DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT,
WM. A. PORTER, of Philadelphia.
FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,
WESTLEY FROST, of Fayette Co.

New Advertisements.

☞ Administrator's Notice.
☞ Items, by Fisher & McMurtrie.
☞ We invite attention to advertisement of Mooresville High School.
☞ New Grocery and Confectionary Store, by Long & Miller. Give them a call.
☞ Read David Gwin's advertisement of Spring & Summer Goods—then, go and buy.

THE CANAL BOARD ABOLISHED.—A bill has passed both branches of the Legislature abolishing the Canal Board. The present Commissioners will remain in office until the 1st of July to settle up the business. The nomination of WESTLEY FROST has proved an empty honor.

FIRES IN HARRISBURG.—Several attempts have lately been made to burn down the town, —threats to do so have been made. Last week there was a second fire, the work of incendiaries, which destroyed two or three houses and a number of stables. Several arrests have been made, but still attempts are made nightly to fire the town, by rascals yet at large.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.—The Harrisburg Daily Herald of Monday, says: "Both Houses of the Legislature, at present, exhibit a busy scene of legislation and industry. Business is hurried through with a promptness and dispatch that puts to blush all transactions of the early part of the session. The members are making preparations for the final adjournment on the 22d inst., and every one is desirous of getting through his favorite measures. It was thought, at one time, that neither body would be ready to adjourn by the time set, but the hurry and bustle which now prevails, shows that there is no probability of their remaining any longer than Thursday."

Locals.

No less than four young men will be sentenced by Judge TAYLOR, the present term of Court, to the Western Penitentiary. They are all able-bodied men, and could have been useful citizens in any community. Two of the number, at a late hour on Tuesday night of last week, while in a state of intoxication, attacked, on Hill street, a boat captain named ELIJAH WHITE, and used him roughly. They were arrested on the next morning, were put upon trial on Thursday and found guilty of an assault and battery with intent to kill. Many who witnessed the hasty trial of these two unfortunate young men, should stop, think, and act the part of good citizens, and by so doing escape a similar fate.

The Miners' strike on Broad Top still continues, but we are informed that those who will be permitted to remain have agreed to go to work this week. A few of the most reckless have thus far prevented the well-disposed from working for the highest prices the shippers can afford to give.

LONG & MILLER have opened out an assortment of the best Groceries, Confectionaries, &c., that could be procured in the city, and the public generally would do well to give them a call. See advertisement.

The "Mechanics' Bank of Huntingdon," issued, during the last six days, over $50,000 of its paper.

D. P. GWIN's new advertisement will be found in another column. His assortment of Goods is at least equal to the best in town.

The Sale of the State Canals.

The bill for the sale of the State Canals to the Sunbury and Erie Railroad Company has passed both Houses, and it is asserted by the friends of the measure that the Governor will approve it. The sale has not been made a party question—a large majority of all parties being strongly in favor of getting rid of the Canals, the only question in dispute was the manner of sale. Among its most conspicuous advocates was the Hon. WM. WILKINS, of Allegheny. One thing is certain, that the tax-payers have reason to rejoice that they have got rid of improvements which would have been a continual draw upon their pockets. We give the vote in the Senate and House on the final passage of the bill.

In the Senate:

YEAS—Messrs. Baldwin, Brewer, Coffey, Finney, Frances, Gregg, Harris, Ingram, Meyer, Randall, Rutherford, Schell, Schofield, Shaeffer, Souther, Steele, Straub, and Wilkins—18.

NAYS—Messrs. Bell, Buckalew, Craig, Creswell, Ely, Evans, Fitler, Gazzam, Knox, Laubach, Marselis, Miller, Turner, and Wright—14.

