Letters to My Daughter.

NO 1. HUNTINGDON Jan. 24th, 1859. My DARLING DAUGUTER :--- I have long thought of certain subjects relating to your happiness and my own; and I am again reminded of my duty to you by an article that appeared in the Globe of last week, which INQUEST .- On the 17th inst., Elias B. Wilson, Esc., summoned a jury, and proceeded to hold an inquest over the remains of the man found on Terrace Mountain, some time since, and whom we noticed at the time, and after a careful investigation, the jury returned a verdict of death from violence, by some person or person's unknown to them.' The skull gave ample evidence of violence, as it was fractured in several places. The man's name is supposed to have been Dr. Mayer, who left Woodberry, Bedford county, about the last of May or first of June, 1853, to go to Philadelphia, since which time he has not been heard of, nor has he been known to have reached that place. He was a German by birth, and is supposed to have been a Jew, from the fact that he had two straps about him, which are worn by the Israelites, in commemoration of their deliverance from bondage.

There was also found with the remains, a small hand trunk, which contained one glass inkstand, one taper match box, one tin match box, the clasp or frame of a portmonia, the frame of a cigar case, and a wooden box filled with matches, which the jury believe to have been the property of the deceased. They are also of opinion, from the appearance of the deceased, that he has been lying there from five to seven years.

 $\dot{\Lambda}$ GOOD ONE.—We heard a friend of ours tell a good story one day last week, and he must forgive us for repeating it, as it is too good to be lost: It will be remembered by our readers, that this winter three years ago, was one of unusual severity, the thermometer often ranging from between twenty to thirty degrees below zero. On one bitter, cold morning our friend had occasion to go down street very early, and meeting with our friend C---- (formerly proprietor of the "Franklin House," and who is somewhat noted for his dry wit,) and after the usual salutation of the hour, remarked "that this was a very cold morning." "By jingo," says our friend C----, "If the prothonoter had been a little longer we would have been entirely frozen up." This amused our good natured friend no little, and he gave vent to a most unrelenting ha! ha! ha! which he could not keep in. However, our friend C---- was in good earnest. Our informant told the story with such great gusto, that we think it entirely to good to be lost .--We trust, however, that our friend C---- will take no offence at what we have written.;

SHATING .--- The boys are having a good time just now, with their skates. This is manly sport, and we like to see the boys enjoy themselves on the ice; though it is somewhat dangerous. Boys you should be careful, and not go where the ice is weak, or else you may accidentally get under it. We heard of two gents who were skating on Monday last, and unfortunately, broke through the ice up seems to be a kind of ladies advertisemen for beaux. Without calling into question the prudence or imprudence of such a proceeding: I shall proceed to express to you my own views of Love, courtship and marriage; and I shall try my dearest daughter, to benefit you by my well meant advice. The subjects which I have here named are calculated to provoke a smile and perhaps a blush from one so young and inexperienced as you are, but they are not to be considered in a triffing manner by those who would be prudent; and I shall make them the subject of a series of letters to you. You will think it strange my darling, that I shall call your attention to them so early in life. It is true there is plenty of time for you to reflect upon them; but; a careful observation for many years, has led me to think it better for me to to give you my sincerest counsel now, and eventually to leave you in freedom to exercise your own judgment and pleasure. The parent who would fail to give a wholesome advice on these subjects, will fail to do an imperative duty, and a son or daughter will be compelled to run the hazards of precarious life, without the advantages of this essential branch, in a good education. The young in looking forward to the future; in looking around them upon society, are led to fancy that art is long; that their star of destiny is brilliant; that their sense of honor, of right and wrong, is sufficient to guide them in their whole transit across life; but what noble wrecks; what gens of life, light, and happiness have gone down beneath the wave of destiny, obscure, troubled in spirit, or ashamed from this very cause ! And how many ! Your youthful years my, child have seen some notable examples. ' They are many. Will you not draw lessons of instruc-tion from them,

The falsity of appearances-the fickleness of friends-the giddy chase after fashion, the vices which are hid beneath its folds, the frailties of our own natures, an inordinate ambition for display, and the longings after society, will be treated of in these letters, and I shall try to make them as plain and agreeable to you as possible.

