LOCAL & PERSONAL.

GLASS FACTORY.—We learn there is a movement on foot by some of the monied men of this place, for the erection of a glass factory. A gentleman who understands the business, has been sent for to select a suitable site to erect a building, and now all that is wanting, is a proper spirit to proceed with it.— We have sufficient evidence that a glass fac. tory would pay here, from the fact that sand is plenty, water in abundance, the facilities for everything that may be necessary, in large quantities, if not, the facilities for transporting them here could not be better. The access to a ready market could not be more developed, and why should we not have a glass factory, in the face of all this? It would give life and spirit to Huntingdon, and bring a large trade here, which is, and would oth- he was taken home to Philadelphia. Mr. wise be taken to other markets. We know of no other place in Pennsylvania, more suitable for a factory of this kind, than just here. We hope to see the project now on foot, carried into execution. With all the advantages at hand, we cannot, for our part, see why it could not be made a paying concern. We hope the right kind of men will take hold of this matter and put it right through. The men we hear named in connection with the enterprise are, we think, men of spirit and energy, and should they once take the matter in hand, will not let it sink into oblivion, there to rest, and be talked of as things that were. We expect to hear something more of this, and as we learn, we will endeavor to enlighten the public. Are we to have a glass factory in this place? We wait a reply.

We beg leave to call attention once more, to a nuisance we have mentioned fifty times before, but which has never, as yet, been abated. On last Sunday evening, we made it our business to look round some, and during our perambulations, we visited the neighborhood of several of our churches, and as is customary, the usual quantity of loafers were sitting on the church steps, some standing, &c., all busily engaged in discussing some topic of vast importance, no doubt, while the minister was preaching within, the door standing wide open, thus annoying the whole congregation. We found this tolerabe stopped. Think of it, you sober minded and religiously inclined people, and consider whether or not, such things should be tolerated. We are well aware we receive no thanks for noticing such things, but as a reporter. we consider it our duty to do so; however, with this, we dismiss the subject from our columns, as well as several other nuisances we have been in the habit of calling attention to, and shall not trouble our readers any more on the same issues. If the people will not help us in the cause, we will save time and trouble by not writing about such heath-

THE TRUE SYSTEM OF ADVERTISING. -One of our exchanges discusses a question of interest to business men, as to the method of advertising. The merits of circulars, bills, &c., are conceded, but it is held that the "handbill, to be conveyed about by men, or to be sent into the country is not the best vehicle for advertising for merchants. Let them use the newspaper. The newspaper is circulated without any expense whatever to the advertiser, which is by no means an unimportant item, as every one will testify who has had any experience in distributing his own advertisements. Not only is the advertisement circulated by the newspaper free of all expense, but it is done more speedily and thoroughly than it can be done by the advertiser. The newspaper is already an established system; a thousand doors are opened to welcome it; a thousand messengers are daily and weekly seeking the post office to receive it; a thousand families look for its coming, and a thousand read it when it does come. Again, those who read the newspapers are the very persons the advertiser wishes to reach; they are the intelligent and wellto-do, the enterprising citizens of a country, and are, therefore, the most likely to buy that which is worth buying."

A TRUE SNAIX STORY .- One day last week, while Mr. James Watson, of Walker township, was ploughing in one of his fields, he turned up four nests of snakes, which contained, in all, ninety-two live snakes, of different kinds, besides several others, scattered here and there over the field, all of which he killed. This "snaix" story is strictly true, for it comes from a man whose veracity cannot be doubted. If any of our cotemporaries can beat it, we would like to hear from them.

COLORED CAMP MEETING .- Our colored brethren have changed the place of holding their annual camp meeting, from that announced last week. It will be held along Crooked Creek, a short distance the other side of Mr. Thomas McCahan's residence. It will commence at the time already stated, on Friday, the 2d day of September. We expect the camp will attract a large crowd here.

One morning last week, while the passenger train was stopping at this place, a little boy about eight years old, the son of got out, and when the cars started was left | feel that the happy occasion deserves a nobehind. His father did not miss him, it tice at my hands. On arriving at the Mcseems, until sometime after. Some persons who took an interest in the little fellow, asked him several questions, by means of which, they found out where he lived, his name &c., and telegraphed to his father at Spruce Creek. He telegraphed back, and told them to send the boy on to Philadelphia in the nine o'clock train, the father still continuing his journey bath Schools, many of whose dresses were to Pittsburgh, to which place both had star- snow white, all in well formed procession, to Pittsburgh, to which place both had started for, from Philadelphia. When the nine o'clock train Eastward arrived, the boy was put on, but absolutely refused to go. He screamed like a madman, got off the train, and it left without him. We learn that he went up to Mr. Cresswell's, at Petersburg, where he remained till Monday last, when Cresswell is an old acquaintance of the boy's father, and the boy promises to be a fast ercises were then opened with prayer, by b'hoy, or we are no judge a of spoiled juvenile.

