

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Feb. 9, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Letters to My Daughter.

My DARLING DAUGHTER.—The subject of my last letter to you was carelessly treated, and since writing it I have regretted that my engagements hindered the careful attention to it which it deserved.

Dancing is considered beneficial as an amusement, an exercise, and as a means for giving a graceful movement to the person. To the indolent and sedentary, there is no doubt, the exercise would be all that is here promised.

The opposite of these qualities, i. e. a neglect of a proper cultivation of the heart, intellect, and muscular motion, hastens on an asperity of feeling, which leaves its visible signs stamped upon our actions and external appearances.

The fascinating exercise of dancing, is as a general rule, in excess, and at the very hours when nature calls for sleep. Exposure almost always follows the excess—an excess both of mental activity, and muscular motion; and every effort to nature's beautiful development is paralyzed.

In connection with this, my darling daughter I had intended to speak of some other kindred amusements, but they will necessarily be deferred for another paper.

And now you may see if you can give me an explanation of the allegory.

Adown from the mountains flowed a beautiful river, bright and sparkling, onward and rejoicing in its creation and its creator. On its sunlit banks stood a beautiful city rich with the accumulated treasures of former generations.

On the same night, the same villain stole a bride and saddle from Mr. Etnier, of Bell's Furnace, Shirley township. He has a wife and three children residing at the above place.

It is proposed to establish in this place, an Anti-poke-your-nose-to-other-peoples-business Society, for the benefit of a few gossiping females, who make a practice of neglecting their own business, to attend to that of others, without even an invitation so to do.

THIEVES ARRESTED.—The town portion of our readers are aware of the many petty larcenies which have occurred during this winter, but up till Thursday last, were unable to obtain any clue to the depredators.

Coble's house was searched, and articles, such as saws, chisels, squares, planes, &c., were found, to the amount of several hundred dollars. The stable of a certain Robert Morgan, was also searched, and several missing articles were found there.

MAN FOUND DEAD.—On Friday last, the body of William Nevlin, was found lying along the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Warrior Ridge Station. It appears that the deceased, had been to this place, and getting a pretty good supply of whiskey aboard, he started for Petersburg, where he lived, and it is supposed that when he got to the place above named, he lay down to sleep, and from the quantity of liquor he drank, and exposure to the cold, he died.

HOSE STOLEN.—Arrest of the Thief.—On the night of the 26th ult., a valuable mare was stolen from the stable of James Morgan, in Black Log Valley, Cromwell township.

SINGING SCHOOLS.—We are pleased to learn that the Singing Schools, under the management of Mr. Green, are progressing finely, and we are glad to know that his efforts are appreciated by our young folks.

CALLIOPE.—The man that hath no music in himself, Nor is not moved with concord of sweet sounds, Is fit for treasons, stratagems and spoils.

SCOTT LEGION OF PENNSYLVANIA.—A meeting of the surviving officers and soldiers of the Mexican war, of the counties of Blair, Cambria, Bedford, Huntingdon, and neighboring counties, will be held at the Logan House, (Corporal Keefer's) Hollidaysburg, on the evening of the 22d February, inst., for the purpose of organizing a "SCOTT LEGION."
