the recipient of a handsome present, in the shape of a beautiful boquet. The fair donor will please accept our thanks.

A New Vegetable.—Miss Ada Love presented us with a new kind of egg-plantwhen cooked it was very easy to take. Couldn't save it for the fair. Our thanks for the pres-

LARGE Apples.—On Monday last, Mr. Geo. Hearn, of Walker, left with us several very fine apples, which were immediately handed over to our cook, to be prepared for the table in the shape of apple dumplings. Our thanks.

FINE FRUIT.—Theo. H. Cremer, Esq., on Thursday last presented us with four specimens of the early peach, from trees in his garden. They were the first we have seen in these diggins. He has our thanks.

LARGE POTATOES .- Mr. Thos. McCahan, of Little Walker, sent to our office on Thursday last, a peck of the finest potatoes we have seen for many a day. We hope he may have a tremendous crop of the same kind, to accommodate "snake-feeders" and his numerous friends. "Walker" has our thanks.

CUCUMBERS.—The following we find in an exchange: "When a cucumber is taken from the vines, let it be cut with a knife, leaving about the eighth of an inch of the cucumber on the stem; then slit the stem with a knife from its end to the vine, leaving a small portion of the cucumber on each division, and on each separate slit there will be a new cucumber as large as the first. Those wishing to raise large quantities of this article for pickles, will do well to try the experiment."

On Sunday last, we had the pleasure of listening to a discourse delivered in the Methodist Church, of this place, by our young friend, Rev. James Clarke, of Birmingham. It was an eloquent effort, and reflects great credit upon the speaker. We wish him success in his new calling, and hope he may be the instrument in the hands of God, of bringing many souls to repentance.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR .-- Already we hear of great preparation making for a proper display at our Fair, which is to commence in October-and to continue three days. Every farmer and mechanic, and all others should bring something for exhibition. All the candidates for office will be in the ring, if not run down before that time.

Pic Nic.—Some of our gals and boys had a "high old time" on Saturday last, up at the Cottage Grove. We did not attend, as we had made previous arrangements to go to the Ridges, but are informed that a more pleasant party never congregated together for the purpose of enjoying themselves, than the one on Saturday last.

FRESH OYSTERS,-Mr. Kennedy M. King is receiving fresh oysters from Baltimore every day, which he serves up at his saloon in Long's new building, under Gutman's Clothing Store. Give him a call.

Refresuing.—The showers we were blest with last week. Our farmers were beginning to complain on account of the dry weather.-We are informed the corn and potatoes suffered considerable from the incessant drouth. We hope, however, the rains of last week has revived them to a considerable extent.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.-Hymn Books, Anniversary and Sunday School Music Books, the Child's Scripture Question Books, Bibles and Testaments, Record Books, Class Books, Award Tickets and Cards, Red and Blue Tickets, Award Books for children, &c., &c., for sale at Lewis' Book Store.

The Colored Camp Meeting commen. ces on Friday. The necessery arrangements have all been completed. We are informed that they could not have selected a more convenient or desirable site, than the one which has been chosen.

DEFENCE of ARMAGEDDON, or Our Great Country Foretold in the Holy Scriptures. In two Discourses.— Delivered in the Capitol of the United States, at the Request of several members of Congress, Anniversary of Washington's Birth-day, 1857.

At that time one of my servants had been affleted with fits about twelve years. When reaching home, I commenced with the pills according to directions. I do not think she has had once since. My wife, though, is somewhat induced to believe she may have had one only. Enclosed you will find five dollars, for which you will please forward me two boxes. I suppose you can forward them by mail. Your compliance will oblige me. Yours respectfully.

Dr. Hance's Epileptic Pills are also a sovereign remedy for every mortification of nervous diseases. The nervous sufferer whether tormented by the acute, physical agony of neuralgia, ticdoloreux, or ordinary headache, afflicted with vague terrors, weakened by periodical fits, threatened with paralysis, borne down and dispirited by that terrible lassitude which proceeds from a lack of nervous energy, or experiencing any other pain of disability arising from the unnatural condition of the wonderful machinery which connects every member with the source of sensation, motion and thought—derives immediate benefit from the use of those pills, which at once calms, invigorates, and regulates the shattered nervous organization.

EVANS & WATSON Have had the surest demonstration in the following cer-tificate that their manufacture of Salamander Safes has at length fully warranted the representations which have been made of them as rendering an undoubted security ngainst the terrific element: Philadelphia, April 12th, 1856.

Messrs. Evans & Watson—Gentlemen—It affords us the highest satisfaction to state to you, that owing to the very protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which protective qualities of two of the Salamander Safes which we purchased of you some few months since, we saved a large portion of our jewelry, and all our books, papers, &c., exposed to the calamitous fire in Ranstead Place, on the morning of the Ilth instant.

When we reflect that these Safes were located in the fourth story of the building we occupied, and that they fell subsequently into a heap of burning ruins, where the vast concentration of heat caused the brass plates to melt, we cannot but regard the preservation of their valuable contents as most convincing proof of the great security afforded by your Safes.

We shall take much pleasure in recommending them to men of business as a sure reliance against fire.

K. NEFF, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Office, Hill street, opposite Dr. Luden, offers his profesional services to the citizens of Huntingdon and vicinity. April 13, 1859.

The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEPUBLIES, and discovered prising from a discrepance of the complete of LIVER COMPLAINT, DISPERSIA, NERVOUS DE-BILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an airay of testimenty to support it as Hoofland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it, Why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen, and those the most eminent, take it; why should not you? Let not your prejudice usure your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick, and require a medicine, try these Bitters.

These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.
