ETTHE HAR.—People have for centuries been afflicted with hald heads and the only reinedy, heretofore known, has been those abominable wigs. By a recent discovery of Professor Wood these articles are being fast dispensed with, but a great many persons still patronize them, because they have been so often imposed upon by Hair Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we carnest-Tonics of different kinds. To all such persons we carnest-ly make the request, that they will try once again, for in Wood's Restorative there is no such thing as fail. We know of a lady who was bald, who used the article a short time, and her head is now covered completely with the timest and most be-autiful curls imaginable. We know of numerous cases where hair was rapidly falling out, which it restored in greater perfection than it ever had been be-fore.

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for

It is also without doubt one of the best articles for keeping the hair in good condition, making it solt and glosy, removing dandruff, and has proved itself the great-est enemy to all the ills that hair is heir to. It is the daty of every one to improve their personal appearance though some may differ in regard to the ways of doing it; but every one will admit that a benutiful head of hair, either in man or, woman, is an object much to be desired, and there are no means that should be left unfried to obtain such a consideration.— Homan's Adeo-eate Builad.dukie. cate, Philadelphia.

Connoctors, Ohio, Nov. 17, 1856. O. J. Woop & Co.-Gonte: As I have been engaged in selling your Hoir Restorative the last senson for one of your local agents (R. M. Hackinson.) and having experien-real the hencitical effects, of it myself. I would like to ob-tain an agency for the State of Ohio or some State in the West, should you wish to make such an arrangement, as I am convinced there is nothing equal to it in the United Notes, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Dructionizes of severe and have sold various States, for restoring the hair. I have been engaged in the Drug business for several years, and have sold various preparations for the hair but have found nothing that re-stores the sent tive organs or invigorates the scalp as well as yours, being fully convinced that your restorative is what you represent it to be. I would like to engage in the sale of it, for I am satisfied it must sell. Yours truly, S. T. STOCKMAN.