WRITING FOR THE PRESS .- There is no class of people, says the Printers News Letter, more frequently sneered at than editors. It is the easiest thing in the world to charge them with being mercenary; to say that such and such an article was paid for; that anybody can have anything praised or abused in the paper, if he will pay for it; and, says a wiseacre, every now and then, "If I had a newspaper here, wouldn't I pitch into this or that, and wouldn't I show the people what an independent paper is?" Well, my friend and | bountiful repast, all being again called topitcher, why not establish a paper and "pitch into everything and everybody?" Nobody can object to your doing so. The papers that are in the habit of pitching into everything are the easiest edited in the world. It is only well practised and matured editors that manliness which can withstand a public clamor, that can scorn personalities, and that can treat public questions with the dignity and soberness that can alone secure respect

A PLEASANT RIDE.—On Monday evening last, our good looking and good natured friend. Major Garrettson, treated us to one of the most pleasant carriage rides we have had for ted more largely at the Baptist Church, than | many a long day. We started from this place at any of the others. We don't mean to of- at half past five o'clock in the evening, for fend any one; it is the plain truth, and not the Warm Springs, and arrived there at half only for our own sake do we wish the nui- past six. We amused ourselves for a short States 590 Baptist associations, 12,163 churchsance to be abuted, but for the sake of the differ- time at rolling ten-pins, and, by the way, the 992,551 communicants, and that the number ent congregations, as well as the character Major is too much for us. In other words, baptized in 1858 was 98,508. Those are figand morals of our town. It can be and should he beat us all hollow. We found Col. Herd, proprietor of the Springs, as clever and gentlemanly as ever. At five minutes before seven, we started for home, and were just forty minutes on the road. Fast traveling that-five miles over a rough road in forty minutes. The Major's horse, however, is some on a go. If we were a lady, we would be for setting our cap for the Major, certain. It would be so nice riding behind such a pretty horse and in such a nice carriage.-What you dink Major, eh?

> FEVER AND AGUE.—The season is aproaching when fever and ague makes its annual visit. The hot mid-day sun and cool evenings of early autumn generally cause more or less fever and ague in the most healthy localities; and as the disease is sure to be at hand, it is important that a remedy should be known. In this connection we give the following, which is pronounced an unfailing cure; and being simple and harmless, we hope those attacked will not hesitate to try it:--"Just before the chill comes on, have a pot of very strong coffee made and keep it hot, and when the first chill is felt, pour out about a pint and squeeze the juice of a couple of lemons into it, and a little sugar to make it palatable, drink it off, go to bed and cover up warm. One trial of this often cures, whilst two or three trials never fail."

> ELDERBERRY WINE.—As the season for making Elderberry Wine is at hand, we give the following recipe for making it: The berries, when ripe, are first picked by the stems, then stripped with the hand, or trimmed close with shears. Next they are mashed fine, which can be done by means of a stick in the form of a pestle. Let them remain until the next day, when the juice is pressed out slowly in a cheese press, or any other convenient way. Next boil the juice "twenty minutes;" skim it, and add four pounds of white sugar to a gallon. When milk warm add a small piece of white bread crust that has been dipped in yeast. Let it stand three days, remove the crust, and the wine is ready for bottling. Age improves it.

Last week Mr. Hiram Johnston left with us a very fine head of cabbage, grown in his garden, for which he has our thanks. Now is the season for those who have large regetables, to pull a few of the best and leave them at the Globe office, where they will be taken care of until called for by-our better

A concert was given in the Court House on Friday evening last, by Prof. G. H. Brooks, a graduate of the Philadelphia Institute for the Blind. We did not attend, but learn that he performed well on the piano and melodeon, as well as the violin, and his talent for vocal music of the first stamp.

