|  |  |  |  |  |  |
| :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: | :---: |
|  | , |  |  | itor and Proprie |  |
|  | V0L. XV. | HUNTINGDON, | $\text { PA., AUGUST 3, } 1859 .$ |  | cratic party from its centre to its estremities.  We think we have now explained why Mr. Breckinridge has been included in the catalogue of malefactors, and why his head is to be demanded as a sacrificial peace offering to resoived to close his career by destroying the great party which elected him to the bigh |
|  | Sulert ${ }^{\text {andeng }}$ | "TII Try."  These are memorable words used by the he:o of the battle of Bridgewater, when asked ky his commanding officer if be could take the British cannon which were mowing down the American soldiers by battalions. He did try and how gloriously he succeeded, the pen | shrugged his shoulders, but there was no heip for it. So when they reached the shore, both stripped, and at it they went. Up and down the bank, over the sand, into the water they fonght, scratehed, gouged, bit and rolled, tillat the end of an hour the ferreman caved. |  |  |
|  | Bury me tin the mornang.  JBY MRE. HALL.  Bury me in the morning, mother- |  |  | What has John C. Breckinrlage Done? For more than two years it has been re- | great party which elected lim to the high office he now occupies.  In the French Revolution, when great men |
|  |  |  | at the end of an hour the ferryman caved. Six-footer was triumphant, but it had been | For more than two years it has been re- peatedly and strikingly made mauifost that the second officer in the Government of this | were suspected of want of fealty to the despots who temporarily ruled France in a sea |
|  |  | the American soldiers by how gloriously he succeeded, the pen of the historian has eloquently described. |  |  | of blood, the blow fell, in many instances, with unexpected suddenness. There were the accusation, the trial, and the death, fol- |
|  |  | This little word is worth all the rest in the language. It is the most. magical, the most |  |  | the accusation, the trial, and the death, following each other with remoreless rapidity. Our Directory-our Danton, our Marat, and |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | Sereme |  |
|  |  |  |  | is allegot by those who ought to know, |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | the Republic, and one after the other they have carried, or attempted to carry, the miost |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | eminent Democrats to the reeking guillotine which they have: erected. There is not $x$ State in the Union in which they have not |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | party. It only required this to complete their claim upon the detestation of their coun-try--The Pross. |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  | trig extrathamy | startupon-try. Say anything but "I can't." |  |  | day passes but there is a record of some dis-trossing case in which the sufferer, after enduring untold agonies, dies a victim to this diabolical invention; and yet because, like |
|  |  | startupon-try. Say any thing byt " Can't." Rouse yourself and look about you. Rub out old scores and begin anew. |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | perish one by one, and their distressing hs cause but a momentary sensation, anu |
|  |  |  |  |  | Hes soon forgoten exeept by those wio are |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | whieh are highly expansive fluids, and when |
|  |  | Inclinea to be Quarrelsome. | If not, and youbhave any ambition to be something nore than a drone in the hive, join itat once; and from this time forth. never let the words "I can'l" find a place on your lips. | bound in honor to opposea portion of the | a the glass is not rery strong, is likely to burst it-for instance a barrel of spirits of |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | lips.  A Modest Young Man.  We love a modest, unassuming young man, |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | ed by the heat, and it is so in a lamp or bottle. The bulk of a glass lamp is often blown extremely thin, and yields to this expansion |
|  |  |  |  | question. When in 1858 he save the great of the Democratic party, led by Stephen A. Douglas the legions of |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | \% "Men |  |  | ing than these burning fluids, and itis striange that those who know their character should the risk of using articles so dangerous to ife and property, suffering them to be used daily by those who afe totally unconscious of their qualities." |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  | twenty-ive and protect me,", was Mr. Gardener's reply. "But," he added, as a thought struck him, "how might you be on | call the attention of others to himself, by boisterons language.' He listéns attentively to |  |  |
|  |  |  | ions. We love such a man-we do sincerely -and his company we highly prize. If he |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | ed the course of the President in his relations to the Viese President, before and since the 4th of March, 1857. But the offeniding of | great prejudices against it during the summerand autumnal months ; others observe no rule in regard to the time of eating it, or the |
|  |  |  | meets you in the street, he pleasantly bows and bids you good morning. You do not find him standing at the corners, using profane | 4th of March, 1857. But the offeriding of the Vice President-agaimst the puissant pow ers at the seat of the Federal Government did |  |
|  | the fate of poor passy.: Io a momement more, the old man re-appeared with his gun' in hand, the sinole still curling fromi the bar- |  | him standing at the corners, using profane words, or see him standing at the entrance of his pow and takes his seat without a flourish. |  | The prejudice of the former most likely grow out of the neglect of ordiiary prudence by those who use it without any regard to time, |
