THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE, A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, &C.

that year, signed, in conjunction with many others in Philadelphia, a letter, addressed to the Vice President, applauding him for that vote, and proffering him the protection of their approbation. How could a thinking and intelligent people trust such a party as conservators of State interests? So much for what they have done in Pennsylvania. Now what more do they do in 1858? In their platform of principles, as set forth by their State Convention, they abandon "protection for the sake of protection," and adopt the Democratic doctrine of "a revenue Tariff, with discrimination for protection." They in substance, announce their conversion to the Polk policy in the adjustment of a Tariff. This is by no means, an isolated instance of the yielding of our opponents to the truths of Democracy. The history of the country affords many illustrations of a similar character, among which may be pointed out the fact of their having been at one time, the enthusiastic advocates of a United States Bank. Now, they stigmatize such an institution as Now, they sugnitude such an institution as an "obselete idea." Again, they opposed, with the utmost bitterness and violence, the establishment of the Sub-Treasury system they are now its friends and admirers .--They fought for a distribution of the proceeds of the public lands-they have now abandoned that measure, by taking out that plank

from their platform. So much for what the Republian party has done in Pennsylvania. Mr. Pershing called the attention of his hearers to the course pursued by the Republican party in relation to a Tariff for protection, in their last National Convention. He showed, that they "sang dumb" on that question altogether, by not giving it even a passing notice, And yet, we were told last night, that to them (the Republican party of the country) we can only look for safety-for protection "from all the evils to which flesh is heir." They talk about not trusting the Democracy of the country, who established the free institutions which we enjoy-who gave birth to Liberty-nursed it in its infan-cy, and now, after half a century's devoted and unremitting care, is its defender against assaults from without our borders, as well as from within our own household. Yes, there would be great safety in trusting to a party which changes principles and names as easily and rapidly as the chameleon does its colors !-- a party, which possesses no fixity of purpose, save that of realizing the spoils of office 1

To cap the climax of the dissimulation of the Republican party, in relation to protection, we have only to east a glance at the acts of the House of Representatives of 1857, in which there was a large Republican majority. In the first place, they elected Mr. Banks as speaker, who was and is the advocate of a reduction of the duty upon COAL and IRON .-Indeed, the Republican party, in the New England States, is almost a unit in support of a low duty upon Coal and Iron. But when this Repulican House of Representatives got to work, what did they do with the Tariff of 1846? When that party had the power, did they increase the duties upon the imports ?---No! no! they did no such thing. On the con-trary, they remodeled the Tariff of 1846, by DECREASING the duties. They passed the present Tariff, which they themselves now saw has paralized the business of the country, and brought bankruptcy upon us. Yet, in the face of this not-to-be-disputed fact, they would insult the intelligence of the people, by the endeavor to impose upon them falsehood for truth, and hypoeracy for sincerity. They talk about the Iron and Coal interests of Pennsylvania, when they dare not deny that a Republican Senator from Maine, (Senator Evans) was the first to advocate the entire repeal of all duties upon Railroad Iron

Our little son's head for some time had been perfectly covered with sores, and some called it scald head. The hair almost entirely came off in consequence, when a friend, seeing his sufferings, advised us to use your Resto-rative; we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all ear friends, a very few applica-tious removed the disease entirely, and a new and luxu-riant cop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a 9th district, composed of Tell township, at the Unior school house, near the Union Meeting house, in said township.

-that the Republican Tariff of 1857 reduces the duty upon Iron from 30 per cent (as imposed by the Tariff of 1846,) to 24 per cent. Moreover, it is the Republican doctrine of the New England States, that, not only should Railroad Iron be admitted free of duty, but that there should be refunded, out of the National Treasury, to Railroad companies who have finished their roads, the amount of duty which they have paid upon the Iron used in their construction. Now, is not this a most beautiful illustration of a desire to protect Pennsylvania interest?

We have not time to follow Mr. Pershing in his all convincing, candid and argumentative address any further. To appriciate it, you should have heard it. We will venture to say, that no one comprising his audience left dissatisfied with the man or his speech. In conclusion, he boldly defined his position on the Tariff question, as he had previously done on that of Slavery. He said that, if elected, he would advocate an INCREASE of duties upon Coal and Iron-that as other States had their peculiar Tariff politics, he was for inaugurating a Pennsylvania policy -that when that question came up before Congress, he was for the mutual interest of and advocate such an adjustment of its provisions, as will yield more revenue, and, at the same time, afford greater protection to our Iron and Coal interests."

In referring to the efforts of our opponents, to lug in the Tariff question as a party question, and of which they assume to be, par excellence, the peculiar advocates and defenders, Mr. P. handled them without gloves. As said before, he reverted to the fact of Daniel Webster's having been, at one time, the advocate of free trade; also, to the fact, all the States of the Union, if such can be effected without detriment to that of our own; but, if such a desideratum cannot be realized. THEN HE WAS FOR PENNSYLVANIA AGAINST THE UNION.

HUNTINGDON BRASS BAND.—This excellent band of musicians were at this place during the week of the Encampment, We think it one of the best bands we ever heard, and consider it an honor to the town whence it hails. On Wednesday evening they favored our citizens with some of their delightful music. While in this place they won for themselves the respect and esteem of our citizens by the gentlemanly manner in which they conducted themselves.

At Pine Grove, we understand, this band serenaded the ladies at their respective residences, for which compliment the ladies presented the members with two magnificient cakes. The presentation speech in behalf of the ladies by Mr. A. Blymyer and received in behalf of the band by Maj. J. S. Brisbin. After the speeches were delivered, the band played "Gentle Annie," after which they mounted their wagon, and amid vociferous cheers, took their departure for home.

The number of years that we have been engaged in the Fur business. and the general character of our Furs, both for quality and price, is so generally known throughout the Country, that we think it is not necessary for us to say anything more than that we have now opened our assortment of FURS, for the Fall and Winter Sales, of the largest and most beautiful assortment that we have ever offered before to the public. Our Furs have all been Imported during the present season, when money was scarce and Furs much lower than at the present time, and have been manufac-tured by the most competent workmen; we are therefore determined to sell them at such prices as will continue to give us the reputation we have born for years, that is to sell a good article for a very small profit.
