Locals.

M. GUTMAN & Co., have received their Spring stock of Clothing. This house has continued to do an active business from the time it opened, but we cannot say that it has been doing a profitable business, as customers say they get clothing at astonishing low prices. Call and see for yourselves.

Mr. CHRIST. SCHNEIDER has again commenced the butchering business, at his old stand on the river bank. From experience, we can recommend his beef. We advise others to give him a call, and as long as he furnishes good beef, to patronize him.

THOS. L. STATES and ALFRED G. POTTER, with their families, left for Illinois yesterday morning. WM. J. GEISINGER and family also left for Cincinnati. J. S. BARR and family leave in a few days for Indiana.

We noticed an arrival in town last week from Schuylkill county, of from 30 to 40 men, women and children. They were on their way to the Broad Top Coal region. - Mr. P. McAteer, of Waterstreet, has leased Mr. H. CORNPROBST's hotel, and will take possession of it on the 1st of April.

Sheriff MILLER's three prisoners made an attempt to escape on Sunday night last .---They took a screw from their bed, and by heating it they succeeded in burning off a plank at the window, then removed a quantity of stone, but before they had got through the wall the Sheriff heard the noise, and by the time he arrived in their room, strange as it may appear, they were all in bed and sound asleep. They could not believe that they had made an attempt in a sound sleep to escape; but the Sheriff was of the opinion that they would sleep sounder in cells, in which they were immediately placed for safe keeping.

From an Occasional Correspondent. HARRISEURG, March 23, 1858. MR. LEWIS: Last week, having occasion to go castward, I spent a few days very pleasantly at the Capital of the old Keystone, in observing the things about town. The weather was pleasant and added much to my comfort. I called to see the new Governor. and found him very busily engaged in the affairs of the Commonwealth. Next, I visited the Attorney General and the Deputy Secretary, (the Secretary being absent) and found them to be very agreeable gentlemen, well-fitted for the positions they occupy.

In the House of Representatives, I found my friends from the Juniata region, Doctors CURISTY, HOUTZ and BOWER enjoying themselves and watching with care the interests of their constituency. Mr. Hourz from our own county, though remarkably unobtrusive in manner, has by his manly, moral bearing won the confidence and esteem of his fellowmembers. Though not much of a talker, he thinks for himself and acts accordingly.

In the Senate, in the person of WILLIAM P. SCHELL, old Huntingdon has a steadfast friend and an able, independent and fearless representative. Having the experience of two sessions in the other House, he enters upon the performance of his duties in this body with the skill of a practiced legislator. The Senate embraces many gentlemen of talent and education. I noticed in this body the familiar face of Col. THOMAS P. KNOX, of Montgomery, wearing as ever, its pleasant expression. The Colonel, whose hair is becoming silvered by the advance of age, is now serving his last session. Whilst vigilant and faithful in watching the interests of his county, he does not forget or fail to practice, those courtesies which characterize the true gentleman. His frank and modest disposition, as evinced in every-day conduct, has endeared him to those who have came in contact with him, and, with his legislative experience, has made him a popular and efficient member.

TITIAN J. COFFEY, one of old Huntingdon's sons, represents the counties of Indiana and Armstrong. He is regarded as an able lawyer; he is a pleasant, forcible speaker, and never rises to speak unless he has something to say, and then he says it well.

I am compelled, from the lateness of the hour, to desist from writing more, and perhaps shall, at a future time have more to say in the same line.

From Washington. [Correspondence of The Press.]

WASHINGTON, March 19, 1858. The fall of Lecompton and the Calhoun regency is fast approaching. It is patent to everybody. Ultra pro-slavery men do not attempt to disguise from themselves this unwelcome truth, but, on the contrary, are impressing it upon the minds of their people. Yet, while this is so, we are not startled with efforts of disunion on the part of the South; nor will there be any such efforts if there is anything to found a judgment on in the calm resignation with which the supporters of the Kansas policy of the Administration prepare for their defeat.

Pennsylvania Legislature. [Correspondence of The Globe.]

MONDAY, March 15th. Senate.-The bill creating a new county out of parts of Erie, Crawford and Warren, to be called Marrion passed finally. This bill will be, according to the recent amendments to the Constitution, submitted to the people for ratification at the next annual election. The remaining part of the time was consumed in discussing the is wanted at 7oc, and not much offering. city passenger railroad projects of Philadelphia. House .- The Governor sent in two vetoes; one relative to opening of an alley in the village of Halifax, Dauphin county; and one relative to the bill authorizing the Supervisors of Middle and South Woodberry in Bedford county, to lay a tax to complete the Pattonsville and Woodberry turnpike road. Executive interposition against legislative enactments has become, almost an every day occurrence. The Governor's grounds of objection to the bills returned by him, may be just, yet, notwithstanding this, the unprecedented frequency of the exercise of his prerogative, has caused not a slight murmer of dissatisfaction among the Senators and Representatives. Eleven memorials, praying the repeal of the tonnage tax were presented, also one remonstrance against the same.

