THE SUPPER.—The supper by the ladies of Alexandria, will take place to-morrow evening.

THE HUNTINGDON COUNTY BANK .- We are informed that the prospects of getting this "institution" through, are quite flattering.

A new-born male child was found on the Pennsylvania Railroad near Tyrone, some days since. It was alive, and we understand the Company intend to keep it and raise it.

PETERSON'S LADIES' MAGAZINE for Murch, the same place.

The "Continentals" still enliven our citizens occasionally, with their delightful serenades. We understand they intend visiting McConnellstown shortly, to give the people of that place, one of their excellent entertainments.

STOCK IMPORTING COMPANY .-- A meeting will be held at the "Logan House," Altoons, on Wednesday the 2d day of March next, at lo'clock, P. M., for the purpose of organizing a Stock Importing Company, for Central Pennsylvania. All persons favorable to the introduction of the most valuable breeds of Foreign stock, are earnestly invited to attend. MANY.

THE WEATHER .- We are having all kinds of weather just now, cloudy, rainy, snowy, sleet, sunshine, warm and cold. Changeable as a lady's temper, (we don't mean to libel the fair sex, for as is generally the case, one without some temper, makes but a poor house keeper,) but, indeed, such weather as we have had for a week past, reminds us very forcibly of the temper of some-ladies we wot of. Still we don't despair, for every storm has its calm.

ALARM OF FIRE .- About ten o'clock on Sunday night last, the chimney of a house on | killed him. He escaped, however, with but Bath street, between Church and Mifflin streets | a bruise on his right arm. Swivel then drew and occupied by some colored folks, was discovered to be on fire. An alarm was given, and the engine was promptly on the spot, but was not called into requisition, the flames having been checked before any serious damage was done. The alarm created quite an and placed in the hands of Constable Africa, excitement, amongst those who were yet astir, as we have not had a fire for a "coon's age."

HORSE STOLEN AND RECOVERED .- On Sunday evening last, while the people in the neighborhood of McConnellstown were in attendance at Church in that place, a fine horse of Mr. Moses Hamer was taken from where he had been hitched, and rode off by some person unknown. Fortunately, it was soon discovered that the horse was missing, when the alarm was given and the thief pursued and overtaken on the turnpike leading to Alexandria, but deserting the horse, he made good his escape.

VALENTINE DAY .- Monday last was Valentine day, and from the seeming throng of the "ye lovyers" were exchanging billet doux at the moment, and held on to the scamp, pretty freely. It is a day upon which friend but soon became so weak and faint, that he comical caricature, which is by no means rushed forward to assist Mr. Decker, when agreeable, and which oftener offends than pleases. It has been the custom for many and held him back. By this time, Mr. Deckyears, and we expect it will be kept up for | er became so weak, that he was unable to many years to come. The young look for- render Mr. Africa any assistance, and findward to that day with an unbounded delight, as the day on which they can revenge some wrong done them by a school-mate, or, perchance, some older persons may take advantage of it, by sending some diabolical profile ting, all efforts to capture the "monster," days, and in a civilized and enlightened country like ours, we think it should be abolished, him, and unless he leaves for parts unknown, as it is a practice not at all agreeable to the | (for we learn that he is still lurking about right thinking portion of the people. We town,) he will be caught, and properly cared came in for a "dig"-representing us as for by Sheriff Miller, until he is ready to take spanking a young squaller—the pleasure of a trip to Allegheny, at the expense of the which we have never yet had.

PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD AND CANAL.—The annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was held in Philadelphia on Tuesday the 8th inst. The financial exhibit of the Company is highly satisfactory, and the results of the business of the year, the additions to the facilities of trade and travel, the extensions contemplated, and the aid afforded to other roads, the trade of which must seek this great highway, evidence an energetic and sagacious management. The gross earnings of the road and canals for the year, were $5,296,467 22, and the expenditures $3,658,863 28, leaving as the nett earnings, $1,647,603 94.

Mr. VERNON BALL,-The Ball, which is to come off on the 22d inst., bids fair to be a grand display of the taste and skill of the managers, in the way of arrangements, &c., We are informed by the managers, that it will be the largest affair of the kind ever given in the "ancient borough." We also understand that it is to be conducted in a respectable and orderly manner, no rowdyism or drunk. enness to be permitted. Hundreds of tickets a beautiful number, first upon our table, and have been already sold, and still a few more for sale at Lewis' Book Store. The January left. Any persons wishing to attend this ball, and February numbers can also be had at should secure their tickets early, as they are going off like hot cakes. This ball is for a good cause, and we expect it to be well patronized, for who does not want to see the tomb of the father of our country preserved from the ravages of a few political aspirants. Refreshments will also be served up in the most approved style. Buy a ticket anyhow, if you do not wish to attend the ball. They Our readers must have patience for can be had of E. C. Summers, on Railroad

WHY DON'T YOU LEARN A TRADE .- This question was propounded, (says the Patriot & Union, and which is applicable to many young men of this place,) in our hearing, a few days since, to a young man who had been for several months unsuccessfully seeking employment as a clerk or salesman in one of our leading houses. Complaining of his ill-luck, one of his friends who knew he had mechanical talent, but doubted whether he could make himself useful either as a clerk or salesman, put the interrogatory to him which we have placed as the caption of this article. The reply was, that a trade was not so respectable as a merchantile occupation. Untingdon county will soon have a majority in | der this delusive idea, our stores are crowded with young men who have no capacity for business, and who, because of the fancied reborough, will be a great relief to our good cit- | spectability of doing nothing, wastes away their minority upon salaries which cannot possibly liquidate their expenditures.

Late, too late in life, they discover their error, and, before they reach the age of thirty, many of them look with envy upon the thrifty mechanic, whom, in days of their boyhood, they were accustomed to deride .--The false views of respectability which prevail in the soi-distant fashionable society of the present day, have ruined thousands of Ci young men, and will ruin thousands more.

A. DESPERATE CHARACTER.—On Tuesday afternoon of last week, William Sturtsman, a well known "plug" of this place, entered the "Broad Top House," kept by Andrew Mœbus, and called for a drink, (he being drunk at the time,) whereupon, the bar-tender, Mr. John Swivel, informed him that he had enough. At that instant, Sturtsman, M caught up the poker of the stove, ran to the door, and then threw it at Swivel, and had he not thrown up his arm, in order to save his head, we doubt not, but that it would have a revolver, and shot at Sturtsman, but fortunately, for both parties, missed the object of his aim. Swivel then went before Esquire Snare, and made information against Sturtsman. A warrant was issued for his arrest, who proceeded, in company with Michael Decker, to his house, where they found him in bed. They informed him of the object of their visit, and he expressed a willingness to go with them, and accordingly got up and dressed himself, and sat down to pull on his boots, after pulling on one, he pretended that the second was very difficult to get on, and got out his whiskey bottle to assist him, and after making several attempts, (taking a drink between each-pull,) he finally succeeded in getting it on, and then, jumping up on a box setting behind a stove, he said "he believed he would'nt go," whereupon the officers went to take hold of him, he struck Mr. Decker on the side of the face, fracturing the cheek bone, and otherwise injuring him. He postmaster on that day, we should presume however, did not feel the effects of the blow delights to torment friend, by sending some had to relinquish his hold. Constable Africa Sturtsman's wife caught hold of his coat tail, In testimony of the correctness of the above, we here unto subscribe our names and affix the seal of said county, this 3d day of January, 1859.
