THE MILITARY.—Friday last, is a day long to be remembered by the citizens of "ye ancient borough." At an early hour, a company from Orbisonia, the Ringgold Artillery, Capt. J. H. Dell, arrived, and at half past nine v'clock, a company from Huntingdon Furnace, the Scott Infantry, Capt. George Dare, and one from Petersburg, the Union Guards, Capt. Joseph Johnston, made their appearance on our streets. They numbered in all, about streets, they repaired to the field in West Huntingdon, in which the County Fairs are held, for the purpose of drill and inspection, and we are informed they passed a very creditable examination. At one o'clock, they proceeded to town, and took dinner; and were to organize again at half past two, on the streets in ranks. After marching around town, the Battalion halted in Market being nearly five o'clock, and as those who military repaired to the depot, for the purpose of getting ready to start for their homes. Mr. Scott, Superintendent of the road, furall, it was the grandest military display that has been in Huntingdon for a number of sequently, I have a clear field to work in.with out-siders.

FIGHT IN A SUNDAY SCHOOL.—Last Sunday week, a fight occurred in a Sunday School, out on the Ridges, about five miles from this place, at what is called the Union School House. The facts of the case, as we learn them, are as follows:-The school met at the usual time. Mr. John Flenner, teaches | the whole twelve miles. From Bloody Run a bible class, and during the time of reciting | to Bedford there is an excellent turnpike lessons, one of the members composing Mr. Flenner's class, named Smiley, became unruly, and he attempted to put him out, where- | der contract before the close of summer .-upon, Smiley struck him, and then a Mr. Thompson interfered to part them, when Flenner turned on Thompson, and gave him | for printers to look after their health. a choking. Finally, the row was quelled, and they all returned to their homes. The Constable of that region being an eye witness to the fuss, brought suit against Messrs. Flenner, Smiley and Thompson, and on Saturday last, they had a hearing before Esquire Snare, who fined Flenner and Smiley five dollars each and costs, and discharged Thompson.

laughing June. The trees are now fully robed in their Summer garb, the flowers are blooming, and the sweet odor which they send forth, makes us almost wish we had no winter. But on more mature reflection, we think we would get tired of the red cheeked rosy and the vellow flower. Everything has a healthy-looking appearance, and we often wander over the hill top to gaze upon the beautiful scenery surrounding our delightful village. We make the assertion, without fear of contradiction, that Huntingdon is one of the most pleasantly situated country towns in Pennsylvania. We have every facility for navigation, we have railroads and we have turn-pikes, all running through our town .-What more can we ask?

RAPIDLY ON THE INCREASE.-We are informed that the number of candidates for Treasurer, in the "opposition party" in this county, has increased to seventeen-and the number of candidates for Sheriff in the same party, has increased to forty-six. We have not heard of a single Democrat anxious for a nomination for either of the offices. There are, however, some fifteen or twenty looking for and expecting the appointment of Deputy Marshal-but, as but one can be appointed, a large balance will learn what reliance can be placed in the promises of trading politi-

Youth's beauties pass away;
But Cunningham's Pictures ever bloom,
And mock at Time's decay!
Then, come along—get along!
Make no delay; Come and get your Pictures Before he goes away! Call at his car and examine specimens.

CHILD DROWNED .- On Sunday afternoon last, John Hildebrand McCollum, aged between two and three years, son of Rev. Mc-Collum, while playing on the canal bank near the residence of Mr. John Hildebrand, accidentally fell in, and no person witnessing the accident, the child drowned, and was not found until an hour afterwards. When found, the child was floating on the top of the water, some distance below the weigh lock .-

Mr. Editor:—After a sojourn of two weeks in the country, I am again at my post, ready for duty. I arrived in town early enough on march up and down the streets in all the nomp and splendour they could command .-The thought struck me, that they might be Austrians, or some other equally hostile nation, but imagine my delight, when I was informed by a friend, that they were Huntingdon county soldiers, and that they would not hurt me, for I intimated my fears to my friend, who took a hearty laugh over it. I then walked out as bold as a lion, and seen what was to be seen, and I tell you what, Mr. Editor, I saw a great many sights. One in particular, that I will mention, viz:-

