21117 A COWARDLY ASSAULT .- On Tuesday night of last week, some cowardly, unmitigated scoundrel entered the house of Patrick Kelly, and beat him in a manner that would have done credit to a band of hostile savages. Mr. Kelly was sitting in his house at the time of the attack, and was struck on the head with some heavy weapon before he could make any resistance. He was knocked senseless the first blow dealt him by this inhuman and out-lawed fiend, and in this condition, was beaten unmercifully. We doubt not but that it was the intention of this scoundrel to take the life of Kelly, as he was blacked and disguised. Mr. Kelly is pretty certain that he knows the villain, and as soon as the necessary proof can be obtained, purposes having the rascal arrested. He was accompanied by a low, contemptible vagabond, who was compelled to leave town last winter, on a charge of theft, and who had better keep dark or he will be sent to the State Institution in Allegheny City yet. Kelly has not, as yet, brought suit against the atrocious whelp, as a few friends prevailed upon him to delay the prosecution. We hope the leader of the party may be arrested, and the law meted out to him in a manner which he so richly deserves. We think it is the duty of our citizens to assist Kelly in ferreting out the blackhearted wretch, and not let him go unwhip-

BOLD ROBBERY.—We learn that on Thursday night last, a man in the employ of Mr. James Myton, of Shaver's Creek, this county, stole from the pantaloons pockets of Mr. Myton, forty-five dollars, and made good his escape. The man (whose name is not known) had been in the employ of Mr. Myton only three days, and on the morning in question, make a fire as Mr. Myton supposed. Both the men slept in one room, and when the doubt. stranger arose, Myton observed him reaching against the wall, where his pantaloons were hanging, but took no notice of it, as he thought the man was looking for matches.-When Myton got up he missed his pocketbook directly, and it then struck him that for, instead of matches, as he supposed. He immediately instituted search for the rascal, but he was not to be found. The thief came shops, and then left for parts unknown.

CIRCUS ITEMS .- The fellow that walked fifteen miles to see the Circus, arrived in town at 8.30 A. M., with a new quarter and some odd change.

The attendance came fully up to our expectations, taking into consideration the scarcity of odd quarters.

The whole concern was a Circus—the performance fair, and less rowdyism accompanying it than others that have visited our town. Our town b'hoys were determined to outdo ing officers: the showmen in rowdyism, and they took the premium-strychnine whiskey-which helped them to get into several "scratches" during the day and night.

THE FASHION.—A city cotemporary, in describing the prevailing fashions for gentlemen in that city, says there is an intensity of style about Young America which is decidedly refreshing. In fashionable parlance "there is a change." Bloated beavers and shanghai sacks are gone; the latest in vogue is a washbowl head covering, a monkey-jacket, and a pair of funnel-legged trowserloons. Whiskers must be taken off and moustaches kept on. Shoes are the rage. Gloves always are worn, and sticks generally carried. To be without a pipe or Meerschaum holder on the promenade is most unbecoming and vulgar.

SUDDEN DEATH .- We learn that Henry Houpt, one of the first settlers on Broad Top, was found dead in his corn field on Monday a week last. He had went to work during the day in his usual good health, being 72 years of age, and never having been sick, and was found dead in the evening. An inquest was held by Esq. Evans, and the verdict of the jury was that he died of apoplexy. Mr. H. was born on Broad Top, and lived there all his life.

Another Bouquet .- On Friday last we re ceived from our neighbor, Mrs. Massey, the most magnificent bouquet of the season. It contains thirty-two varieties.

AND STILL ANOTHER. - A beautiful bouquet was left at our Sanctum on Friday evening last, for our better-half, by a young lady who | Two of the leaves weighed 24 pounds.