In the House:

YEAS—Messrs. Abrams, Armstrong, Babcock, Benson, Bower, Calhoun, Crawford, Dodds, J. H. Donnelly, James Donelly, Donovan, Dunlap, Ebur, Evans, Hamel, Hayes, Himrod, Hipple, Houtz, Imbrie, Jackman, Kirkpatrick, Lauman, Lawrence, Lloyd, McClain, McClure, Mangle, Miller, Nichols, Owen, Pownall, Price, Ramsdell, Ramsey, Rhodes, Roland, Rose, Scott, Shaw, Struthers, Warner, Westbrook, Wilcox, Williston, Yearsley, and Smith of Cambria, (Speaker) —47.

NAYS—Messrs. Arthur, Askin, Bierer, Dohnert, Donehoo, Ent, Gritman, Hay, Hillegas, Irwin, Jenkins, Levett, McDonald, Nill, Nunemacher, Smith of Berks, Smith of Wyoming, Stephens, Stuart, Turner, Voeghtly, Warden, Weaver, Weiler, Wharton, and Woodring—27.

"Wild Cat Banks."

The public cannot be too guarded in receiving the notes of a number of worthlesss banks chartered by the last legislature, and approved by Gov. Pollock. A number of these concerns have recently commenced operations in the northern and north-western portions of the State, and are making great efforts to get their promises to pay into circulation. We would caution all persons against taking the notes of any bank, except such as are known to be sound and have heretofore had a good standing among the business community. The Harrisburg Daily Herald, in noticing one of these concerns—the McKean County Bank—says: "We learn that wherever the notes of this institution have appeared, counterfeits upon its issues also appeared simultaneously, and some people have been so uncharitable as to doubt which, or whether either, or both emanated from the bank!! This Bank is a genuine wild cat, full grown, and if it ever obtains a foothold, will spring upon the public like a famished tiger."

The Lewisburg Chronicle says "there is a great effort made to get afloat Shamokin Bank notes, and also a general distrust of them." The following statement shows that its means are almost wholly in New York brokers' hands or in drafts on New York—who these brokers are, and how valid they are as securities, every man must judge for himself. The managers, we are informed, are strangers to the business men of this section.

State of Shamokin Bank, March 2d:

ASSETS.

Due from City Bankers	$26,640 07
Specie in vault	6,771 95
Loans and Discounts	600 00
Notes of other Banks	653 00
Cash items N. Y. sight drafts	38,000 00
Profit and Loss	8 18
	$72,673 20

LIABILITIES.

Notes in Circulation	$33,375 00
Due Depositors	548 20
Due other Banks—Nothing
Capital Stock	38,350 00
	$72,673 20

The Herald, after copying the above statement from the Philadelphia Bulletin, adds:—How did this Bank get out a circulation of $33,000 of its own notes upon a discount of $600. Was it by loaning its own officers that sum upon "N. Y. sight drafts" on men of straw? The "assets" of the concern, as stated, afford a rich example of the condition of the whole batch of "Wild Cat" Banks chartered by Gov. Pollock, and we warn our business men to shun the whole fraternity of them. It is a striking coincidence, too, in the above case, that the "capital stock paid in" amounts to $38,350,—and "cash items, N. Y. sight drafts" to 38,000—a happy coincidence! The available assets of the Bank are no doubt limited to the amount of specie on hand, the $653 of "notes of other Banks," and, perhaps, the $600 of "loans and discounts."

The Kansas Conference Committee in Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The joint committee of conference on the Kansas bill met this morning, all the members being present for the first time. Mr. Green, on behalf of the majority of the Senate committee, submitted several propositions amending the Senate bill, none of which proved acceptable to the House committee. Propositions were then solicited from the House committee.

Mr. English responded that at the next meeting of the Committee he would submit a new bill, the precise character of which has not transpired, but it is understood to be a proposition for a substitute for the Lecompton ordinance and that the question of admission under the Lecompton Constitution, with the amended ordinance, be referred to a fair vote of the people of Kansas at an early day. If the majority vote for it, Kansas to come into the Union under the President's proclamation. If against it then the bill provides for the formation of a new Constitution, whenever the population there equals the number required for a member in the United States House of Representatives.—The committee adjourned over till to-morrow.

There is some reason to believe that Mr. English's bill will be agreed to in Conference and passed.

