THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE, A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, &C.

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, April 6, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL. nor The water was let into the Canal on the 1st inst. Boatmen are busily engaged in preparing their boats for a trip down the "raging canawl" with a load of Broad Top coal.

RATHER COOL.—The weather has been a little on the cool order for two or three days past. April, so far, is giving us the kind of weather March should have given, to keep up the reputation for its surly, growling propensities, which it is so noted for.

nor The gas lamps on the corners of our streets are quite an improvement, as well as an ornament to our town, and also very convenient to pedestrians, whose business calls them away from their homes after the mantle us.

REMOVAL .--- Boss Westbrook has removed his Boot & Shoe Store, to the room formerly occupied by Eclairas Thomas, as a confectionary, two doors east of the Globe building .-Advertisement will be found in the columns of the Globe, as soon as the Boss returns from the city.

BOROUGH ELECTION .- The election on Monday, resulted in the election of the following named gentlemen :

Burgess-Wm. Rothrock. Council-David Dunn, David Black, Peter Swoope, Louis Bergans. High Constable-Wm. H. King.

Supervisors-John White, W. K. Rahm.

HEALTH PROMOTED BY FAMILY MUSIC .---Music, like paintings and satuary, refines and elevates and sanctifies. Song is the language of gladness, and it is the utterance of ically beneficial; it rouses the circulation, wakes up bodily energies, and diffuses life and animation around. Docs a lazy man ever sing? Does a milk-and-water character is the outlet of mental and physical activity, and increases both, by its exercises. No child has completed a religious education who has not been taught to sing the songs of Zion. No part of our religious worship is sweeter than this. In David's day it was a practice and a study.

nor We think there is good sense in a suggestion made by an American who thus writes from London: "In the churches, whoever comes first, whether gentleman or lady, takes the further scat in the slip, and those that follow fill up the remaining seats, and thus prevent the awkward disturbance which occurs in our churches here in the process of filling in and out by men, in order to isolate said the habit so universal among us, origi-

A HOAX.-Two weeks ago we noticed in MAILORING! TAILORING!! our paper, that gold had been discovered at Mill Creek, or what every person supposed to be gold. Some of our citizens anxious to know the real truth of the matter, and having business in Philadelphia, took some of the ore with them, and had it tested at the mint. and the result was, "no gold there." The operators at the mint said there was a small particle of mica in it, but not sufficient to be worth the trouble of mining and smelting it.

THE SLEEPING CARS.—Our local cotempo-rary of the Johnstown Tribune, describing the new sleeping cars lately placed upon the Pennsylvania Railroad, says they are models of beauty and comfort. The outside of the cars are finished in a workmanlike manner, and the internal arrangements are dressed up in a style of elegance seldom to be seen. The apartments in each car are entirely separate from each other, being divided by a arate from each other, being divided by a partition, and provided with a door which can be shut and locked by the occupants of the apartments, thereby rendering them se-cure from any intrusion or annoyance from other passengers or persons walking through the cars, and enabling them to obtain that rest which those who ride in other passenger cars so much desire, but cannot find. Since these cars have been placed upon the road, we have been informed that the number ap of darkness has spread her husky form over partition, and provided with a door which we have been informed that the number applying for apartments therein, at either end of the road, would be sufficient to fill two cars of the same kind with each train.

MR. EDITOR.-In my observations of Huntingdon, I find there are about twenty different classes of society, such as the high and the low, the rich and the poor, the refined and unrefined, the do-somethings and the do-nothings, the respectable and those that are not respectable, the learned and the unlearned, the common street blackguard, and those who follow the same business under the sadevotion. But coming lower down, it is phys- ble mantle of darkness, the drunk and those who go behind the door to drink, and those who profess to be sober, the honest and the dishonest, the proud and those that are not proud. The Globe being a welcome visitor to ever strike a stirring note? Never. Song all their firesides, I merely name over the different classes in order that they may bethink themselves, and try to be more common place people. The Globe is what I term a friend to all. It is read as well by its enemies as its friends. And, I have not the least doubt, many of its good, moral lessons which it teaches is taken to heart by many of its bitterest enemies. However, let the enemics of the Globe, wriggle and squirm, it will live long after the Bald Hornet (which is to be,) has budded and bloomed for a season, and lost its fragrance on the desert air, to raise the battle cry of LIBERTY and INDEPEN-

DENCE forever. Well, Mr. Editor, it is a fact beyond doubt. that no person was ever in a more perilous women at the further end of the pew. It is predicament in the world, than your humble reporter is at present. In my last, you renated with the early settlers, who sat near member, I was about taking up the law.-Well, no sooner had I hung out my "shingle," than my political friends, (I am a member of the "What Not Party,") wanted to run me for High Constable, but I declined .-perfect nuisance, and the custom might well | They insisted. I told them I was no political aspirant, but wanted to live a quiet, honest life. That I did not want to be a tool for any party. (You see, Mr. Editor, if I had accepted the nomination for High Constable, the next thing they would have had my name up for United State Senator, or some other equally honorable position, if, indeed, it is an honor now-a-days, to be an office-holder.) I am determined to live in retirement, and shall never seek to have my name paraded in the public journals of the day, as a dishonest, thieving, political trickster. It is glory enough for me to watch the movements of others, who are more ambitious in that direction than I am. My law business, I will not advertise yet, my office has been crowded ever since I opened out, with clients.