Mr. Editor:—As per announcement, the Circus made its appearance in our town on Thursday last. About nine o'clock, crowds of country folks could be seen coming into town, all bent upon seeing the "show."-With no little impatience did they, as well as your reporter, await the hour for the 'show" to commence. At last, the hour arrived, and the way the "quarters" had to fly, was a caution to the "hard times" which all complain so much of. Being a reporter, and as reporters are "dead heads" to all such places, I wended my way to the "big tent," paid my quarter (!) and went in. Of the merits of the concern. I shall not speak, but let those who were present judge for themselves, as I do not get paid for puffing Circuses .-Suffice it to say, they didn't do all the bills called for. The man with nine small children and a dog, and who don't take a newspaper was there, and when "Pete Jenkins" came tumbling into the ring, exclaimed, "Oh, there he's killed!" I turned and look at the man to see whether he was in full earnest or not, and found to my surprise, that he was. I gave the ignorant creature a pitiful look, and then turned my gaze upon the inimitable "Pete." In the evening I repeated the dose. There were quite a sprinkle of ladies there, anxious to see and be seen. No doubt, they were very much pleased, at least, so they seemed. After the "show" was out, then the fun commenced. Captain Whiskey then reigned supreme. I witnessed no less than about five little skirmishes, in about fifteen minutes, which was disgraceful to the actors, but fun for me. One poor fellow, in a skirmish, lost his hat and watch. The hat was recovered, but the watch is non est. During the day, I saw several men, if such they be, stretched, full length, on their backs, upon the pavement, dead drunk. I pity such creatures to the bottom of my heart. May they see the error of their way, and repent, ere it is too late. That's about all I have to say of the Circus. Perhaps I have said too much.

If you think so, don't print it. The different candidates for nomination in the Opposition party, are waging war against each other, and every one wants to know of his neighbor, what claims he has on the peoit appears that he got up before day-light, to | ple of the county, that he should ask for an office. Every one has his just claims, no

I learn that our friend, Mr. John A. Nash, of the American, is also a candidate. Well, I think John's claims are about as good, if not better, than a great many I have heard named in connection with the office of County Treasurer. He has served his party faiththat was the article the man was reaching | fully, and has never, as yet, received but very little compensation for his arduous labors.-Should he receive the nomination, and be elected to the office. I know of no other man to this place, got shaved at one of the barber | in the Opposition party, who would make a better officer. I don't wish to create the impression that I am "puffing" Mr. Nash, for a consideration. I am not. It is public opinion, and I do it because I think Mr. Nash deserves the office. I don't wish the other candidates to think that I am partial. either. Their claims may be equally as strong as Mr. Nash's for aught I know.

EXCELSIOR ICE CREAM SALOON .- Our friend Shaw still continues to serve up Ice Cream at his stand, in the most superb style. He makes good Cream, and the quantity he gives for a "picayune," is astonishing. Call on Shaw, and try his deliciously flavored compound.

THE CENTRAL BANK .- This institution is located at Hollidaysburg, and has been for several days closed to its noteholders. Some few days previous to the Bank closing, the Standard of that place, declared it to be one of the soundest institutions in the State.

GOOD PICTURES .- W. J. Cunningham has removed his traveling car from Smith street, to the Diamond, where he is prepared to take Ambrotype, Melainotype, or Photograph Pictures in a style equal to the best in the country. Give him a call.

THE FESTIVAL.—The Excelsior Brass Band Festival at the Court House on Saturday evening last, was reasonably well attended. The good things all disappeared, and the Band requests us to return thanks to all who gave them a call.

LARGE RHUBARB.—Mr. Jackson White presented us with a specimen of mammoth rhubarb, growing in his garden, which we think very hard to beat by any of our gardeners .-

Preparations are making to have a burst-up in town on the 4th. Don't wait until the spirit shall move all—the young men and young ladies must put and keep the ball in motion.

An old lady in town who read in the papers that Jack Frost had destroyed a large number of gardens, is still anxious to hear of TEDICAL SCIENCE. The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEof LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DE-BILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deser-ving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what ving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as Hoofland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it, Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you! Let you you rejudice appure your reason, to men, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you! Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M, Jackson, Ko. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.

DARREL, HERRING & CO.'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFE.

LATE FIRE AT DUBUQUE, IOWA, Dubuque, Jan. 7, 1859. Gents: I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th inst., about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The heat became so suddenly intense that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the safe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm; while the outside was most swerely scarched. Yours truly

April 13, 1859-3m. 1859.PRING & SUMMER CLOTHING. The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of our friends and customers, as well as the citizens of the town and country generally, to our new and exten-

READY-MADE CLOTHING. READY-MADE CLOTHING, consisting of every article of gentlemens' furnishing goods. We deem it unitecessary to make a newspaper flourish, being confident that a call and an examination of our goods, will satisfy all, that our goods are just what we recommend them to be, well made, of good material, and as cheap as the same quality of goods can be bought in the county of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as it is not the working of heavest men to decrive but this much in the county of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as it is not the policy of honest men, to deceive, but this much we will say, that we will guarantee to all who may favor us with their patronage, entire satisfaction as to quality, fit and price. Should gentlemen desire any particular kind or cut of clothing, not found in our stock, by leaving their measure, they can be accommodated at short notice. Call at the corner of the diamond, Long's new house.