|  | rel; nnd as he passed by his laborring hope ful, if he had not been a-little:hard of hearing, he might have heard-"There goes an ar rictim toircumstantial evidence: |  |  | ers at the seat.of the Tederal Gorernment did not halt with this. When the odious dogma Congressional protection to slavery in the |  |
|  |  |  | his pew and takes his seat without a Hlourish. He goes to hear, not merely to see. Such | Territories was enunciated by these povers- | hose who use it without auy regard to time, uantity or state. Impropriety used or eaten,hen in an unfit state, it is productive of nany diseases peculiar to the summer months, |
|  |  | $\because$ Nhey rode along till just at night they reached a village. Dismounting at the door, they went in. Gardenerimmediately singled |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  | ave code in those Tervitories-the Vice sident saw his duty in opposing it, and |  |
|  |  |  | living is honorable. When they come upon the stage of active life, they must succeed-it cannot be otherwise. We would give more for a modest; unassuming man, for all the | did so like a patriot. This was done, be it observed, not because of any disposition todisturb his relations with the Chief of the Ad- | cept that it stould almays be of a sound, |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  | poison." Three or four large apples would would be beneficial to others. Experience is nlways the best guide-you can take with safety ererything agreeable to the system, as well in the dog days as in mid winter. The grent secret is to. know when to stop. Esces    DFF From the 16th to the 21st ult,, inclu sive, there were thirty-one deaths by sunstroke at Cincinnati, being-about one-fourth the entire number of cases.  DeThe cannonading at Solferino was heard at Trieste, a distance of 150 miles, as the crow fies, |
|  |  | a row | It tires and wears us out, and keeps us ever. Pearing is not so--it comes more quietly, it Pe the nest Ptays more contentedyy and in never eshatasts Star strength nor gires us one ansious fore- ounsting thought. Therefore let us pray for peace. It is the gift of God-promised to all peace. It is children; and if we have it in our hearts we shanl not pine for joy, though its bright wings never touch us while we tarry in the world. $\qquad$  When, where, and under what circumstances we must die, is wisely and graciously hid from our oyes. |  |  |
|  | your religion; of your grief for the loss of a friend, ofsour love for some one you fear will not love in retura; it will take, it is true, no measure or sounding of your thought; it will not judge how much you should believe whether your grief is rational in proportion to your loss-whether you aro worthy or fit to attract the love which you seek-but, its to attract the love which you seek-but, its whole soul will incline to yours, and engraft itself, as it were, on the feeling for the hour. $\qquad$  1 There is only one thing which we are ever willing to give to others at the yery time we need it ourselves-advice. | At last on the third day, they came to a forry, kept by a huge double-fisted man whohad never been licked in his life. Whilst had never been licked in his life.crossing the river, Gardner, as usunl, began to find fault nad "blow:" The ferryman naturally got mad, threw things around kind$o^{\prime}$ loose, and then told them his opinion of o' loose, and then te then turned to his friendtheir kind. Gardner then "from the shoulder," and gently broke the intelligence to him, "that he was sorry, but that it was absolutely necessary toferryman." Six-footer nodded his head but serryman.sad nothing. It was plainly to be seen, thathot relish the job, by the way he |  | nore firmly into a Demoratic State. It may be that Mr. Breckinridge has fallen into disrepute at Washington because his name has been mentioned in many quarters man regards an aspirant to this high office with more jealousy than the present occupant of it He has cone to regard it as his fief, as an estate held almost as the ancient barons held their estates, by the sirong hand. No matter who may raise his eyes to this tempting prize, the moment he does so he is forever shut out from the conidence of ames bua- chanan. Accordingly, we hare. seen, and  safety everything agreeable to the system, as well in the dog days as in mid winter. The sive eating-stuffing, overloading the stomach - brings on disease and often produces deuth.  12 From the 16 th to the 21 st ult., inclu-  sive, there were thirty-one deaths by sun- stroke at Cincinnati, baing-about one-fourth stroke at Cincinnati, bing- the entire number of cases.  rat The cannonading at Solferino was heard at Trieste, a distance of 150 mileg, as the crow fiee, |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  | to your ooss-whether you aro wark-but, its whole soul will incline to yours, and engraft itself, as it were, on the feeling for the hour.  There is only one thing which we are ver willing to give to others at the yery time we need it ourselves-advice. | naturally got mad, threw things around kind$i^{\prime}$ loose, and then told them his opinion of their kind. Gardner then turned to his friend "from the shoulder," and gently broke theintelligence to him, "that he was sorry, but that it was absolutely necessary to thrash that ferryman." Six-footer nodded his head but said nothing. It was plainly to be seen, thathe did not relish the job, by the way he |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  | we shall not pine for joy, though its bright wings never touch us while we tarry in the world. $\qquad$  Wङ When, where, and under what circumstances we must die, is wisely and graciously hid from our eyes. | of estate held almost as the ancient barons held their estates, by the sirong hand. No matter who may raise his eyes to this tempting prize, the moment he does so he is forevershut out from the confidence of James Buchanan. Accordingly, we haro. seen, and |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

