The News.

Mr. Clarkson, charged with the delivery of the Lecompton Constitution arrived at Washington on Saturday night, and immediately placed it in the hands of the President. The Constitution is accompanied by a letter from Gen. Calhoun. President of the Convention.

The Washington correspondent of the Press, under date of Jan. 31st, says:

"Hons. Jas. B. Clay of Kentucky, John B. Haskin of New York, and Wm. L. Dewart of Pennsylvania, after a consultation of Democratic members, have been selected as a committee to wait upon the President tomorrow (Monday), and inform him that the Northern Democrats, with a few exceptions, are opposed to the admission of Kansas into the Union, as a State, under the Lecompton contrivance of Calhoun and others, which has just reached here in an official form.

The President has had his message prepared and ready for transmission to Congress for more than a week, but it may be that the unmistakeable signs given by members of the House of Representatives will change the programme which has been marked out. It cannot be known what will be the termination of the interview between these Democrats and the chief of a Democratic Administration. However, it is a step which is looked upon as leading to beneficial results. At least, good and fair men cannot but hope it will."

The Independence correspondent of the St. Louis Republican gives some additional items of intelligence from the Utah army.

- Captain Marcy, who had been despatched to New Mexico for salt, was expected back by the middle of April.

As soon as he arrives and the transportation has been effected, Col. Johnston intends making an effort to enter Salt Lake city .--Col. Johnson's impression, from the demon-of the people were well founded. Enormous frauds have been again perpetrated at the precincts of Oxford, Shawnee and Kickapoo. The President had no right to interfere with the discretion given by the organic act to the Governor to call an extra session. The result of this extra session is, that the real will of the people in regard to the Lecompton constitution is fully known. This affords the Democratic party an opportunity to defend the true principles of constitutional liberty, and to save itself from disastrous division and overthrow.

If Congress will heed the voice of the people and not force upon them a government which they have rejected by a vote of four to one, the whole country will be satisfied, and Kansas will quietly settle her own affairs without the least difficulty and without any danger to the Confederacy. The southern States, which are supposed to have a deep interest in the matter, will be saved from the supreme folly of standing up in defense of so wicked and dishonest a contrivance as the Lecompton constitution. The moral power of their position will not be weakened by : vain and useless defense of wrong, when it is perfectly certain they will gain nothing even by success in the present attempt. Mr. Stanton concludes with an appeal to the deliberate judgment of the people to determine wether he has not chosen the only honorable course which the circumstances allowed him to pursue.

The Fanny Fern, bound from St. Louis to Pittsburgh, with 400 tons of produce, 15 cab in and 20 deck passengers, exploded her boilers eighteen miles below Cincinnati, at two o'clock on Thursday afternoon last. Fifteen lives are reported lost, including Capt. Woodward, several deck hands, firemen and three ladies. The boat took fire and burned to the water's edge, when she sunk.

An Important Law Case.

The following important cases were tried at January term, last. We copy report of the trials from the American.

"The suit of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the use of the School Directors of Walker township, against Faries Leberd and others, was tried in our Court last week. It was a scire facias upon a judgment entered on a tavern license bond under the act of Assembly of 1858, entitled "an act to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors."

The principal obligor had been convicted of selling liquor in violation of the Act of 1854, commonly called the Buckalew law, whereupon the District Attorney entered judgment on the bond, and issued a scire facias quare executio non, to which the defendants pleaded payment, with leave to give the special matter in evidence. At the trial, the defence set up was, that the bond was merely a security for costs, and the costs of the prosecution having been paid by the defendants, the bond was not forfeited; or if forfeited, remained as a security for costs that

Don't say "Hard Times."

