

THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE, A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, &C.

THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, June 8, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

HUNTINGDON AS A SUMMER RESORT.—We notice in several of our exchanges, articles, calling attention to the garden spots of the land, and we beg leave to vie our claims with those of our exchanges, not saying but what all they have written is truth.

Huntingdon is situated on the banks of the blue Juniata, one hundred and ninety-seven miles West of Philadelphia, and along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad and Canal, and is one of the loveliest spots in Penna. The scenery around about it, is sublimely grand. The advantages are not equalled by any town between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. The Warm Springs, five miles from this place, is one of the best watering places in the State, and invalids seeking such places will do well to come here. The hills are a delightful place to roam over for exercise. The town is just the place for persons who have been hemmed in with brick and mortar during the cold weather, and wish to come to the country to spend the Summer season. We advise our city friends to try our town, and if it don't please, we won't ask you to stay. We are pretty confident, however, should you come, you will be very reluctant in leaving us.

The Journal man is pitching into that portion of the business men of our town who are opposed to us in politics, because they come to us when they want job work done up in good style. He thinks we are not entitled to any patronage out of our party, and goes so far as to denounce as Tories, the men of the Opposition who occasionally patronize our job office. We hope never to see the day when men must be politicians in all their business transactions. Politics is very good in its place, but it should never be thought of in the purchase of a pair of shoes, a new hat, a dress, a suit of clothes, or even when looking around for the best job printers.—Before our neighbor of the Journal can expect to monopolize the jobbing business of the town and country, or even of his own party, he must be able to do the work in a creditable manner. Getting show cards printed in Philadelphia, to deceive our people as to the style of printing executed at the Journal office, can deceive but once.

MAIL STORM.—We are informed by Mr. Alem Kennedy, a gentleman from the mouth of Clorier Creek, Blair county, that that place was visited on last Monday week, with a violent hail storm, which totally destroyed about forty acres of grain for a Mr. Royer, besides, a number of other farmers suffered losses not quite so extensive. Between fifty and sixty panes of window-glass were broken in one house. The hail stones were about the size of a hulled walnut, and came down in a perfect sheet.

We have also heard of the grain having been considerably injured in parts of Walker, Penn, Tod, and other townships in this county.

As We Expected.—We have received from our neighbor NANNIE, the Bouquet we were expecting. It is done up in the best style of the art—decidedly handsomer than any of the "tip-top" ones we have seen on exhibition at fancy windows.

AND ANOTHER.—On Monday morning we received a "splendid" Bouquet, presented by Miss Jane Woods, selected from her garden. It contains no less than twenty-one different varieties, and fills our sanctum with a fragrance decidedly refreshing.

We also received from the same lady a specimen of fine strawberries, and regret that the birds destroyed the largest intended for us.

A FESTIVAL.—We understand that a grand Festival will come off at the Court House on Saturday evening, the 11th June inst., for the benefit of the Excelsior Brass Band of this place. The gentlemen of the Band are now having built by Mr. Owen Boat, a splendid Band Wagon, and we hope our citizens will not be backward in helping to pay for it. The ladies of the town, who feel like encouraging the young gentlemen of the Band, will be at liberty to contribute the cakes for the occasion.

A DELICIOUS PRESENT.—On Tuesday evening last, we received a small box from the hands of our townsman, Mr. John Read, Druggist, and supposing at the time that it contained some new medical preparation for the cure of the consumption or something else, we opened it carelessly, but judge of our surprise when our eyes fell upon the finest specimens of strawberries we have seen for many a day. We cannot believe there are any in town as large and delicious as those received from Mr. Read, if there are, we should like to be convinced of the fact.

We understand that our literary friends on the hill, intending giving an entertainment on the evening of the Fourth of July.—Go in gentlemen, we know you have the material, if you only use it right. We expect a treat on that occasion, so do your prettiest.—Patriotic speeches, essays, and music, will be the programme of the evening. We know the Continentals can draw a crowd, and we feel confident the eloquent oratory of some of our Standing-Stone Literary friends can do the same.

Violins, Guitars and Accordions, for sale at Lewis' Cheap Book, Stationary and Music Store.

