Rescue from Fire---Noble Conduct of a Policeman.

[From the Cincinnati Gazette, Aug. 30.] About twelve o'clock last night a fire broke out in the eastern end cellar of the drug store of Dr. Harris, at the corner of Fourth and Main streets. The origin of the fire is not known. It was first discovered by the young men who slept in the drug store. They had

The cellar extends the whole length of the building, and the dense smoke shot up rapidly to the fourth story of the eastern end of the building, where lived Mr. Richard A. Duncan, the periodical dealer.

When the engines, and hook, and ladder carriage arrived, Mrs. Duncan was seen at the window, imploring aid, and apparently about to leap to the ground. A large number of people had assembled by this time. and they shouted to her lustly to keep back, and shut the window, which she did.

In a few minutes, which scemed very long indeed, a ladder was run up, and the window reached.

Policeman George Carr, a noble fellow and brave officer, ventured up the ladder and into the room, at the risk of his life. Water was freely played on, and he soon appeared hearing Mrs. Duncan. As she was safely brought down, the pent up feelings of the crowd burst into loud cheers and clapping of hands.—
George ventured in again and brought out a child, which was passed down. A third time he entered and brought out the remaining child. Each time he appeared with his precious human feelight the large around a property of the large around a property of the large around a property of the large around a large time.

Mrs. Duncan and children were taken into aroom in the building on the corner of Hammond and Fourth streets, where their wants were cared for. All of them were suffocated by the smoke, dripping with cold water, and senseless. Their wet clothes were torn off, and after some rubbing, their consciousness pay returned, and when we left them, at about two o'clock, they were fast recovering. Mrs. Duncan's husband was out of the city. The children were quite small, one two and the other about five years old.

George Carr was taken to Scanlan's drug store, in a dreadful condition. He had inhaled great quantities of smoke, and was in intense pain. When we left him his loud breathings, as he endeavored to get the smoke from his lungs, could be plainly heard through the closed doors out in the midddle of the

Too much praise cannot be given to his noble daring and self-sacrificing conduct. P. S.—At 2½ o'clock this morning George Carr could not speak. His condition was very

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS.

Imily and out and adorned. The Hotel Parlors and Cham-bers are airy and comfortably furnished; and the prospect, from the Verandahs, for Beauty, cannot be excelled. For half a century, these Springs have been celebrated for their Medicinal qualities, and the Great Virtue of the waters in Rhoumatic or Chronic affections. The temperature of the water being 6012 degrees renders the Bathing delightful and invigorating. In the surrounding woods and mountains Game abounds, and the finest fish are caught in Stone creek.

Persons in pursuit of health or pleasure will find this a most delightful and healthful retreat; and its nearness to the Pennsylvania Railroad, and the cheapness of the rates charged guests, give it a decided advantage over any other than the charge of the rates. watering place in the State.