The following good advice from the War ren Ledger, may be profitably read by this community: "Don't say "hard times,"no, don't say it, even if you really believe the times are hard. The truth is not to be spoken at all times, and perhaps this is one of the occasions referred to. If you meet a man on the street and ask him what the news is, the invariable answer is, ""Oh, nothing but hard times." This is a great mistake. It is not news; it is an old story, and one that is nearly worn threadbare; and it is quite time that people should learn some other way of passing the compliments of the day. It never yet made "good times" by people crying "hard times" continually; it only aggravates the disease. Let the people of asttown all say that the Asiatic cholera is in the vicinity, and we will wager a "Kossuth" that a score or less will die with the genuine "gripe." It is all nonsense, and worse than nonsense to keep up this everlasting cry of "hard times." If you cannot say anything more encouraging, just put your head in a patent self-sealing can, or cover your mouth with shoemaker's wax; anything to put a stop to such senseless bleating. Just change the tune, and say "the times are certainly improving," and our word for it, you will feel a great deal better, and your neighbor will feel better and act better, and in a short tlme the improvement will be abundant. All that is now wanted to restore business to its proper place is confidence, and a doleful dismal whining on the part of people generally, never yet produced that, and never will. Let us unite in singing, "There's a good time coming, boys, Wait a little longer."

FIRE-HEAVY Loss.-We learn from the last Shirleysburg Herald, that, "On the morning of the 23d ult., the Mill of Thomas E. Orbison, at Orbisonia, was discovered to be on fire. So rapid was the progress of the flames, that but a small portion of the contents could be removed. The Mill was constructed for a Clover Mill, Bark Mill and Sumac Mill, under one building, and contained a large amount of stock at the time the fire occurred. The entire loss is supposed to exceed $3000. Besides the building, machinery, &c., Mr. Orbison is also the greatest loser in stock consumed. Etnier & Burket lose about $400. Some others lose small amounts. The fire was discovered about 5 o'clock in the morning. It was with great difficulty that the Merchant Mill was saved, it being only about sixty feet distant-it was several times on fire, but was timely extinguished through the energy of the citizens. We are not aware that any of the property consumed was insured. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The building was frame.

PRICE OF PRODUCE IN THE WEST .- By a letter received recently from a friend in Fulton duce in that region to be as follows :---Wheat gas read in place a bill to abolish the County Pennsylvania Legislature.

MONDAY, January 25. HOUSE.-Met at 3 o'clock, P. M. Mr. Imbrie presented a petition signed by one hundred citizens of Beaver county, praying for the passage of a law requiring Railroad Companies to fence their roads. A memorial from citizens of Harrisburg was read, praying for the erection of a monument to the memory of the fallen solizens of Cambria, Clearfield and Indiana counties, desiring the erection of a new County, to be called Pine, was offered by Mr. Wilcox, and he also introduced a bill for the erection of said county.

TUESDAY, Senate.-Forty-one petitions faoring the construction of a passenger railway on Ridge Avenue, 6th, 10th, and Arch streets, in the city of Philadelphia, were laid before the Senate. Sixteen petitions praying for the incorporation of the Mifflin County Bank, were presented. The committee on Judiciary, reported, as committed, a bill by which disability to give evidence on account of religious belief, will be removed ; but evidence of said belief may be given as heretofore to affect the credibility of the witness .--Mr. Straub introduced a resolution requesting the Committee on Vice and Immorality, to introduce a bill to make a change in the license laws. After a long and animated discussion the resolution was voted down. Mr. Miller's resolution relative to financial affairs, which was read last Wednesday, came up on second reading, and was discussed by several Senators, and finally postponed until to-morrow. Mr. Gazzam offered a resolution instructing a committee to report a bill establishing the post of Inspector of Liquor in each county, and providing for the confiscation of all liquors offered for sale that may be found to be adulterated. Passed-yeas 24, navs 3. House.-- A supplement to an act to incorporate the Broad Top Improvement Company was read and laid over for a second reading. The lands of this Company lie on Broad Top mountain, in Huntingdon, Bedford and Fulton counties. By resolution, the Hall of the House was tendered to Col. John W. Forney, to deliver his lecture on "American Statesmen," therein, on the evening of the 8th of February. Mr. Houtz read in place a bill annulling the marriage contract between Lavinia S. and William Drennen.

WEDNESDAY, Senate.-The Committee on Judiciary, reported a bill annulling the matrimonial alliance between Thomas Washington Smith, of St. Lawrence Hotel notoriety, and his wife. The currency resolutions were Horrible Murder at the Poor House by an Insane Man.