Agricultural Society.

The Huntingdon county Agricultural Society assembled—pursuant to previous notice—in the Court House, on Wednesday evening, April 14, 1858; and in the absence of the President, was organized by appointing Hon. Jona. McWilliams President protem.

The Minutes of last meeting were then read and approved. Some Communications were read by the Secretary before the Society, which were referred, together with other unfinished business, to a meeting of the Executive Committee to be held on the 15th inst.

A verbal statement was then made by the Committee appointed by the Board of Trustees, to solicit subscriptions in this county for the Farmers High School of Pennsylvania, in compliance with a resolution offered and adopted at the last meeting of the Association.

Mr. McAlister, of Centre co., being called on, then addressed the Association at some length, in behalf of the Farmers High School. Subscriptions for this purpose were also presented, and money to the amount of $150 subscribed.

The following resolutions were offered by Gen. Geo. W. Speer, and unanimously adopted:—

WHEREAS: It has pleased an All-wise Providence to remove by death from this Association, since our last meeting, our late worthy fellow member, Mr. PETER STRYKER, of Porter township. Therefore,

Resolved, That in the decease of our late friend and active laborer in the advancement of practical Agriculture, this Society has lost one of its best and most active members, and improved agriculture, one of its most ardent devotees.

Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded on the Minutes of the Society.

On motion. Resolved, That this Association will hold an Exhibition this year, and that the time and place for holding the same be determined at the next meeting.

On motion, John A. Whittaker, of Porter township, and John Eby, of Shirley township, were appointed Vice Presidents, to fill the vacancies occasioned by the death of Mr. Stryker, and the resignation of Mr. Speer.

On motion, Society then adjourned to meet on Wednesday evening of the first week of the August Court.

JONA. McWILLIAMS,
President protem.

R. McDIVITT, J. F. RAMEY, } Sec'ys.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee, held in the office of J. Sewell Stewart, Esq., on Thursday the 15th inst., the following resolution, amongst others, was offered and adopted:

Resolved, That T. H. Cremer, F. H. Lane, and Geo. Jackson, Esqs., of Jackson township, be appointed a committee to prepare a List of Premiums, for the coming Fair, to be submitted to the consideration of the Society at the next meeting. Signed

BY THE OFFICERS.

JUNIATA.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE GLOBE.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit a friend of afflicted humanity to bring to the notice of the public, the Institution whose claims upon Christian sympaty and benevolent co-operation are invoked in a letter, of which the following is a copy, received from the Superintendent:

Pennsylvania Training School for Feeble Minded Children.

GERMANTOWN, April 13, 1858.

To * * *:—I propose to visit the towns between here and the Ohio, with some of the pupils of the Institution which I superintend, for the purpose of enlisting public sympathy and interest in our behalf. I shall hold public meetings, and the children will exhibit their capacity for learning. If we stop at Huntingdon, can you give us an audience that will pay our expenses? We have done well in some places in this vicinity, and we are urged to go West. Will you tell me upon whom I may rely, at Huntingdon, to create an interest before hand? and will you give me the names of your clergymen and physicians, and tell me, to whom to write. I think you were here to see * * * some time since? He is well, and I shall take him with me. I want to leave home in ten days, and I will thank you to write promptly.

Yours truly, JOSEPH PARISH.

Doctor PARISH, the writer of the above letter, is the son of the distinguished Doctor PARISH, (now deceased,) of Philadelphia.—He deserves the encouragement and support of all good men, in the effort he is making, to ameliorate the condition of a class of the community, who, until within a few years, have been considered to be beyond the reach of moral training, and have been given up by their friends and the world to hopeless wretchedness. The Institution, in behalf of which an interest is sought to be awakened, has proved this to be an entire mistake. It is in the hands of an association of benevolent gentlemen who ought to be patronized and aided upon the grounds both of christian duty and of individual interest. Every christian heart will feel its own reward in contributing to raise helpless imbecility from a state of utter dependence, to a condition of comparative self-sustaining usefulness—relieving friends from painful responsibilities, and society from heavy burthens.