GRAND CONCERT at the Court House, this evening, August 24, by Frank Johnston's Brass and String Band, of Philadelphia.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Mr. Editor:-Having been one of the favored guests at a Sabbath School Celebration, Mr. Freeman, Auctioneer, of Philadelphia, near McConnellstown, on Saturday last, I Connellstown R. R. Station, we observed that in the adjacent grove, extensive preparations had been made for the occasion. A large number of persons were already on the ground; but now in the direction of McConnellstown we heard the sound of the life stirring drum, and soon our eyes were greeted with a scene which did our hearts good to behold. The children, teachers and officers of three Sabwith their beautiful banners floating in the breeze, presented a spectacle which all lovers of Sabbath Schools need but see, to admire and enjoy. It reminded us of the scene that was spread out before Balaam, when he was led to exclaim "How goodly are thy tents, O Jacob!" "Blessed is he that blesseth thee In due time all were comfortably seated in one of nature's shady bowers, and the -programme for the day, announced by our esteemed friend, Milton H. Sangree. The ex-Rev. S. H. Reid, and after the singing of a hymn, brief but appropriate addresses were delivered by Rev. S. H. Reid, Rev. S. B. Reed, and Mr. W. H. H. Snyder. Noon having now arrived, our attention was very agreeably directed to a table about two hundred feet in length, which literally groaned under its weight of the necessaries and luxuries of life, furnished and prepared by the generous-hearted ladies in the vicinity of the several schools participating. The scholars were, of course, served first, and we waited patiently till our time came, having been assured by the worthy Reverend, that the baskets under the table were yet full, and awaiting our approach. After partaking of a most gether, we had the pleasure of listening to short extemporaneous addresses from our townsmen, Messrs. H. T. White and A. L. Grim. Toasts were then read, a hymn sung, and the exercises closed with benediction. After which the scholars were placed in procession en route for McConnellstown. Many teachers and others, however, remained in possess that wisdom and true independence the grove for some hours, when they had "a which consists in refusing to "pitch in;" that | good time generally." We are aware of the labor incident to getting up such a Sabbath School Celebration, but we think the encouragement and consequent impetus which it gives to the glorious Sabbath School cause, repays ten fold, for all the labor and trouble.

My time and your space will not allow of an extended notice of the addresses by the gentlemen named, but suffice it to say they were all appropriate and entertaining-and without any desire to be partial, I must say that the one delivered by our young friend Snyder, reflects much credit on one of his age. We predict for him a bright future. B. A. J.

Religious Statistics .- The New York Examiner says that there are in the United | es, 7,590 ordained ministers, 1,035 licentiates, ures for which entire accuracy can not be claimed, but they are more likely to be too low than two high. The largest number of Baptists reported from any one State is Virginia—115,146. The largest number baptized in any one State is New York-10,801; and the next largest Georgia, 7,944. There are 33 colleges, 14 theological seminaries, 29 weekly newspapers, 16 monthlies, and 2 quarterlies, in the United States, that depend on Baptists for support; 64 new church edifices were erected in 1858; 238 new churches were constituted, and 304 ministers ordained.

There are probably some two hundred Unitarian congregations in the United States to enjoy the stated ministry of the Word .-The Christian Register, of July 30, publishes a list of sixty-six unsettled ministers of the denomination, two-thirds of whom are in the immediate vicinity of Boston. Of this number from forty to fifty are supposed to be waiting as candidates for settlement, while the rest prefer to supply temporarily. Such facts would seem to indicate that there is a large surplus of ministers, or an alarming fastidiousness in the parishes.

Dr. Seth S. Hance :- I was in Baltimore in April, 1854, Dr. Sch S. Hance:—I was in Baltimore in April, 1804, and from a paper I received of yours was induced to buy a box of your Pills, recommended as a sovereign cure for the Epileptic Fits. At that time one of my servants had been affleted with fits about twelve years. When reaching home, I commenced with the pills according to directions. I do not think she has had once since. My wife, though, is somewhat induced to believe she may have had one only. Enclosed you will find five dollars, for which you will stages forward me two boxes. I suppose you can forward enclosed you will find five dollars, for which you will please forward me two boxes. I suppose you can forward them by mail. Your compliance will oblige me. Yours respectfully.

M. P. Sledge.

Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills are also a sovereign remedy for every mortification of nervous diseases. The nervous sufferer whether tormented by the acute, physical agony of neuralgia, ticdoloreux, or ordinary headache, afflicted with neuralgia, ticdoloreux, or ordinary headache, afflicted with vague terrors, weakened by periodical fits, threatened with paralysis, borne down and dispirited by that terrible lassitude which proceeds from a lack of nervous energy, or experiencing any other pain of disability arising from the unnatural condition of the wonderful machinery which connects every member with the source of sensation, motion and thought—derives immediate benefit from the use of those pills, which at once calms, invigorates, and regulates the shattered nervous organization.

TEDICAL SCIENCE. The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an arreast that has such an array of testimony to support it as "bofland's German Bitters! Physicians prescribe it, Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.
