TESTIMONIALS FROM PROFESSORS AND OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"The Horace Waters Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with some degree of confidence, from personal knowledge of their excellent tone and durable quality."—N. F. Evangulet.

Having inspected a lage number of the Horace Waters' Pianos we can speak of their merits, from personal knowledge, as being of the very best quality."—Caristain Intelli Nothing at the State Fair displayed greater excellence in any department than the Piano-Forte manufactured by Horace Waters, of this city.—Churchman.

The following is taken from the "Christian Inquirer":
"The finest among the many pianos at the Crystal Palace are those placed there by Horace Waters, whose instruments are chosen shower and some contractions.

are those placed there by Horaco Waters, whose instru-ments are always popular.

The following we take from the "Christian Advocate" (Memphis, Tenn.:) "The Horaco Waters, Pianos are built of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material. From all we can learn of this establishment—said to be the lar-gest in the United States—we have no doubt that buyers can do as well, perhaps better, at this than at any other house in the Union."

"Mr. Waters has been long astablished and in Caracally.

"Mr. Waters has been long established and is favorably known. We speak from experience when we assure our readers that his prices are below those usually charged for articles in his line."—Jacksonian, V. J.

"Your instruments are a sensible improvement upon American Pionos, and an honor to the skilful manuacturer." There is no doubt but they will be appreciated by the public and all admirers of true merit.—Oscar Conclant.

The troble is clear, pure, powerful, and very melodious, the base is deep, rolling, and sonorous: the middlepart is rich, and sympathetic, and possessing the power of sing-ing, i.e. of uniting the sound of each tone, in a degree but rarely achieved."—Henry C. Hutson.

For power of tone, depthof brass, and brilliancy of treble, together with accuracy of touch, they are equal to any make I am acquainted with, and I cordially recommend them to those wishing to purchase,—Y. C. Taylor.

"Our friends will find at Mr. Waters' store the very best asortment of music and of pianos to be found in the United States, and we urge our southern and western friends to give him a call whenever they go to New York."
—Graham's Megazine.
"We consider them worthy of special attention, from the resonant and exceedingly musical tone which Mr. Waters has succeeded in attaining."—N. 1. Musical World and "There is one which, for beauty of finish and richness and brilliancy of rone, equals, if it does not excel, any-thing of the kind we have even seen. It is from the estabnt of Horace Waters. Being constructed of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material, and upon improved principles, it is capable of resisting the action of the climate, and of standing a long time in tune.—Sarannah Rapublican, Savannah. Ga."

Waters' pianes and melodeons challenge comparison with the finest made anywher& in the country."—Home Journal. Journal.
C. L. Sholes, editor of the Kenocha "Tribune and Telegraph" says, "The piano was received in good order, and is pronounced an excellent instrument by good judges, the tone of it is particularly commended, as is indeed its external workmanship and finish, compared with its cost."

Speaking of the Horace Waters' Planos and Melodeons at the Crystal Palace the "New York Disptach" says:
"A number of these planos and pedal base organ melodeons, from their great power, and fullness and richness of tone, attract the very general attention and commenda-tion of visitors. Waters' "New Scale" is recognized by artists as not only a sensible but important improvement in planos."
The "New York Express" says: "The Horace Waters Planes are pronounced by musical amateurs as a decidedly superior article in all the requisites of this instrument, and it is fast superseding those of other manufacturers."

The "New York Evening Post" says: "The Horace Waters' Pianos are excellent as well as cheap; but he has these of other malicis, as well as second-hand ones, capitally adapted to limited means."

Eays the "Knoxville (Tenn.) Standard:" "Mr. Waters has long experience in the business, and has gained a reputation insurpossed for selling the best instruments in the Horace Waters' Piano-Fortes are of full, rich, and even tone, and powerful.—Now York Musical Review.

"They are fully equal to any of the kind I have seen in the United States, and far superior to those of a similar make I saw in England."—Geo. Washbourne Morgan.

"I take great pleasure in announcing them instruments of a superior quality, both in tone and touch."—August Gooled.

We don't know that we ever saw better pianos—pianos better made, of finer tone and of greater power—than we met with yesterday at the fair in the Crystal Palace. The finest among them are those placed there by Horace Waters, whose pianos are always popular."—Times and Mes-ters, whose pianos are always popular."—Times and Messenger.

"The Horace Waters' Pianos now on exhibition at the Fair, have attracted a surprising degree of attention; they are unrivalled by any other instrument, in perfect quality of tone and power."—Courier.

"The Horace Waters' Pianos are among the most celebrated and improved makes of the day. For power, brilliancy and richness of tone, elasticity of touch, and beauty of finish, they will not suffer in comparison with those of any other manufacturer."—Thomas Baker.

The "State Register" contains the following: "For beauty of finish, sweetness and brilliancy of tone, they undoubtedly surpass anything of the kind ever brought before the public. They equal in tone the grand piano; and being constructed of the best and most thoroughly seasoned material, they are capable of resisting the action of any climate."

the "Evening Mirror": They (the Horace Waters'

Says the "Evening Mirror": They (the Horace Waters Pianes) are very superior instruments and the maker may confidently challenge comparison with any other manufacturer in the country, as regards their outward elegance, and quality of tone and power."

33. P. BRUNKER is agent for the sale of these Pianes, for Huntingdon county. He will attend to the unpacking and putting up of them, and keeping them in tune, for a year, free of charge. He will also see that every purchaser is satisfied. They will be sold as low as any other Pianes in the United States.

The general character of the Scientific American is well known, and, as heretofore, it will be chiefly devoted to the promulgation of information relating to the various Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Manufactures, Agriculture, Mechanical and Chemical Arts, Manufactures, Agriculture, Putents, Inventions, Engineering, Mill Work, and all interests which the light of Practical Science is calculated to advance. It is issued weekly, in form for binding; it contains annually from 500 to 600 finely executed Engravings, and Notices of American and European Improvements, together with an Official List of American Patent Claims published weekly in advance of all other papers. It is the aim of the Editors of the Scientific American to present all subjects discussed in its columns in a practical and popular form. They will also endeavor to maintain a cundid fearlessness in combuting and exposing falso theories and practices in Scientific and Mechanical matters, and thus preserve the character of the Scientific American as a reliable Encyclopædia of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge.