CALLIOPE.

For the present, Adieu,

GAS METERS .- The intensity of the cold for a few days past has frozen some of the gas meters in town, and caused considerable trouble in thawing them. To prevent such inconveniencies, it is only necessary to mingle alcohol or common whiskey with the water in the meters.

Rep A series of successful revival meetings, have been going on at McConnellstown, for some days, under the charge of Rev. Barnetz, of this place.

to their middle, which, we presume, would not be a welcome bath at this time of year. You should not over exert yourselves, and you should take off your skates every half hour, to give rest to your feet, and to let the blood have free circulation, as your skates must be strapped on tightly to your feet, in order to keep them to their place, thereby stopping the free circulation of the blood.

1 On Monday morning last, Sheriff Miller took Curtis G. Carr, a rather bad negro, indicted for the larceny of an axe, to board with the Warden of the Western Penitentiary, for a term of fifteen months. We hope Curtis will be pleased with his new situation, and that he may learn a lesson which may be of some service to him after he has served his time at shoemaking or weaving-that of letting what does not belong to him alone.

PROTRACTED MEETING .- A series of meetings will commence in the new German Reformed Church on Friday evening next, 28th inst., and continue until further notice .---We hope this meeting will be productive of much good. God knows we need a reform in Huntingdon badly.

ner Social parties are becoming quite fashionable in this neck o'woods. On Tues day night a week, some of the youngsters had a "hop," up in West Huntingdon, in the house formerly occupied by T. K. Simonton. We learn that they had a nice time of it."

MARRIED, On the 20th inst., by Rev. S. IL Reid, Mr. John Saultz-Expersion and Miss ANNA MARIA, daughter of William Isenberg, of Porter township.

DIED, In Jackson township, at the residence of John B. Mc-llroy, on the 19th inst., MARY MCILROY, aged 78 years. a The deceased was for nearly sixty years, an exemplary nember of the Presbyterian Church. Life had indeed passed but roughly with her; but although the journey during the day-time of life, was over a rugged road; yet, was the night smooth and tranquil-she sunk; calmly away, resting on that blessed hope that maketh not ashamed. 🔅

For the people of Alexandria, she entertained feelings of gratitude and love, for kindness conferred. They will be glad to hear that she continued, as ever, to exercise those noble qualities which so eminently characterized her-regard for the sick-smoothing the pillow of the dying kissing the lips of children. . . + tr Peace to thy ashes, and imitated bo "Thy example, "Old Aunt Mary." . DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EX-TRACTOR.- In all diseases, inflammation, more ex-TRACTOR.- In all discusses, inflammation, more or less, prodominates—now, to allay inflammation, strikes at the root of disease—hence an immediate cure. DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN ENTRACTOR and NOTHING ELSE, will allay inflammation at onco, and niake a certain cure. DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN ENTRACTOR

DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN ENTRACTOR will cure the following among a great catalogue of dis-eases: --Burns, Scalds, Cats, Chafes, Sore Nipples, Corns, Buniona, Bruises, Strains, Bites, Poison, Chilblains, Biles, Scrofuia, Uleers, Fever Sores, Felons, Far Ache, Piles, Soro Fyes, Gout, Swellings, Rheumatism, Scald Head, Salt Rheum Baldness, Erysipelns, Riagworm, Earber's Itch, Small Pox, Measlee, Rash, &c., &c. To some, it may appear incredulous that so many dis-eases should be reached by one article; such an idea will vanish when reflection points to the fact, that the salvo is a combination of ingredients, each and every one apply-ing a perfect autidote to its apposite disorder.

ing a perfect antidote to its apposite disorder. DALLEY'S MAGICAL PAIN EXTRACTOR in its effects is magical, because the fine is so short be-tween disease and a permanent cure; and it is an extractor, as it draws all disease out of the affected part, leaving nahas a draws in disease one of the injury. It is scarcely neces-sary to hay that no house, work-shop, or manufactory should be one moment without it. No Fain Extractor is gennine, unless the box has upon it a steel plate engraving, with the name of Henry Dalley,