TUESDAY. Senate.-Petitions and remonstrances were presented as follows, viz: By Mr. Shell, one from Springfield township, Huntingdon county, against attaching any part of said county to Fulton. Nineteen for, and one against the repeal of the tonnage tax. The Governor sent in a message vetoing a bill relative to directors of the Poor of Washington county. House .- The supplement to the act incorporating the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad Company, passed finally. This authorizes the company to issue six thousand shares of preferred stock, providing a majority of the present stockholders, holding two thirds of the shares of stock shall so determine; the money so obtained to be applied to the payment of the floating debt of the company. The bill char-tering the Bedford railroad company also passed finally. The evening session was occupied by the consideration of the Philadelphia city passenger railroads.

WEDNESDAY. Senate.-Bills were reported as follows, viz; to abolish taxes on groud rents and mortgages; for the better prevention of disturbances of public meetings; relative to fees of prothonotaries and clerks of courts; relative to bridges and bridge companies; relative to changes of venue; to simplify proceedings in courts; relative to evidence; relative to stocks in incorporated companies: incorporating the Fulton county insurance company; supplement to the charter of the borough of Huntingdon, &c. The report of the committee of conference relative to the final adjournment, was adopted. The minority of the committee on Kansas affairs, made a report, which was ordered to be published in the Legislative Record, and 3000 copies printed for the use of .the Senate .---House.-A resolution was offered authorizing the appointment of a committee of five persons, to investigate the cendition of several banks of doubtful standing, after being vari-ously amended, it was lost by a vote 45 yeas to 48 nays. Bills were reported as follows, viz:  $\Lambda$  supplement to the School law, and for the erection of Marion county. Bills in place were read as follows, viz: One by Mr. Houtz relative to road taxes in Union township, Huntingdon county; one to provide for the punishment of embezzlement by bank officers, clerks, servants, &c., and agents of private individuals and companies. The evening session was consumed in the consideration of the Delaware River Railroad bill.

DIED.

On the 9th inst., in Porter township, after an illness of few days, PETER STREER, in the 39th year of his age.

In the death of Mr. Stryker, the community have lost a respected and eminently useful citizen; the church has been deprived of an efficient officer, a liberal supporter, and a most worthy and consistent member; his companion mourns the loss of an affectionate husband, and five small children are left without the protecting care of one of the kindest and best of parents.

We have rarely, if ever, witnessed an occasion that cast so deep a gloom over the minds of a very large concourse of people, as the death of our lamented friend. But we sorrow not as those who have no hope, for we liave much encouragement to believe that our loss is his eternal gain. F.

A HOME THRUST.-In the National House of Representatives, on Thursday last, Mr. Haskin, an able Democrat, from the state of New-York, declared his intention to vote against the Lecompton Constitution. He said he "would not consent to make slavery perpetual in Kansas. The President indulges a vain hope if he thinks the passage of the bill admitting Kansas into the Union under the Lecompton Constitution will stop agitation. Agitation will then have but commenced. If it were not for Executive patronage, he did not believe that ten Northern Democrats would vote for the admission under the present constitution. He considered the attempt to admit Kansas under that Constitution as the most stupendous fraud Congress was ever called upon to consummate."

and, so far as I know, there seems to be a tion of Mr. Montgomery, of our own State, which in Thursday's issue was wrongly ascribed to Mr. Phelps. He proposes that the Lecompton Constitution shall be referred to a Convention to be created under law of the Territorial Legislature, which nobody pretends was not fairly elected. This Legislature will not expire until November next. When the Convention has amended the Lecompton Constitution in whatever respect they shall deem proper, then their entire work will be submitted for the ratification or rejection of the people. General Denver is fixed upon as the means by which the machinery of State Government shall be put into operation. He is an honest man, and is taken rather than any man whose name, whether justly or not, is mixed up with the Calhounism of the recent election frauds in that Territory. Of course, provision will be made in the Constitution for the election of Senators and a member of the House of Representatives from the new State, and when this act, becomes a State of the American Union. Mr. Montgomery has unflinchingly stood near its close his firmness has given him the respect and confidence of those even to whom he has been opposed. They believe that his measure, which Mr. Crittenden sta-ted in his speech the other day as the proposition substantially which would command his vote, is dictated by a pure patriotism, and no doubt therein lies, with its evident justice, the secret of the general approval which it has elicited.

GETTING THEIR PAY.-A letter from a Washington corespondent of a New-York paper, lets the cat partially out of the bag, in the following paragraph :

"Various members and movers of the recent Harrisburg Convention here are getting their rewards in shape of contracts for the Mormon war and valuable offices. Popular sovereignty pays well. The Departments and members of Congress are crowded with Pennsylvania applications for furnishing mules, wagons and other outfits for the mili tary expedition. These fortunate men will yet be immortalised in print to verify their disinterested patriotism."
