We have just returned from a tour round town through the hot sun, in hunt of locals, and got nothing but a severe headache for our trouble, which we are laboring under as we pen this. The fact is, locals are very scarce. The burning rays of old Sol has a bad tendency on the feelings of all mankind, as well as the more inferior race of canines and quadrupeds. Monday last, was a scorcher, and our streets were almost deserted, save by our reporter and an occasional Opposition office-seeker, who could be seen wending his way after a countryman, that chanced to be in town, in order to procure his vote at the delegate election.

Of all the spots on God's green earth, we believe Huntingdon is one of the most beautiful during the summer season. The scenery from the tops of some of the eminences, adjoining our "little paradise here below," is grand, beyond description. When we attempt to portray the delightful scenes, our mind becomes clogged, as it were, and our pen hesitates to do its bidding. Those that are in the habit of rising with the lark, and strolling into the country or on the hill-tops, can better imagine the feelings of one, than we can describe them. If any of our citizens wish to realize what we are attempting to write about, we advise them to rise early and test the truth of what we say. From the Cemetery, the home of the silent dead, can be seen one of the most grand and sublime sights that a person can wish to behold. What is more, if persons wish to spend the summer season with us, we can inform them amongst us. When we commenced this article, we didn't intend to make it what it is exactly, but as we have brought it out so let it be heralded to the world.

Presentation.—It gives us pleasure to lay before our readers the following correspondence:

Hollidaysburg, Pa., June 23, 1859. D. McMurtrie, Esq.—Dear Sir:—We beg your acceptance of the enclosed Snuff Box, as a small token of esteem and memento of the pleasant and profitable connection of nine years, recently terminated by your withdrawal from our firm.

Truly and respectfully your friends and late associates in business, R. R. BRYAN. JAMES GARDNER.

Huntington, June 24, 1859. R. R. BRYAN & JAMES GARDNER, ESQRS. Gentlemen: -I have this day received, by the hands of John G. Miles, Esq., the beautiful Box, which your kindness and friendship have presented to me as a token of esteem and a memento of the pleasure, of a business association with you for nine years. I shall preserve it with watchful care, as a remembrancer, valuable far more for its evidence of the respect of its donors, than for the precious metals of which it is composed. or the beautiful mechanism and artistic skill displayed in its manufacture. I shall keep it to awaken, for all time to come, the memory of the pleasant years we were together, made profitable alone by the consummate business tact and sterling integrity of yourselves. I am, truly, with great respect, Your friend,

D. McMurtrie

The Box presented is a large one, manufactured of silver and lined with gold, and beautifully ornamented, bearing this inscription-"David McMurtrie, from Bryan, Gardner & Co., upon his retiring from the firm, May 1st, 1859."

Our friend the Major, may well be proud of such an evidence of esteem for him by the donors.

GIPSIES.—A wagon load of gipsies encamped just below town on Thursday last .-Since that time, the men portion of the band have been perambulating our streets in quest of umbrellas in need of repair, and the women portion have been going round telling fortunes, and begging from every person they chance to meet on the street or elsewhere. We would advise our citizens to keep a sharp look-out for the gipsies, about the time they are leaving.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATIONS.—The members of the Methodist Sunday School purpose celebrating the 4th, on Saturday. Accordingly, the good things will be served up at the Cottage Grove on that day. The Presbyterians and citizens in general, intend keeping Monday, the glorious 4th, at which the Austrian troops barbarians, I tell you time the cakes and goodies will have to suffer. how they pass their evenings. About five "Set us down for two chances" during the season.

MR. HALL'S SCHOOL.—This institution, which has constantly enjoyed an excess of patronage since its organization, in the summer of 1849, has, we understand, been definitely closed on account of the failing health of Mr. Hall, the Principal. His school room will be occupied, the coming year, by several classes of young children to be instructed by one or more of Mr. Hall's Assistants.

HALE PRICE; ON THE | FOURTH .- Passengers on the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad, on the 4th of July, will be charged but half fare. Here is a chance for a pleasure trip to ted on a chair, reciting poetry to an attentive or from Huntingdon, at a small expense.

