

THE GLOBE. Huntingdon, Wednesday, Aug. 3, 1859. LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Ex-Reporter's Visit to the Warm Springs and Broad Top.

Mr DEAR GLOBE—Since you last made your appearance, a great many changes have taken place. Death has spread her mantle of sorrow over some, while mirth and pleasure have invaded the household of others.

On Saturday last, at 9.25 A. M., in company with four or five others, I took the Broad Top passenger train for Broad Top City.

Court commences on Monday next.—We are not informed as to what will be the extent of business done. We hope, however, that a large number of our country friends will be in attendance, and that as many of them as are in arrears for subscription and job work will make it suit to call on us and shell out the "sweet sparker" to the tune of the amount of their bills.

THE STEAM MILL.—Harrison & Matern's Steam Mill will be ready for business by Friday or Saturday. The engine is the first ever put in motion in this place, and we hope the proprietors may find it a paying "institution."

STRANGERS IN TOWN.—For a week past a large number of visitors on their way to and from the Bedford and Warm Springs have been stopping with us, and many of them have expressed their astonishment at finding the "ancient borough" a place of business, and a place where "city folks" can feel at home for a few days.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—Hymn Books, Anniversary and Sunday School Music Books, the Child's Scripture Question Books, Bibles and Testaments, Record Books, Class Books, Award Tickets and Cards, Red and Blue Tickets, Award Books for children, &c., &c., for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

over, the Squire explained everything, so that we were perfectly satisfied, nevertheless. We then started for Coalmont on foot.
