former and $3 per bbl. for the latter.— Wheat is dull to-day; there is no demand for export, and the sales were limited at 107@110 for fair to prime red, and 115@120c for white. Corn is also dull at 50@55c, the latter for prime dry Delaware, with sales of about 2,000 bush, mostly at $3@55c, the latter for Pennsylvania, in store, at which figures about 1,000 bush. have been sold. Rye is selling at 70c to the distillers, who are the only buyers.

BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL. Important from Kansas---Vote on the Constitution.

Important from Kansas---Vote on the Constitution. Sr. Lours, Dec. 28.--Kansas advices of the 22d inst., to the Republican, states that the Constitution with slavery, was carried by a large majority. The returns are meagre. The proslavery vote at Shawnee was seven hundred and sixty-five; Alathe, two hundred; Lexington about the same. It was reported that the Lawrence body were gone to Lecompton to seize the Territorial arms. A letter da-ted Lawrence the 21st, says that Gen. Lane has gone to Fort Scott, and avowed his intention to destroy that place, exterminate the pro-slavery settlers and Shawnee reserva-tion, and carry war into Missouri. Denyer has assumed the Governorship of the Territory, and issued an address, in which he exhorts the citizens of Kansas to appeal to the ballot box for the settlement of all difficulties. He makes copions extracts from the Presi-dent's instructions, as indicative of the line of policy he designs to pursue. He also states that Calhoun invited himself, and the presiding officers of both houses of the Territorial Legislature, to be present at the counting of the returns on the 21st. There is no anthent': news from Fort Scott. [SECOND DESPATCH.] Gentlemen from Kansas report that the whole vote at Lecompton was 132; the majority for slavery was 69. No votes were received at Lawrence, and the poll books were not opened at Topeka. The slavery majority at Lexing-ton is 30. We have nothing from Leavenworth. The Republican says the Lawrence Convention will de-cide whether to go into the January election for State officers; many favor such a course with the view of crush-ing the State government. BUSINESS NOTICES.

DOUGLAS ON THE SENATE FLOOR .- The Washington correspondent of the Indepenident gives the following vivid description of the "Little Giant" when under full headway:

ł.

He is very short in stature, but of such physical proportions, aside from this lack, as instantly to attract the attention of a stranger. A very large head, connected with broad and powerfully-built shoul lers by a Git full neck; a chest sufficiently roomy to atain the lungs of a giant, and a pair of ... ort, dumpy legs, complete the physical pic-ture of the "Little Giant," if we except the broad. lofty Websterian brow, and the deep caverous eyes that sparkle and glow, when excited, like miners' lamps beneath it. It is the tremendous brain-power, lodged in that perpendicular precipice of a forehead, and shooting out its fires from its shadowed eyes, that has given him the sobriquet which he will carry to his grave. When excited and in full flow of debate, that massive head rolls and shakes with the emphasis of his thought, and the huge hand doubles until the nails indent the palm, or else the broad, open hand receives the blow of its mate, and italicises the sentence with a stunning report-The sweat pours from him profusely, and falls from his head or is thrown clear of his shoulders by those inimical shakes of the head, as the rain-drops are shaken from the trees by a storm. Add to this a thick bushy head of black hair and a restless, uneasy feeling, which prevents his being at rest for five consecutive ninutes, and keeps him moving from one point to another in the Senate Chamber, and my picture of the "Little Giant" is complete.

The People the Masters.

Twenty years ago professional politicians controlled great parties. Public opinion was made for the masses, and was too often accepted by them. Mere party newspapers aspired to create, instead of representing, the sentiments of the people. These days have passed away. Common Schools aided by the railroad and the telegraph, have simplified and disseminated great truths. Newspapers, to obtain the confidence of the masses, must be conducted upon principle. If they temporize, they go down. If they seek to substitute expediency for equity, they are exposed. Outside of all such influences as these-independent of office, and yet closely watching the movements of their representatives, are THE PEOPLE-no longer unacquainted with the affairs of State, or indifferent to the actions of their servants; but keen and

Dr. Hardman treats Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma, Larryngittis and all diseases of the throat and lungs, by Medical Inhalation, lately used in the Bromton Hospital, London. The great point in the treatment of all hunan maladies, is to get at the disease in the direct manner. All medicines are estimated by their action upon the organ requiring relief. This is the important fact upon which hobbits and the state of the stones is diseased we take requiring relief. This is the important fact upon which Inhalation is based. If the stomach is diseased we take medieme directly into the stomach. If the lungs are dis-eased, breathe or inhale medicated vapors directly into the lungs. Medicines are antidotes to disease and should be applied to the very scat of disease. Inhalation is the applied to the very scat of disease. Inhalation is the interval of this principle to the treatment of the lungs, for it gives us direct access to those intricate air cells, and tubes which lie out of reach of every other means of ad-ministering medicines. The reason that Consumption, and other diseases of the lungs, have heretofore resisted all treatment has been hereuse they have never incer anall treatment has been because they have never been ap-proached in a direct manner by medicine. They were in-tended to act upon the lungs, and yet were applied to the stomach. Their action was intended to be local, and yet, they were so administered that they should only act con-stitutionally, expending their immediate and principal ac-tion upon the unoffending stomach, while the four lacers within the lungs were unmolested. Inhalation brings the medicine in direct contact with the disease, without the disadvantage of any violent action. Its application is so simple, that it can be employed by the youngest infant or feeblest invalid. It does not dorange the stomach or interfere in the least degree with the strength, comfort, or business of the pitient. Other Diseases Treated.—In relation to the following dis-cases, either when complicated with lung allections or ex-isting alone, I also invite consultation, I usually find them promptly curable. mapuy curane. Prolapsus and all other forms of Female Complaints, Jr-