STANDING-STONE LITERARY ASSOCIATION. The Standing-Stone Literary Association will celebrate the 83rd Anniversary of American Independence at the Court House, in the borough of Huntingdon, on the evening of Monday, the Fourth day of July. The exercises will consist of Orations, Essays, Music, &c. The public are respectfully invited to attend. J. D. CAMPBELL, Secretary.

We neglected last week to acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the Constitution of the Standing-Stone Literary Society, of this place, handsomely gotten up at the expense of Mr. J. Simpson Africa, and presented by him to the Society. Mr. Africa has ever shown the right spirit in the promotion of every object calculated to amuseinstruct, and benefit our citizens.

Those ladies who have worn them state positively, that they are "perfect darlings."

On Thursday last, a cow and a steer, the property of Mr. Isaac Long, fell a distance of upwards of 150 feet over the bluff of rocks below town, on the road to the Branch. When we passed there on Friday, the steer was dead, and the cow lying on the roadside so much injured that she could not get up.

o'clock they all crowd round the band, which is led by Farbach, the well-known Viennese composer, and takes the greatest delight in listening to the music. During the intervals of the instrumental music, parties of twenty or thirty of these so-called savages sing in a manner which I have not yet had the pleasure to hear equalled in France or England. Tyrolese songs follow Viennese, and then sometimes the band strikes up some Hungarian tune, and in an instant a space is cleared, and every Hungarian in the crowd joins in the dance; or Tarbach gives one of his exquisite waltzes, and a hundred Germans sieze the opportunity of enjoying their favorite dance. Hairy fellows, in thick shoes and greatcoats, are their only available partners to be seen; but still it is very pleasant to see these men amusing themselves in so refined

a manner. I have even seen one man moun-

Remarkable Race by Railroad---Stakes $175,000.

One day last week, as the eastward bound express train reached Laport, Ind., a passenger stepped off while the engine was being replenished with wood and water, and walked back and forth on the platform, and continued to walk until the whistle sounded. The other passengers got on board and the train passed off, but the gentleman still walked on. A few minutes after the train had gone, a station man saw the pedestrian, and, going up to him, asked in a surprised

"What the ___are you doing here?" The man started, opened his eyes, and looked around bewildered. The fact was, he had been fatigued; and dropped asleep while walking. Rousing himself, he asked:
"Why! where am I?"

"Where are you? At Laport."
"Where's the train I came in?"

"That left ten minutes ago." "Ten minutes ago, and left me! I must go on that train. It is a question of life and perintendent?"

The section master had an office near by, the non-expanso-expansive-last-for-ever-let-in- and the two went to find that official and procure an engine. The traveler stated his case—he must go on—could not delay—and offered the officer $250 if he would put him on board that train. This strange demand and strange offer caused the station master to hasten and do what he could. The fire was not out of the engine that had drawn the train to that point—the bargain was settled—a draft given on New York for $250 and in ten minutes the traveler started with an engine to overtake the flying express.

After rushing on for thirty or forty miles, some connection gave way about the engine. The engine was stopped—the engineer found the difficulty, and in a few minutes had a wooden pin whittled out and fitted to supply the deficiency. With this on they flew.— The train had, of course, many miles the start of them, and despite the wooden pin, the engineer crowded on steam, and tore through the country at a fearful rate. Thirty miles of the distance passed was run in twenty-seven minutes, but the engagement was that they should overtake the train, and overtake it they did, but not until more than one hundred miles had been run, and they were approaching Toledo.

Having at length overtaken and stopped the train and hurried on board, the traveler went eagerly to a berth in the sleeping car, and took therefrom a carpet bag containing $175,000. His treasure was safe—none had molested it, and dismissing his faithful courier, he went on his way rejoicing at the suc-cess of his perilous and exciting adventure.— Cleveland Plaindealer.