[From the Greensburg (Pa.) Republican.] On Monday afternoon a horrid murder was perpetrated at the county poor house, by an usane Irishman named Dennis. The victim, a child, whose mother's name is Fritz. Dennis is the man who some two years ago was tried in our court for arson, in burning the barn of a Mr. Neel, in Derry township. He was acquitted on the ground of insanity, and was ordered by the court to be confined at diers of the Mexican war. A petition of cit- the poor house, as a man unfit to run loose in society. He has been an inmate of that institution ever since, evidently insane; he would lie in bed for about a week, and then for a like period keep on his feet most of the time without exhibiting any indication of vicious habits.

On Monday last a young lady who teaches private school in this borough, at the earnest request of a number of her pupils, visited the poor house, accompanied by some twenty of her largest scholars. The steward. Mr. Hammer, accompanied the lady and her school children through a portion of the building, when he was called into the office on business. The lady visited the basement the building, and in the long hall met Dennis, who showed evidence of excitement at the children-he appeared to want to shun them-rubbed his hands and shied off to one side. After passing the children he proceeded to the hall door where the child aged between one and two years was sitting. He stared at it a moment, then took it by the feet and struck its head with all his force on the door sill, knocking out its brains and killing it instantly.

Another insane man named Miller, who was near at hand, sprung at him to seize him, but he failed to secure him. Dennis then ran out of the yard, met one of the male inmates going towards the house, struck him on the head with a stone, inflicting a severe wound. He ran down the road near where some inmates were chopping wood .--Mr. Hammer who was in pursuit hallooed to them to stop Dennis. They attempted to do so, when he ran violently against one of them, throwing him down and breaking his collar bone. Before Dennis had recovered his feet, Mr. Hammer caught him, a struggle ensued, Hammer struck him two or three times with his fist, when assistance arrived. The murderer was secured in chains.

SURPLUS WHEAT IN CANADA:-The Toonto Colonist, in a statistical article on the grain crops of Canada West, states that the surplus wheat on hands is not less than 8,000,000 bushels, and that no facilities exist, unless they are afforded by the Grand Trunk Railway, for the exportation of this produce. Hitherto, Canada has had purchasers for its surplus wheat in every frontier town of the United States, and, indeed purchasers in the New England States and New York have regulated prices in Canada; but this year the United States itself has a surplus crop, probably better saved than that of Canada. This occurrence, so fortunate for the United States, is the means of locking up in Canada for the present some two millions sterling worth of produce, for which there seems to be no outlet.

strations made by the Valley troops, was that a fight would result.

The San Francisco News Letter, of January 5, has the following strange item :

"The bodies of 300 dead Chinamen are now lying on one of our wharves, nicely packed and directed, ready for shipment to their long home in China. The freight money on this lot is $7,500."

Hon. F. P. Stanton has written a letter addressed "to the people of the United States," stating facts in vindication of his course in Kansas, and explaining the results of the act for which he was removed from the office of Secretary of that Territory.

He declares that he accepted the office. which he had not solicited, believing that the President would adhere to the policy deliberately agreed upon between him, his Cabinet, and Governor Walker.

On his arrival in Kansas, in April last, he had an imperfect and erroneous idea of affairs there. He had thought slavery the only cause of dissension and difficulty; but he soon found the people dissatisfied with the whole local government, and denying the validity of the existing laws.

Gov. Walker went among the people, and strove to induce them to decide all questions at issue by the peaceful struggle of the ballot-box. It was too late to induce the people to go into the June election for delegates to the constitutional convention, for it was well known that half the counties were disfranchised by the omission of the registration required by law. Besides this, the great central fact was an utter want of confidence in since September, has resumed her good hum the whole machinery of the territorial government.

Gov. Walker induced the people to vote at the October election. Gov. Walker found it his duty to reject fraudulent returns. Against this the minority loudly protested, and undermined him with the Administration.

The constitutional convention was hostile to Gov. Walker, and resolved not to give the people the control of their own affairs. It made the Oxford fraud the basis of its apportionment of representatives, giving a preponderance to the counties on the Missouri border. The President of the convention hurried on the election in mid-winter, when the people could not well go to the polls. Thus, again they were disfranchised.

