THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Mar. 23, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

The closing exercises of the Mooresville Collegiate Institute will come off on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, March 30th and 31st.

At a Church meeting of the Presbyterian Congregation of this place, on Monday last, Rev. G. W. ZAHNISER, of Crawford co., Pa., received a unanimous call.

NEW GOODS COMING .-- Our merchants are now in the East, purchasing their Spring stock of goods. The advertising columns of the "Globe" will give timely notice of the arrival of new goods.

The election on Friday last, resulted in the election of Christian Long for Judge of elections, A. W. Benedict, Inspector, Christopher Schneider, Assessor, Owen Boat and Alex: Port, School Directors, and W. K. Rohm, Constable.

10 The Spring examination of the Birmingham Female Seminary will commence on Monday, the 28th inst., and close on Wednesday, the 30th. The semi-annual address will be delivered on Wednesday afternoon. Concert in the evening of the same day.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN ?- Our young friend Maj. G. received a very suspicious present by mail, one day last week. We received the same kind of a present some sixteen years ago, but as yet we have had no demand for the use of it. Hope the Major's present may come in play in the course of time.

To CORRESPONDENTS .- We have received several pieces of Poetry for publication, but the authors forgot to sign their names, and as our rule is, to publish nothing but what is accompanied by a responsible name, we forbear. For those who are ignorant of the fact, we will state here, that it is a long established rule with all printers, to publish nothing unless accompanied by the authors real name. We wish this fact to be borne in mind, by those who want to write for our paper.

THE PEOPLE HUMBUGGED .- Since the Sickles tragedy in Washington, there' has been a great demand for the New York "sensation papers." The portraits of persons convicted of murder, burglary, &c., are given as exact portraits of the parties concerned in the late tragedy. One paper gives the picture of Jenny Lind as the likeness of Mrs. Sickles. Mr. Sickles and Mr. Butterworth have been represented by the pictures of two celebrated murderers. The portrait of Mr. Alferd Bunn, the London manager, has been offered as that of Mr. Key.

Mount Airy School .- D. S. Fouse, teacher; 49 scholars-30 males; 19 females; 2 study grammar; 1 geography; arithmetic 18; 28 write and 10 read; the average attendance is 23. Entriken School.-Jacob Mountain, teacher; 26 scholars-males 15; females 11; 2 study geography; 5 arithmetic; 10 read; 10 write; the average attendance is 23. Method of teaching and school government good. Coaling School.—Samuel Baker, teacher; 33 scholars; males 22, females 11; 1 is studying grammar; 7 study arithmetic; 19 write;

19 read; average attendance is 13. Mountain School .-- C. B. Bowls, teacher: number of scholars, 35; females 16, males 19; 3 study grammar; 6 arithmetic; 10 read; 14 write ; the average attendance is 18. Particular attention is given by the teacher to oral instruction, and reading is very thoroughly taught. Government is good. Hopewell township has the advantage of an efficient district supervision. The Secretary of the Board, Mr. Jacob Summers, Jr., has been active and faithful in the discharge of his official duties, and deserves much credit. His efforts in behalf of the schools, too, are seconded by the other members of the Board. and, upon the whole, Hopewell may be set down as one of the progressive districts.

Cool Run, March 12, 1859. WM. LEWIS, Eso:-Being at leisure this morning I have seated myself to pen something for your ever interesting paper. The Globe still comes to hand punctually, filled with the latest news, and well selected matter for the general reader. And I do not flatter, when I say it is increasing in popularity in this neighborhood, as I have no. doubt your subscription book will soon show. This is beautiful weather, and if it continue a few days, our worthy agricultural friends will commence preparing the ground for their Spring crops. The grain in this part of the county looks as though the winter had not effected it much, and if nothing happens it—with a fair season—there will be a good crop. Spruce Creek Valley contains some excellent land to produce; and of a quality that does not soon wear out; being underlaid with a heavy bed of limestone. It is tilled, too, by an intelligent and industrious class of men, who understand their business, both in theory and practice. The modern and improved implements for farming are extensivey used. One little piece of ingenuity I notice in many of the barns here, is that of unloading hay by horse power. A rope with a large fork on one end is placed over a pully near the roof, and under another at the ground. A horse is attached to the other end, and by this means a ton of hay can be seph Harrison, jr., John II. Town and Jay | unloaded at four or five fork-fulls. Although

Anderson School .- This school has been merged in the Dean School of Juniata Twp., Wm. Speck, teacher. Whole number scholars 36-males 18; females 18; number coming from Penn district, 15; 8 study geography; 18 arithmetic; 28 write; average attendance 22.

The schools of Penn compare favorably with those of her sister townships. They are good in spite of many untoward circumstances. Their condition is, probably, rather the result of previous that of present good management. District supervision is entirely peg-lected; directors rarely visit the schools, and parents never. The prevailing sentiment here, is ultra-conversation-yet we do not despair. We have an abiding faith and confidence in the ultimate and complete triumph of enlightened principles. May the "good time coming," speedily come.

these thrifty farmers do much hard work understanding fully the meaning of the old adage, that,

"He that by the plough would thrive, Must either hold himself, or drive."

By the way, Franklin must be about the richest township in this county. I do not say this from the statistics, but merely from observation. There is a large amount of iron ore, two furnaces, and four or five forges in constant operation. The land too, is quite valuable. Some of it being worth one hundred dollars per acre,

Our term of school is about closing, after a session of six months. Our township, for a few years, has been one of the most progressive in educational affairs. Our best men are elected Directors, and they faithfully discharge their duty. Teachers are paid according to their qualifications; and receive sufficient compensation, at least to keep them. A number of families are leaving this valley for the west; not quite so far though as Pike's Peak. This however, is a common occurrence. The cry is still "westward," and ere long, Uncle Sam's Atlantic children will be able to join hands with his two hardy sons on the shores of the Pacific.

Yours as ever,
