MRS. CUNNINGHAM AND ECKEL MARRIED .-The N.Y. Sunday Atlas says that the famous (or infamous) John J. Eckel has married the Mrs. Cuuningham, and that they are now living together, as of old, in New York city.

A GENTLEMAN OF TASTE.—An individual has been arrested in New York for cooking a dog-steak for dinner. He was highly incensed at the interference of the police, claiming a right to eat what he chose, and pronouncing any meddling with his taste, 'high-ly impertinent.' The Justice ordered him to be locked up and fed on prison fare till the dog days were over.

was sitting in his chair a few days ago, reading a letter from his sister, in which was an account of the sudden death of three persons by lightning, when he made the remark, "In the midst of life we are in death," which was no sooner finished than his foot dropped to the floor, his head fell back, and he was a corpse.

THE SLAVE TRAFFIC .-- Dates from Havana to July 23d, informs us that over twelve hundred coolies had recently been landed on the island, and that three hundred more embarked with these, had died on the passage .--Capt. Williams, and crew, and brig Nancy, bound for Africa, had been arrested and the captain and crew imprisoned, on the charge of slave-trading.

BIRTHS AND DEATHS IN LONDON .- During the week ending July 3, the births of 828 boys and 775 girls—in all, 1603 children were registered in London. In the ten corresponding weeks of the years 1848-57 the average number was 1605. The deaths registered in London, which had been 1092 in the previous week, were 1241 last week .---This mortality is rather in excess of the average.

Rep-An exchange asserts that nearly all the suicides in this country are by foreigners. Yankees, it says, rarely, if ever, make way Yankees, it says, rarely, if ever, make way our miners have reaped rich golden store with themselves, for nearly every one thinks to say that the Hudson's Bay Company are he has a chance of becoming President; at any rate his curiosity lets him live on, just to see what he will come to. It is supposed that foreigners, on the contrary, desire to die, just to see where they will go to.

REP RE-APPEARANCE OF THE PLAGUE.-The plague, after an intermission of twenty years, has re-appeared in a district of the Pasholk of Tripoli, named Bengaji, and at last account was continuing to make rayages as an epidemic. There was a rumor that it had already reached Constantinople, but for this there was no foundation. The most stringent quarantine regulations had been resorted to.

The President, accompanied by Miss Lane, Miss Bright, the daughter of the Hon. Jessee D. Bright, Sir William Gore Ouseley, Lady Onseley and daughter, and P. M. Ma-graw, of Baltimore, arrived at Bedford Springs on Wednesday night last, at 11 o'clock, via [From the San Francisco Bulletin.] Cumberland. The president is in excellent health, and apparently not fatigued. The party will remain, it is supposed, two or three weeks.

The flour mar-ket is firm but quiet at previous quotations: there is little or no inquiry for export, and the sales are limited to the wants of the home trade at from $1.25 to $1.50 for old stock, and late inspected superfine, $1.7565 for fresh ground do., the latter for better brands, made from new wheat, which are most saleable; $1.87265.25 for extra, and $5.5060 per bbl, for fancy lots as in quality and fresh-ness. The market is nearly bare of Corn Meal and Ryc Flour; the former is wanted at $3.75 for Penn. Meal, and the latter at $2.3726 per bbl. The market is poorly suplied with wheat, and prices are fully maintained, with sales of about 2,000 bushels to notice in small lots, at 11566120c. for fair to prime Reds, and 12564155c. for White. Ryc is in Cruz, from whom we have obtained the following particulars, that may prove of interest to our readers. It is worthy of note that there is no discrepancy between the relations of different individuals-all their statements agreeing. The mines are reported to be ex-ceedingly rich, and yielding large returns to those engaged in digging. placed in a bottle of water and corked up.-Not being accustomed to this kind of treatment, it writhed and snapped considerably, but finding this unavailing it gave up the ghost. After it was taken out of the bottle, the water in which it was drowned was thrown on a plot of grass in the yard attached to the Logan House, and so much had it been poisoned by the venom emitted by the snake, that it killed the grass on which it fell, turning it black trom the tip of the blades to the root.

General Harrison's old Log Cabin Burnt.

The "old Log Cabin," so famous in politi-cal history, has gone at last! It was the residence of Gen. Harrison at North Bend, about fifteen miles below the city, when he was nominated for President, and was made famous by a thousand songs in the campaign of 1840. Miniature imitations were crected in every corner of the land, and praises of were upon every tongue, and probably had quite as much influence in the election as any other subject that was canvassed. But its "latch-string" has disappeared at last !