The people saw and felt this fraud, and called on him (Mr. Stanton) to summon an extra session of the Legislature to protect them against the wrongs contemplated by the constitution. Had he not complied, there would have been collision and bloodshed.-The result has shown that the apprehensions | revulsions !

might accrue on subsequent convictions. The plaintiffs contended that the conviction caused an absolute forfeiture of the bond, and that the whole penalty was recoverable for the use of the proper school district, and relied upon the 10th, 28th and 31st sections of the Act of 1856 as sustaining this view. The Court instructed the jury to find for the plaintiffs. Verdict for the plaintiffs for $500.

The case was tried for the plaintiffs by District Attorney Cremer and A. W. Benedict, Esq., and for the defendants by Messrs. Scott & Brown.

The case of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the use of the School Directors ner and others, was like the above, with the exception that the conviction was for a violation of a store license bond under the Act of the receipt of a mess of ripe strawberries 1856.

The defence was the same as in the above case, with the addition that the bond was not executed agreeably to the Act of Assembly. The Court instructed the jury to find for the plaintiffs. Verdict for the plaintiffs for of flowers are in full bloom. $500

'T. H. Cremer, District Attorney, and A. W. Benedict, Esq., for the plaintiffs; A. P. Wilson, R. B. Petriken and D. Blair, Esqrs., for the defendants.

Thèse cases are new and important, and will probably go to the Supreme Court for final adjudication."

BUSINESS AT PITTSBURG .-- A correspondent of the Press, under date of Jan. 28, says: "Pittsburg having been unusually dull and the dirty face, and a hundred rollingmills and factories will soon gladden the hearts of thousands by giving employment to the honest laborer and mechanic, and by stimulating business generally. In another fortnight the "Birmingham of America" will be sending her products to all parts of this great country. We have entirely subdued the panic-a task easily accomplished because of its fictitious character-and our banks are all able to resume specie payments. But three of them are in a state of suspension; the Bank of Pittsburg and the Iron City continue to pay specie, and the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Bank, after a suspension of ninety days, and a clear riddance of its unworthy officers and a portion of its directory, has resumed, and is speedily regaining the confidence of the public. During the late financial embarrassments, and while hundreds in every other city in this and foreign countries were driven to bankruptcy and ruin, the actual capital employed in conducting our business machinery saved us. No failures here were caused by the panic. How forcibly these things argue that business done upon a substantial basis will stand the test, if it does not remove the causes, of all financial SPECIE HOARDED .- There never was a period in the history of our country, when so much specie was hoarded as at the present Indeed it is contended by the New York Evening Post that the specie now in the United States exceeds the bank-note circulation. It is estimated that there is about $200,000,000 of coin outside of the banks and in the hands of the people. The amount in the Banks is estimated at $60,000,000, making a total of $260,000,000. The Secretary of the Treasury puts down the bank note cir-culation at $214,000,000. Thus it appears-that the specie exceeds the bank-note circulation to the amount of $46,000,000. The country is certainly rich. There is an abun-

Provides are sold at their cash value, and all the profits over the first cost are thrown into the gifts, which actually cost the purchaser nothing. The prizes are distributed on a simple plan of drawing, which would take too much room to explain, but which has never failed to give complete satisfaction. We have drawn and sent to purchasers 183 gold watches of various prices, 74 purses of gold dollars, 238 gold lockets, 850 gold chains, and a corresponding number of other prizes, within two months. THERE ARE NO BLANKS. but every purchaser draws a prize worth $2 certain, and it stands thousands of chances to be a higher figure. We want a good agent in every neighborhood through-out the country, to solicit purchasers, and any agent, to be successful, must have a Pencil and prize to exhibit.— We nay agents $1 cash for each purchaser he obtains, and the first person in any neighborhood who applies for a Pencil and gift, will receive the agency for that locality.— Should an agent obtain a valuable prize to exhibit with his Pencil, be would have little difficulty in obtaining scores of purchasers, and making it a paying business. A NEW IDEA1 READ1?! READ1?! We ask nobody to send their moncy till they know what prize they draw. Any porson wishing to try their luck, can first send us their name and address, and we will make their drawing and inform them by return mail what prize they drew, which they can send on and take the Pencil and prize, or not, whichever twy choose. We give this privi-lege only once to a purchaser. After the first drawing, ev-ery purchaser will be roquired to send in advance, through the authorized agent. We will send with each drawing the number taken out, with full description of the plan of drawing. Address C. E. TODD & CO., 392 Broome Street, New York.