Mr. Editor.—One evening last week, I was presented with two of the most beautiful Bouquets I have seen this season, and, Mr. Editor, allow me to tip my beaver, and return my unfeigned thanks to the fair donors, with a wish that they may always remember those connected with newspapers, either as editors, reporters, or compositors, and that their pathway through this "vale of tears" may be pleasant and smooth, and be strewn with flowers far more beautiful and lovely than those presented to me.

Politics are on the stand-still platform just at present, except with the candidates for office, and they are so numerous, that it takes a pretty smart fellow to count them all.—Everything is, as it were, dead. Some of the candidates in the Opposition ranks are getting tired of a politician's life already.—Some are withdrawing and others are entering into the arena of political celebrity.—Hope none of the aspirants will be disappointed.

The Bald Hornet is numbered with the things that were talked of once. Its editor has turned his attention to the "manly art" of self-defense. He tried his skill at the business one day last week, and my informant tells me, that he "didn't want to hurt the man." You know, Mr. Editor, that editors are generally very docile, and will harm no person, provided they can get a chance to run.

Pugilism lasts to be the order of the day. Since my last, there has been no less than seven "bruisers and shoulder hitters" in the ring. However, no lives were lost and no bones broken but any amount of pith and hair had to suffer. Who's to blame? I pass for a reply. Ex-Reporter.

THE FROST ON SATURDAY NIGHT.—We had a heavy frost here, and we suppose everywhere else, on Saturday night last, which took down beans, tomatoes, pumpkins, squashes, &c., &c., almost clean—still there will be a full and plenty, only a little later in the season. The grape crop has been slightly injured. As far as we have been able to learn from the farmers, the grain has been but slightly injured.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.—We learn that W. J. Geissinger, of this place, will be a candidate for nomination in the Opposition ranks, for County Treasurer. Bill is one of our Continentals, and sings like a "Martingale," and should be got the nomination, we may expect to hear of him giving free concerts in every township in the county.

A DEFENCE OF ARMAGEDDON, or Our Great Country in the Holy Scriptures. In two Bibles. Delivered in the Capitol of the United States, on the Anniversary of Washington's Birth, 1857. This is one of the most popular books of the day—just issued from the press, and for sale at Lewis' Cheap Book, Stationary and Music Store.

READ THIS.—A mistake occurred in the date of the sale of the Real Estate of Samuel Caldwell, dec'd. The date in the bills was printed Wednesday June 23d, it should be Wednesday June 22d. Persons on the lookout for speculations, should not neglect to attend the sale.

FOURTH OF JULY.—Our citizens are requested to meet at the Court House on Saturday evening next, to make arrangements for a proper celebration on the 4th. Let the big gun be brought out—and give the little, as well as the big folks, a chance to spend themselves.

BRIEF LOCALS FOR THE WEEK.—Six-and-a-half men fights—six dog fights—ten drunks—everybody's beans down—ditto, Central Bank promises to pay—a Circus coming tomorrow—and no demand for printing "20 per cent. cheaper than any other office."

HARD UP.—A few evenings since we heard a candidate for nomination in the Opposition party declare that he had but one herring and a spoonful of flour in his house. We did not believe him, but his story convinced us that he would be a hard man to beat.

INKS AND FLUIDS.—Arnold's, Hodgson's, and Harrison's Writing Fluids—Bussier's, Harrison's, and Hoover's Black, Red and Blue Inks, Copying Fluids, and Indelible Inks, just received, and for sale at Lewis' Book and Stationary Store.

FIRE.—On Sunday morning last, about 11 o'clock, a house on the corner of Church and Montgomery streets, occupied by Mr. John Pope, caught fire from the chimney, but was extinguished before any material damage was done.

AMUSEMENTS FOR CHILDREN.—"The Pet Alphabet"—"Big and Little A B C, with Picture Books"—for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

We neglected to notice in our last, that James Bricker had received a splendid new stock of goods. Give him a call and see for yourselves.

We are requested to state that John S. Miller, of the Jackson Hotel, is not the Miller who came in contact with our Postmaster a few days since.

IMPORTANT.—The Hollidaysburg Standard is authorized, to say that J. D. Leet, of that place, is, not at present, a candidate for Governor or any other office.

Prof. T. McCauley Ballantine, A. M., of Cumberland College, Ky., is expected to deliver a course of lectures at the Cassville Seminary in a few weeks.

SHEET MUSIC.—A catalogue of sheet music will be found on first page. Any piece will be sent by mail on receipt of price.