We have, says the Cincinnati Gazette, of July 26, no minute details of the conflagration, but learn from passengers who arrived by the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad yesterday morning, between one and two o'clock, that as the train arrived at North Bend, the old Log Cabin was enveloped in flames, and that its destruction was complete. It was occupied by Col. Wm. II. II. Taylor, (who married a daughter of Gen. Harrison,) and family, and we learn that such was the rapid progress of the fire, and so late its discovery, that the members of the household barely escaped in their night clothes !

Of course nothing was saved in the way of furniture or documents, and the probability is that many valuable papers, left by President Harrison, together with articles cherished as relics of the Old Hero, and of the early history of the West, have been destroyed with the building. The only portrait of Mrs. Harrison in existence (painted by Beard) with two or three of the General, taken at different periods of his life, are also probably destroyed.

Mrs. Harrison, the widow of President Harrison, fortunately was not in the dwell-ing; the venerable lady at present being at the residence of Hon. J. Scott Harrison, a son of Gen. II., a few miles beyond the old homestead.

North Bend is not only famous as the unpretending residence of President Harrison, but occupies a no mean position in Western was at one time regarded as the rival of Cincinnati, or "Fort Washington."

At North Bend, Judge Symmes projected the great "Miami City," and went so far as to map out the streets, lawns, public squares and all the arrangements for a city of the first magnitude; but a fortunate incident turned the tide in favor of the present site of our throng of the city.

subsides. No disturbances of a serious nature had yet occurred between the Indians and the miners, nor were any apprehended as long as the Indians remained unsupplied with liquors. Mr. Hill, from whom Hill's Bar took its name, is mining some distance above that point, and, with six hands, was making from one ounce to one ounce and a half a day per man. For three weeks prior to the freshet, Mr. Hill and one man averaged from one hundred to one hundred and fifty extremely scarce on the river, and all kinds of food command a dollar the pound, irrespective of cost. Flour, beef, pork, coffee, etc., are all sold at one dollar a pound. A great many persons are congregated at Se-home and Whatcom, bound for Fraser river. In those places provisions are also very scarce and high, flour commanding from $45 to $50 per barrel. Many of the passengers by the Santa Cruz return for the purpose of purchasing provisions. No real suffering exists at those places, although there are a great many persons who are represented as being "strapped," having lost all they had by gambing, which is carried on very extensively.— They have neither the means to push forward to the mines, nor return to San Francisco; yet they are represented as not actually in a state of suffering from want. Money scems ling, which is carried on very extensively.state of suffering from want. Money seems to be abundant, and a good deal of enterprise is exhibited in various occupations that have suddenly sprung up in those places. The universal impression is, that the new mines promise the realization of all that has been reported of their exceeding richness. There may be some isolated cases of real suffering, but none such have come to the knowledge of our informant, although there are a good many whose imprudence has deprived them of present means either to go on or to come back. The above contains the character of the intelligence we have been enabled to glean from parties who have just returned. Gambling is the great bane in the way of the emigrant, and should be proportionably avoided.

SAN FRANCISCO, Monday, July 5.

This Fraser's river matter is having a serious effect on the down trips of the steamers, both in passengers and dust or treasure, and will, I fear, continue to do so until the northern mines are able to send gold from the new diggings. You can form no idea how perfectly the one thing has taken possession of every man in the State, to the abandonment of mines, houses, stores, ditches, labor and loafing. Just think of the number of steam-History. It was the first landing place of ers on the route. The Panama, Oregon, Co-John Cleves Symmes, original patentee of lumbia, Republic, Cortez, Sierra Nevada, all the land between the two Miamis, and Orizaba, Brother Jonathan, Pacific, Santa Cruz and Northerner, eleven in all, each carrying away an average of over 500 every ten days. And then add the hosts of sailing vessels, and you will have some idea of the rush for the new diggings.

 Λ singular parade, recently took place at Mansfield, Ohio. It consisted of fifty fat flourishing metropolis, and "North Bend" men. The lightest in the company weighed has ever since remained a beautiful rural re- 200 pounds. The captain estimated at 258 men. The lightest in the company weighed treat from the dust, impurities, and busy pounds; the heaviest man in the crowd weighed 335, and the next 290 pounds.

DIED,

On the morning of the 31st ult., near Mill Creek, AI-FRED SIMPSON, in the 18th year of his age.

He lay nine months under the influence of Typhoid Fever, which closed his earthly career. During his illness dollars a day. The freshet, however, drove he embraced Christ, by whom he was sustained when pass-him off for the time being. Provisions are ing through the "deep waters." He was unspeakably happy before he died, and passed away in great triumphy May his bereaved friends look to Christ, who is the only "help in time of trouble," and through whose atonement they may obtain a meetness for a home, "where friends shall meet again." в.