IMPORTANT SUIT DECIDED .- We learn from the Johnstown Tribune, that the important suit between A. M. & R. White and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, which has occupied so much of the time of the Cambria county Courts for a year past, was decided on Saturday last, after a trial of eight days duration. The jury returned a verdict for the defendants. The suit was brought by the Whites to recover a balance of some $16,000 for wood alleged to have been furnished the Company on contract. It was tried last summer before arbitrators, when the plaintiffs received an award of $11,000. Neither party being satisfied with this decision, the case was carried up to Court. It was tried at last December term, when the jury awarded the Sunday School and family Libraries, plaintiffs $7,500. With this they were still not satisfied, and both parties demanded a new trial, and got it, with the result above

FEELING AT THE AUSTRIAN HEAD QU'ARTERS.—A correspondent of the London Times gives the following account of the manner in which the Austrian troops spend their evenings at head quarters. The letter is dated Garlasco, May 25th:

Those who think the Austrian troops are dispirited or that any of them are wavering in their allegiance, are much mistaken.—Nothing can exceed the spirits of all, and the common enemy has caused all eternal dislikes to cease, at all events for the moment. One battalion bivouacks in the square of this town. These men I have observed attentively, and for the instruction of those who think the Austrians, T tell you how they pass their evenings. We can confidently recommend it to teachers and pupils as better adapted to the purposes of elementary instruction than any others with which we are acquainted.

The plan pursued in this work is substantially the same as that developed in Ollendorf's method of teaching languages. It commences with the simplest elements. The as that developed in Ollendorff's method of teaching languages. It commences with the simplest elements. The progress made will be gradual, so that every step will be perfectly intelligible, and be rendered of positive value to the pupil. Every difficulty is meet with singly, and, after thorough analysis, overcome by fractice.

This method will, undoubtedly, provide teachers with a well digested, progressive, and entertaining plan by which a sound and correct knowledge of the art of playing the piano may be acquired with comparatively little labor, and in so short a space of time as will almost seem incredible to those who have confined themselves to some of the tedious systems heretofore in use.

TEDICAL SCIENCE.

TEDICAL SCIENCE.

The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBLITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test, their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimeny to support it as Hoofland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it, Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most emiaent, take it; why should not you! Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to men, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you! Let not your prejudice usure your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try those Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 15 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.

PATENT CHAMPION SAFE. LATE FIRE AT DUBUQUE, IOWA,

LATE FIRE AT DUBUQUE, IOWA,

DUBUQUE, Jan. 7, 1850.

Gents: I am requested by Mr. T. A. C. Cochrane, of this place, to say to you that on the morning of the 4th inst., about 3 o'clock, his store took fire, and the entire stock of goods was destroyed. The heat became so suddealy intenso that none of the goods could possibly be saved; but fortunately his books and papers, which were in one of your. Champion Safes, were all preserved perfectly. And well they may be called Champion, for during the whole conflagration there was one incessant pouring of flame directly upon the safe which contained them. And still, upon opening it, the inside was found to be scarcely warm, while the outside was most severely scorched. Yours truly,

I Herring's Patent Champion Fire and Burglar-Proof Safes with HALL'S PATENT POWDER PROOF LOCKS, afford the greatest scurity of any safe in the world. Also Side-the greatest security of any safe in the world. Also Side-board and Parlor safes, of elegant workmanship and finish, for plate, &c. Farrel, Herring & Co., have removed from 34 Walnut street, to their new store, No. 629 Chestnut street. (JANNE'S HALL.) where the largest assortment of Safes in the world of the town and country generally, to our new and extensive assortment of READY-MADE CLOTHING, consisting of every article of gentlemens' furnishing goods. We deem it unnecessary to make a newspaper flourish, being confident that a call and an examination of our goods, will satisfy all, that our goods are just what we recommend them to be, well made, of good material, and as cheap as the same quality of goods can be bought in the county of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as it in the county of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as it is not the policy of honest men, to deceive, but this much we will say, that we will guarantee to all who may favor us with their patronage, entire satisfaction as to quality, fit and price. Should gentlemen desire any particular kind or cut of clothing, not found in our stock, by leaving their measure, they can be accommodated at short notice. Call at the corner of the diamond, Long's new house.
