105 The Standing-Stone Literary Association of this place, we are pleased to announce, propose giving a public exhibition of their exercises, in the Court House, on Friday evening next. We have no doubt but that the exhibition will come off with great eclat. as a greater portion of our literati are members of this association, and we expect a rare treat in the display of eloquence and oratory, as they will, no doubt, do their best. The subjects selected for discussion and debate, are of vast importance, and we presume they will do justice to all they attempt, for we are proud to say, that we have some pretty talented young men in the "ancient borough," and we predict for them a bright future.-Who knows but that Huntingdon may yet produce a Clay or a Webster? We hope this Association, like all others of a similar character, started in this place, may not bud and were. We are pleased to see such a spirit manifested in our young men, and trust that they will establish their society permanently, that it may be handed down from generation to generation yet to come.

MERRY CHRISTMAS.-Before another number of our paper will be issued, the Christmas of 1858, will be numbered among the days gone by, and as this is the last opportunity we will • have, of talking to many of our readers before that time, we will wish them, one and all, a merry Christmas. Christmas comes but once a year, and who does not look forward to the time with a fond recollection of the past, and the scenes of former days, which occur to the memory, whilst discussing over the festivities of a Christmas dinner, which every body delight so to partake of, not only because the appetite craves for the good things served up on such occasions, but because it is customary for all to look forward for something good on that day. And as the old adage says :---

"Christmas comes but once a year, And when it comes it brings good cheer,"

we expect to see everybody and all their friends looking as pleasant and cheerful as the noon-day sun. No doubt many will not have the "wherewithal" to secure many of the dainties, they are wont to have, but we trust they will follow our example, and be content with what they have, and thankful for that.

RESIGNATION OF THE REV. O. O. MCLEAN.-The health of the Rev. O. O. McClean having failed, it was deemed necessary, by his physicians and friends, that he should suspend his pastoral labors, and although the Congregation tendered him leave of absence for six months, yet his uncertainty as to the restoration of his health, at the end of that time, and his unwillingness to leave the Church without a regular Pastor, prompted again, noticed the conduct of some of the 'Young America" of this place until we are tired, but to no purpose. And now, for a week or two past, a certain class of very small boys, congregate on the street corners at night, who ought to be at home in bed, or reading some useful book, and watching their chance, coolly walk up to the door of some peaceful and quiet citizen, and give it two or kicks, and then run. On one occasion, we noticed two bright youths go up to a door, knock, and then leave, thereby bringing the inmates to the door. This ought to be stopped, and to the door. This ought to be stopped, and we trust the proper officers will watch the movements of these boys a little, and perhaps they will be able to catch some of the young scamps, and lodge them in jail, where they scamps, and lodge them in jail, where they justly belong. We are surprised that parents should allow their children to run the streets at night, when they know the evil conse-quences which attend it. CARBON TOWNSHIP TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.-We have received the proceedings of the In-We have received the proceedings of the Inbloom for a season, like the fragile rose, and | stitute held on the 10th inst., with a request then wither and die in the spring-time of its to publish, which we must respectfully dewouth, and be numbered with the things that | cline to do, for two reasons : Frst, they are not properly prepared for the compositorand second, they would occupy two much of our paper. A notice of reasonable length, of Institute meetings, will be publisheed with pleasure-but proceedings at length would occupy more room than we have to spare or would be approved by our patrons.

> THE CHILDREN AND CHRISTMAS .-- As Christmas approaches the juveniles are filled with expectations, and their little hearts beat jubilant in expectation of receiving a present. Call at Lewis' Book Store, where you will find a handsome assortment of juvenile books.

Music.-Often while listening to the notes warbled forth by some fair hand, from the piano, or, perchance, the melodeon, or some other equally charming and enchanting instrument, a strange feeling comes over us, which we are not fully able to explain. A feeling of delight, as it were, feebly expressed. Our hearts throbs within us, as the sweet toned instrument sends forth music which inspires the feelings of every one within hearing. Now a solemn dirge-then a lively air, all made at the pleasure of the artiste, and the genius of man. Never did the poet write a truer adage, when he said that

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast, To soften rocks, and bend the knotted oak."

A NOVEL INVENTION .- An exchange says, as a number of young men will persist in grinding tobacco in Church, it is proposed to get up a large flask, to be placed in the breast pocket, with a funnel or tube in the same, to receive the product of the mill, which they carry home with them and empty out on their mother's parlor carpet or cleanly scrubbed floor, instead of leaving it in the

him to tender his resignation, with the request that no obstacle should be interposed to the dissolution of the pastoral relation, by Presbytery.

A meeting of the Congregation was held on Monday Dec: 13, 1858, at which, after resolving to accept his resignation, the following resolution among others, was unanimously adopted.

"Resolved, That the Congregation cannot part with Mr. McClean without expressing their high appreciation of his talents and ministerial labors; and they do hereby bear testimony to his zeal for the spiritual and temporal interests of the Church ; to his persevering efforts to advance his Master's cause; to his earnest solicitude for the salvation of souls; his kind watchfulness and care over the young, and his tender regard for the rich and the dying, and whilst they feel thankful that his labors here have been owned and blest, they trust that his health and life may be spared for further usefulness wheresoever Providence may call him."

We yesterday received an interesting letter from a friend in Nebraska Territory, which will be found in another column, and we advise all who are anxious to seek their fortunes in the far-off land of gold, to read his letter, as he speaks in very flattering terms of the vield of that precious metal, (ye glittering gold,) at Cherry Creek, Nebraska Territory. He also sends us a specimen of the Cherry Creek gold, which abounds so plentifully in the mines already worked, and which can be seen by calling at our office.

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EX-TRACTOR.—In all diseases, inflammation, more or i, predominates—now, to allay inflammation, strikes at root of disease—hence an immediate cure. DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR and NOTHING ELSE, will allay inflammation at once, and make a certain cure. DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR will care the following among a great catalogue of dis-cases — Burnos, Scalds, Cuts, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Bunions, Bruises, Strains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofula, Ulcers, Fever Sores, Felons, Ear Ache, Piles, Sore Eyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheamatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum Baldness, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Barbor's Itch, Small Pox, Measles, Rash, &c., &c. To some, it may appear incredulous that so many dis-enses should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salvo is a combination of ingredients, each and every one apply-ing a perfect antidote to its apposite divorder. DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR in its effects is magical, because the time is so short be-

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR in its offects is magical, because the time is so short be-tween disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving na-ture as perfect as before the injury. It is scarcely neces-sary to say that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment-without it. No Pain Extractor is genuine, unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley, Manufacturer. On the evening of that date, the premums will be awar-ded to subscribers. For full particulars, see December ART JOURNAL, price 50 cents.