TTARPER'S MAGAZINE.

TARPER'S MAGAZINE. The Publisher's believe that the Seventeen Vol-umes of Harper's Magazine now issued contain a larger amount of valuable and attractive reading than will be found in any other Periodical of the day. The best Serial Tales of the foremost Novelists of the time: LEVER'S "Maurice Thernsy," BULWER LITTON'S "My Novel," Dick-rn's "Bleak House" and "Little Dorrit," ThackERA'S "Newcomes" and "Virginians," have successively appear-ed in the Magazine simultaneously with their publication in England. The best Tales and Sketches from the For-eign Magazines have been carefully selected, and original contributions have been furnished by CHARLES READE, WHERE COLLINS, Mrs. GASKELL, Miss MULOCH, and other prominent English writers. The larger portion of the Magazine has, however, been devoted to articles upon American topics, furnished by American writers. Contributions have been welcomed from every section of the country; and in deciding upon their acceptance the Editors have aimed to be governed solely by the intrinsic merits of the articles, irrespective of their authorship. Care has been taken that the Magazine should never become the organ of any local clique in literature, or of any sectional party in politics. At no poriod since the commencement of the Magazine have its literary and artistic resources been more ample and varied; and the Publisher's refer to the contents of the Periodical for the past as the best guarantee for its future claims upon the patronage of the American public. A PEEP IN AT THE STORES .- Printers are privileged characters, sometimes-in stores always, if they do not ask for credit. The merchants know our "pile," and consequently we have been permitted to look at their goods, without being questioned as to what article we wanted. We have looked at their goods, and now we are troubled to determine where to advise our friends to go to get the best, unless we direct their attention to our new, advertisements. Gwin has lots of the very prettiest and best goods .- Fisher & Mc-Murtrie, or Rash, perhaps we should say, has been fortunate in making a selection to suit everybody .--- Benj. Jacobs and old Mose Strous, have each a large and good stock of goods. In the Clothing way, II. Roman and M. Gutman & Co., have each opened splendid assortments. Robt. King, has a fine assortment of goods for gentlemen's wear, which be will make to order in the best style. Inquiring persons will consult our columns, and their own interests, by calling at the businces places of business men, always indicated by advertisements in the columns of the "Globe."

FLAG PRESENTATION .- At an early hour on Monday evening, the Court House was crowded with ladies and gentlemen, to witness the presentation of a handsome American Flag, on behalf of Maj. Gen. Watson and his Staff, to the Excelsior Brass Band, of this place .--After the crowd had settled itself down, the Band performed the new and beautiful piece, "The Garrettson Quick Step," presented to the Band as an honor to our worthy friend, the Major, who is every inch a military man.— The Star Spangled Banner was next per-formed by the Band, when Maj. Gen. Wat-son, introduced Col. F. H. Lane, who pre-Band performed the new and beautiful piece, sented the Flag in a speech beautiful and appropriate in every particular. J. S. Stewart. Esq., on behalf of the Band, received the Flag, in a short, but neat and patriotic speech. After several pieces had been performed by the Band, the crowd dispersed, and the Band, Military, and a number of ladies and gentlemen, returned to Williams' Franklin Hotel, where they partook of an oyster supper prepared for the occasion .---After several short, but spicy speeches had been delivered, the company returned to their homes at an early hour, delighted with all the performances of the evening.

NOV TO THE ADMIRERS OF A

Talk of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head of hair, then read the following, and if you ask more, see circular around each bottle, and no one can doubt. PROFESSOR WOOD'S HIATR RESTORATIVE.—We call the attention of all, old and young; to this wonderful prep-aration, which turns back to its original color, gray hair —covers the head of the bald with a luxuriant growth— removes the dandrufi, itching, and all cutaneous eruptions —causes a continual flow of the natural fluids; and hence if used as a regular dressing for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from fulling to extreme old age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the grey, or diseased in scalp, to use it: and surely the young will not, as they value the flowing locks, or the witching curl, wer be without it. Its praise is upon the tongue of thousands, sands. The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative in New Haven, received the following letter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since: Dirp RITER, CONN, July 23, 1856. Mr. Leavenworth—Sir: I have been troubled with dan-druff or seurf on my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, seurf and hair together. I saw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a cure. I called at your store on the 1st of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and I found to my satisfac-tion it was the thing; it removed the scurf and new hair began to grow; it is now two or three inches in length achere it oas all off. I have great faith in it. I wish you to send me two bottles more by Mr. Post, the bearer of this. I don't know as any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many bottles after it is known here. Yours with respect, RUFUS PRATT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1856. PROF. Woon-Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is prov-ing itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering—in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a prom-ising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recom-mendation, I can induce many others to try it. Yours respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D. No.*464 Vine street, VINCENNES, IA., June 22, 1853. PROF. O. J. WOOD: As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Haur Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that I have, for several years been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discolor-ing the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desi-rous of having a fine color and texture to hair. Respectfully yours, O. J. Wood & Co., Proprietors, 312 Breadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market street, St. Louis, Mo. And sold by all good Druggists. [je9-1y-mar30'59] TATOUINTAIN FEMALE SEMINA-

It contrives to tench the golden medium between light and solid articles, between mere instruction and mere entertainment; and a great deal of knowledge may be gathered up from it, such as every one ought to possess."—Extract from Letter from Rev.