After two of the companies had gone home, and I was returning from the depot, my attention was attracted to two of the "gallant fellows" who were setting on Mr. Dorris' celone hundred and seventy-five, as near as we lar door, on Montgomery street, with pint can judge. After parading the principal flasks in their hands, ever and anon, sucking the corn juice from the bottle, and, no doubt, discussing over some old love story, for I never beheld a more pleasant looking couple in my life. After draining the flasks to their last dregs, they started on their way up town, linked arms, and pretty well "warped." It amused me no little, and I but a shower coming up during the interval, | cannot refrain from noticing it. But. I must it was after three before they again appeared | stop this, I have news of more importance to communicate.

Being somewhat noted as a politician, and Square, when they were addressed in a neat | having a strong desire to gain as large a and spicy little speech, by Gen. R. C. To take it all in all of them. I think my project will pay, as very few would undertake the job, and, conyears. The town was pretty well crowded My labors will commence about the latter part of Auguary, eighteen hundred and fastasleep, or thereabouts. More anon.

BEDFORD RAILROAD.—The first twelve miles of the road, from Hopewell to Bloody Run, was let on Wednesday last. Dull, Cresswell, Collins & Co., were the successful bidders, for road, but we were assured that the balance of the railroad to Bedford would be put un-With a railroad from Huntingdon to the Bedford Springs, it may become fashionable

A yearling heifer, belonging to Gen. A. P. Wilson, came very nearly being drowned on Saturday evening last, whilst crossing the forebay, just above Fisher & McMurtrie's Mill. She was attempting to walk a footboard, but was too heavy, and it broke, precipitating her, head foremost, into the forebay, in such a manner as to keep her head This is the first levely morning of under water. She was seen falling, and was pulled out without receiving any serious

> We had quite a pleasant trip over the Broad Top Road, on Saturday last, and were pleased to notice considerable improvements progressing along the road and at the mines. Coalmont, the county seat of the new county that is to be, looks well-besides a large well finished hotel, there are a number of other dwellings which adds much to the good appearance of the place. THE GROWING CROPS.—During a visit to the country, a few days since, we have found by observation and inquiry, that the crops, this season, will give such a yield as has not been known for several seasons. The wheat is in a fine growing condition—the rye and oats are doing finely—the corn growing rapids IS THE PLACE idly. If nothing occurs to prevent it, we will IS THE PLACE have a heavy harvest.

Workmen are busily engaged in building Vaults in the Prothonotory's aud Register's offices. This is quite an improvement, and we wonder that our county officers never thought of it before. We visited the place on Monday last, and found everything undergoing a thorough renovation. Persons having business with either office, will find them in the Court Room.

Theo. II. Cremer, Esq., is erecting a brick stable that will be quite an ornament. We would have no objections to seeing our side of Washington street built up with such stables, &c .- they would not be an eye-sore to the families living opposite. Time and money will make some great improvements in the ancient borough.

There is some talk of getting up a military company in this place. We have the material, as good as there is in the State, for a first class company. But the difficulty has been to get the right men to fall into ranks. With a company equally as good as our Band, the ancient borough could travel any where. Keep the ball in motion.

A CHANGE.—Our friend Christian Couts has changed the name of his hotel to that of the "Mansion House," and we are pleased to learn that, since he has had the house, he has received a fair share of public patronage.without sinking, has not been accounted for The traveling public will always find friend Couts ready to accommodate.

Our little lady friends are determined REAT EXCITEMENT that we shall not be in want of early vegetables. We received another supply from our Friday last, to see "ye gallant solger boys" little neighbor, Miss Addie Love, for which she will accept our thanks.

TEDICAL SCIENCE. The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BIT-ERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and e many cures that have been performed with it in cases LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DE-BLITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deser-ving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists gainst what BILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or ving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as Hoofland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it, Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M, Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philad phia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.

The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the safe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched. Yours truly, W. A. McClüre.
