A Tale of Horror.

One of the dread mysteries of Mormondom which the United States Judges in Utah are endeavoring to unravel, greatly to the con-sternation of the "Saints," is the horrible massacre, at Mountain Meadows, of one hundred emigrants, on their way from Arkansas to California. At the time we were told that the unfortunate victims fell under the weapons of the Canosh band of Paravant Indians; but various subsequent developments have established the conviction that these were merely tools in the hands of the Mormons themselves. An eye witness of the transaction has been found at last, and from an official source at Salt Lake, a statement of his account of the affair has been sent to the San Francisco Bulletin. He says the massacre was designed and carried into execution for mere purposes of plunder, to get possession of the thirty wagons and seven or eight hundred head of cattle belonging to the emi-called upon by Messrs. Isaac Hight, John D. Lee and John Highee-all three, Mormon military officers-to go a few miles out south of the city, which I did. There I found 30 or 40 others, selected from different settlements. We were addressed by the above officers, who told us that they had sent out Canosh, the Paravant Chief, with his warriors, to destroy the Arkansas company, and that if he had not done it, we must; and that if any of them refused, or betrayed them to the Americans, they would take good care of him hereafter. Here we were all ordered on the quick march to the Mountain Meadows, where we found the emigrants, with their wagons formed into two circles, with their families in the midst, trying to defend themselves against the merciless and blood thirsty savages, who lay around in ambush, killing them as opportunity presented. Hight and Lee formed their men into two companies, and made a precipitant rush at the poor defenceless victims. The men inside of the circle rose up, but instantly fell dead or mortally wounded, under the fire of the wretches who so cruelly sought their lives. Nothing remained to be done, except to kill the frightened females, and their innocent children clasped in their arms. Others clung with desperation, to their bleeding, dying husbands, pleading in vain for mercy at the hands of the 'Christians,' who controlled the now more savage Indian assailants. John D. Lee, now sent to the Indian Chief and his men in ambush, to come out and finish the survivors, directing him to spare only the little children who could not talk. The savages came instantly, with knives drawn, and speedily finished the bloody work. The scene beggars description. The demoniac vells of the savage monsters, mingled with the shrieks and prayers of helpless mothers and daughters, while the death blows were dealing with unflinching hands, and scalps were

The Coming Crops.

If we can believe reports from all sections of the Union, the prediction may be made with safety, that the crop of the present year will be fully thirty per cent. over that of 1858. This is most encouraging, not only to the far-mer, but to all branches of industry, a full crop sets the wheels of business going, and infuses life and movement into all the indus-trial pursuits of life. "It affords me much pleasure to say, that the Machine works well; and I do not hesitate to recommend it as pos-sessing all the advantages you claim for it. My wife is very much pleased with it, and we take pleasure in certi-fying to this effect."-R. C. Brinkley, Memphis, Tenn.
"It gives me pleasure to find the Grover & Baker Sew-ing Machine giving so much satisfaction. I have it in constant use, and find it all that could be desired. It is the most simple and durable machine in use, and I heart-ily recommend it."-F. M. White, Memphis, Tenn.
"Itaving seen, examined, and used many other kinds of Sewing Machines, I feel free to say, that the Grover & Ba-ker Machines are far superior to all others in use."-M. Francios Sellz, Nashville, Tenn.
"I consider my Sewing Machine invaluable, and would not take five times its cost, if I could not supply its place. With it I can do all my family sewing in about one-fourth the time I could with my hands."-M. J. Scott, Nashville, Tenn.
