Letter from Illinois.

[Correspondence of the Press.] SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 9, 1858.

My Dear Sir:—Mr. Douglas, (so far as I know,) during the present canvass in our State, has never mentioned the President's name, otherwise than in terms of respect; and I am satisfied that (publicly) regarding him as the head of the National Administration, which the Democracy of Illinois assisted with all their strength and influence to place in its present position, he will never (except under the most aggravating circumstances) attempt to cast any opprobrium upon him while he remains in the Presidential chair; no matter how far Mr. Buchanan may pass the bounds of decency in those relations which are not open to the public eye.

The condition of the Democratic party in this State may be regarded, figuratively, the same with that of the French patriots during the "Reign of Terror." Men, I say men, whose days have been spent in the service of their country, and whose zeal for the success and permanency of constitutional Democratic principles in the administration of our Government has been tempered with a conservative respect for the feelings and prejudices of those whom party predilections would naturally estrange—such men, who have been always reliable, always ready and anxious to sustain the purity of the Democratic party, are daily subjected to the sanguinary operation of the executive guillotine.

Can Mr. Buchanan hope to sustain a party for himself through such a policy? Has he any knowledge of the impulses and feelings of humanity? Does he know that the great West is peopled by enlightened men, or does he presume that the whole valley of the Mississippi is inhabited by the wild roving Indi-What influence, in the name of Heaven, can be so operating upon him as to make him a mark for the scorn and contempt of the whole nation?

The return of Mr. Douglas to the Senate by the Legislature to be elected next month. is as certain as anything not yet recorded among the events of the past; the sympathies of a very large majority are enlisted in his favor, and they are determined not to be deceived nor disappointed.

The success of the State ticket for treasurer and superintendent of public instruction depends upon contingencies which have but slight connection with the complexion of the Legislature, and although I consider it probable, yet it is matter of so little consequence in comparison with the other, that the Democracy generally are not directing their attention closely to it.

A Damaging Disclosure.

Hon. F. P. Stanton, Secretary of Kansas under Gov. Walker, in a late speech at Lawrence, made the following statement:

He (Mr. Stanton) came to Kansas in 1857, believing it to be the intention of Mr. Buchanan to deal fairly with the people. Had not this been his opinion, he would never have accepted the position of Secretary, nor Walker that of Governor of the Territory .-Justice demanded the admission that he still believed the intention of the Administration to have been good. Its present line of policy was an after-thought. Until the month of September he and Governor Walker were sustained throughout by the Administration. He would mention one circumstance which was not generally known, as showing this conclusively.

On the 1st of September, General Whitfield and Dr. Tebbs, of Kansas, who were then in Washington, signed a letter "expressly stating that the course of Governor Walker and Secretary Stanton was acceptable to the people of Kansas, inasmuch as an undoubted majority were in favor of a free State."-This letter was written at the special request of Mr. Buchanan, who was anxious to shield himself from the assaults then being made unon by the South. Through Mr. Buchai. an's agency the letter was sent to the Union office, and was actually in type, accompanied by editorial comments endorsing the character of Dr. Tebbs as a "gentleman of unimpeachable veracity," when it was seen in proof by a Southern member of the Cabinet, who ordered its suppression. From that day to this the course of the Administration towards Kansas has been a most unscrupulous

FORGOT THE BABY .- The Oxford (La.) Mercury tells the following:-"One of our citizens went to Water Valley, the other day with his family. After paying respects to friends and acquaintances, they got on the train and started home; on the road, one of the little girls laid down and went to sleep, and was sleeping soundly when the train arrived here. The good parents in taking their effects out of the cars, overlooked little sleepy—the consequence of which was, she was safely transported to the junction, leaving the parental folks feeling like they had let a bird go .-The father put out in the next train after the lost sprig, and met her at Waterford, coming down, having had a fine ride, which she enjoyed passing well."

From California.

Rumored Massacre of Several Hundred Men. by the Indians of Oregon-News from Frazer River.

New York, Oct. 15. The steamship Star of the West, has arrived with San Francisco dates to the 21st ult. She brings $1,400,000 in gold. She left Aspinwall on the 5th, and Kingston on the 8th. Among the principal consignees of the treasure, are Wells, Fargo & Co., $324,000; American 'Change Bank, $111,000; Schoole Brothers, $102,000; Feeman & Co.. $64,000.

Oregon.—The advices from Oregon are to September 1. Various rumors prevailed of Indian fights. One of these was to the effect that a train of several hundred men under Gen. Palmer, formerly Indian Agent in Oregon, had been attacked near Walla Walla, and every one killed.

The California news is uninteresting. The advices of the success of the Atlantic Cable occasioned great rejoicing, and Monday, the 27th, had been selected for a grand celebration in honor of the event.

The Government stables at Benicia Barracks, were destroyed by fire on the 13th ult., together with the carriages, provender, &c. The horses and mules were also burned. Jas. Hennescy, one of the Vigilant Committee exiles, recently brought a suit at Downigville against the Committee, for damages; but it being found impossible to empanel a jury who were not prejudiced in favor of the Committee, the suit was abandoned.

The advices from Frazer river are to Sept. 7th. The mining news was cheering. The river was falling rapidly. The miners were realizing as high as eighty dollars per day. Dry diggings had been found near Fort Yule. There were no new Indian difficulties.

A CLERGYMAN KILLED BY A BULL.—Rev. Samuel C. Parker, of Hinckley, Medina county, Ohio, met with a terrible death on last Sunday week, the 10th inst. He was seen to go into a field in which he kept a bull, with a pitchfork in his hand, for the purpose, as is supposed, of driving the animal out. About an hour after, a person called at his house to invite him to preach a funeral sermon, and was directed by the family to the field where they supposed Mr. Parker to be. On looking for him, he was found dead, the body tossed over the fence several rods from where the pitchfork was lying. The horns and head of the bull were bloody, and the blood and marks on the ground, indicated that the unfortunate man was gored and pitched along by the vicious animal from where the pitchfork was dropped to the fence, and then tossed completely
