Pennsylvania Dutch Literature. We often read articles in German papers, most of which appear originally in such, which are conducted by native born Germans, but frequently are copied in papers which are conducted by those adopted German Editors who claim to be classified scholars. We will give you a specimen. AN INVITATION TO PRINTERS.

MR. PRINTER: - My residence is a great distance from you, otherwise I should have paid you a visit long ago. I have seen all sorts of animals in my time, Elephants, Rats white as snow, Indians, Alligators—but not yet in the course of my life had I the good fortune of seeing a Printer, and often did I feel an anxiety to know what Printers look like. Can't you paint a picture of one and print it off in the paper? On Saturday next there will be a quilting party in our neighborhood, and we have come to the conclusion to send you an invitation, to write down the sport and fun which we expect to come off—report them for your paper. We have twenwhite as snow, Indians, Alligators—but not report them for your paper. We have twenty-five young girls and a number of old maids, ready and anxiously waiting to attend and participate in the fun which generally take place on such occasions—if you come you shall have the pleasure to participate in the game generally played and called "hug and squeeze," or in other words "plumsock."-You shall have plenty of butter-milk to drink. If you come we will use you well and you shall live high. Just think of it; twentyfive young girls, a wash tub full of buttermilk, and sausages, dutch cheese, veal, and other delicacies for supper; and then if you are not to hard looking, you may get something to spark afterwards. We have a few girls here who say they have sparked anything and everything, from a Farmer down as low as Lawyers, Doctors, Droviers, Ministers, all except Printers, and now to cap the climax, they would at least like to see one once, just for the curiosity to find out whether they look, talk and walk as other men. If Printers are like other human beings, this invitation will fetch you out rejoicing.

Something has this moment struck my mind-perhaps your rig, that is to say your clothing may not be fit to go far from home —therefore I enclose one dollar and fifty cents in this letter for your paper one year, for the money you can buy a clean shirt.

TEACH CHILDREN TO LOVE.—A father had better extinguish his boy's eyes, than take away his heart. Who has experienced the joy of friendship, and values sympathy, and the affection of the soul, and would not rather lose all that is beautiful in nature's scenery, than to be robbed of the hidden treasures of the heart? Who would not rather follow his children to the grave, than entomb his parental affection? Cherish, then, your heart's best affections. Indulge in the warm and gushing emotions of filial, parental, and fraternal leve. Think it not a weakness-God is love-love God-love everybody and everything that is lovely. Teach your children to love the rose, the robin and their parents .-Let it be the constant object of domestic culture to give them warm hearts and ardent affections. Bind your whole family together by these strong cords. You cannot make them too strong. Religion is love to God,

UPRIGHT MEN.-We love upright men.-Pull them this way and the other, and they only bend, but never break. Trip them down, and in a trice they are on their feet again. Burry them in the mud, and in an hour they will be out and bright. You cannot keep them down; you cannot destroy them. They are the salt of the earth. Who but they start any noble project? They build our cities, whiten the ocean with our sails, and blacken the heavens with the smoke of their cars. Look to them, young men, and catch the spark of their energy.

It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."—Mrs. Elizabeth Strickland, wife of Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate.

"After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect case with which it is managed, as well as the strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel competent to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend it for every variety of family sewing."—Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of Brooklyn Star.

"I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and have found it adapted to all kinds of family sewing, from Cambric to Broadcloth. Garments have been worn out without the giving way of a stitch. The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."—Mrs. A. B. Whipple, wife of Rev. Geo. Whipple, New York.

"Your Sewing Machine has been in use in my family the past two years, and the ladies request me to give you their testimonials to its perfect adaptedness, as well as labor-saving qualities in the performance of family and household sewing."—Hobert Boorman, New York.

"For several months we have used Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine, and have come to the conclusion that every lady who desires her sewing beautifully and quickly done, would be most fortunate in possessing one of these reliable and indefatigable 'iron needle-women,' whose combined qualities of beauty, strength and samplicity, are invaluable."—J.