The object of this communication is to call the attention of the public to Dr. PARISH's intended visit with his pupils, and to bespeak for him a favorable and cordial reception. I have no doubt that the exercises of his pupils will afford great gratification to those who may witness them. Teachers of youth and friends of education, in any and every form ought, especially, to be present.

Mind, is a plant that grows and gains strength by cultivation, and there is no living being in human shape, that is so destitute of its germ as to preclude the hope of warming it into life by cultivation—if taken in time—as in the case of the vegetable plant—the soil in which it lives must be manipulated, and the weak part strengthened by the introduction of absent elements—so in the case of the mind, the body in which it germinates must undergo a system of judicious physical training, by which the weak parts are strengthened and the whole muscular power brought into healthy action. The School in question is called a "Training School for feeble-minded Children," and its title is, in some measure, an index to its system of teaching. The gymnastic exercises it employs in the physical training of the body, may be very advantageously imitated and combined to a greater or less extent with all the systems of mental training now in operation; and valuable hints may be taken by teachers and patrons of education in general, for future use, from Dr. PARISH's exhibition of his pupils, and his explanation of the principles he brings to bear in his process of developing their glimmering intellectual powers. How many bodies fall a sacrifice to the ordinary means used in the education of youth? M.

WONDERFUL GROWTH OF KANSAS CITIES.—A Kansas correspondent, in allusion to the rapid growth of Kansas, says;

"The growth of western cities has always been quoted as something marvellous, and this one of Leavenworth will not fall behind the most marvellous accounts of their progress. Less than four years ago not a building was to be seen on the spot where now reside at least eight thousand people. In the space of three years and a half it has grown up to its present proportions, and is still rapidly increasing. Two daily papers and three weeklies are published in this city. The various printing offices are overrun with job work, and business generally is prosperous. In addition to the progress in the newspaper line, the citizens are preparing for the introduction of water into their city, and also intend lighting it with gas. A great deal of activity is apparent, arising from the preparations being made here for the Utah expedition."

SUCCESSFUL REMEDIES.—As rats are quite annoying to housekeepers and others, we give the method by which they can most easily be caught:

Take your bed, and place it on the floor where the rats are most troublesome then place bits of cheese, sweetmeats, &c., on the pillows and clothes; get in bed and blow out the light, and remain quiet; the rats will soon make their appearance, and when they pass their tails over your mouth make a bite, and hold fast till the servant girl knocks their brains out with the coal scuttle.

Many persons complain of being pestered by bed-bugs. It is said that the inconvenience may be easily avoided, as follows:

On going to bed, cover yourself from head to foot with boiled molasses; let every part of the body be thickly covered with it; on coming to bite you, the bugs will stick fast in the molasses, and you can kill them in the morning.

DIED.

In the Borough of Huntingdon, on Thursday, the 8th inst., of Consumption, Miss ANN AMELIA, daughter of the late Alex. and Catharine M. Gwin, aged 16 years, 5 months and 17 days.

It is painful to the heart's affections to witness the lovely and accomplished cut off in the morning of life, just when developing tendencies to usefulness and honor in the world; but such are the daily bereavements of life, and it is not for us to murmur against the decrees of HIM, who, we are assured, "doeth all things well." ANN GWIN was a pattern worthy of imitation in all the relations which engaged her youthful career. Her memory will live in the hearts of many till the latest hour of life, for she was kind, affectionate and dutiful towards all. Her life was characterized by the graces of christianity; her words and habits exhibited the fruits of saving faith clustering in her youthful heart. Retiring and modest in her demeanor, she seemed to desire

"To be little and unknown,
Loved and prized by Christ alone."

As life, with her, ebbed out, her christian hope was in lively exercise and the many assurances she gave of her trust in Christ—expressed in words of unequivocal import —are a consoling proof to the surviving friends that her spirit now rests in the bosom of HIM in whom she trusted. —Blair Co. Whig.
