HUNTINGDON COUNTY

FIFTH ANNUAL EXHIBITION

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY.

At Huntingdon. Tuesday. October 4th.

Wednesday, October 5th,

Thursday, October 6th,

THE COUNTY FAIR .- Our county Fair will commence on Tuesday next. The buildings have been enlarged, and more tham the usual number of stalls will be put up. Scats will be put up for the comfort of visitors: The committee having the arrangements & charge will have everything complete.

If the farmers will do what they can, the fifth exhibition will far exceed any yet held in the county. Something can be brought by every farmer in the county-do not come without bringing something. Show to the State that Old Huntingdon will not be behind her sister counties—that she has good farms and good and proud farmers. Bring your stock, your grain, your fruit, your vegetables -the best of everything you may have.

THE HUEY Boys .- On Saturday evening last our Sanctum was honored by a company of juvenile singers, "The Huey boys,"-Masters Eugene E. Simonton, Matthew Taylor, David Elliot McMurtrie and William Scott. They delighted us with several songs, and for new beginners they executed their parts admirably well. The ancient borough is not behind any town in the State in its musical talent, vocal and instrumental, and we are pleased that the youth receive proper encouragement from their parents to become perfect in innocent amusements. All boys have sufficient time from their books to learn to play upon some kind of an instrument, and while they are thus engaged they will not be abusing themselves on the streets. The younger they begin the more perfect they will become.

A soldier by the name of Platt, from Jackson township, this county, was shot clean through with a nail, by one of the guard at the Lewistown encampment, on Friday night last. The nail entered his abdomen, and came out near the back bone. There are several stories afloat concerning the affair, and, as we do not know which is the most reliable one, we forbear mentioning any. The last accounts we had from the wounded man were, that he was yet alive, but there were no hopes of his recovery.

A RARE TREAT .- Prof. Coyle, assisted by the Continentals, will give a concert in the Court House, every evening during the Fair. The exercises will consist of vocal and instrumental music. All we have to say is, if the people in attendance at the Fair, want to hear good music, soul-stirring music, and music which cannot be excelled, attend these

Will be in town next week-all the candidates on both tickets. Of course they will make themselves known to the voters and make as many friends as possible. All right. And we hope the voters will determine before the day of election who to vote for-and when they go to the ballot-box vote boldly as an American citizen should.

A fellow, calling himself a Pennsylvania Dutchman, held forth to quite a respectable audience on post office corner, on Monday evening, trying to sell them the best blacking in the World. He talked pretty well, but it didn't appear to bring in the

Mrs. Kennedy King will please accept our thanks for a specimen of Union township apples. It would take but very few such to fill a half bushel.

Mr. Jas. Hutchison left with us a specimen of very fine potatoes. He has our thanks.

The Excelsior Cornet Band, after being lionized at Lewistown for a week, returned home on Saturday night last. The Excelsior, took everything down that came in their way, this time, as on all former occasions. They are hard to crawl over, that's so.

TILL ROBBED .- On Friday night last, some unmitigated scoundrel and thief, stole about $3 from Mr. K. M. King's money drawer.— Mr. King was attending to customers when the act was perpetrated. It is a pity such devils can't be caught.

Our merchants are "in town" and ready for customers. D. P. Gwin, Fisher & McMurtie, M. Strous, Benj. Jacobs, H. Roman and M. Gutman & Co., have each received large stocks of new goods. Give them

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Mr. Editor:—It was my privilege recently, to attend a Sunday School Celebration, which awakened an interest and produced an impression, such as it has seldom been my happiness to witness. A brief account of the same, we think, cannot fail to interest your many readers, and, we trust, awaken a deeper interest among them in behalf of the Sunday School cause.

This Celebration was held on Wednesday, the 14th inst., in a beautiful grove, on the farm of Mr. Pomeroy, at the foot of Tuscarora Mountain, near Blair's Mills, Tell township, in the south-eastern corner of our county; almost on the identical spot where the four counties of Huutingdon, Franklin, Perry and Juniata meet. This ground had recently been occupied by a Methodist Camp meeting, and many of the tents were yet standing. The day was beautiful-a warm bright sun and gentle breeze. Arrangements had been made for all the schools to meet at the Presbyterian Church, of Upper Tuscarora Valley, of which the Rev. G. Van Artsdaleu is the stated supply, and who has borne a conspicuous part in getting up this Cele-

About nine o'clock the schools began to arrive, in large wagons, drawn by four, six and eight horses. But such wagons, and such loads of living freght, we never saw before. Our school, just established this summer in a destitute place numbered one hundred and nine, teachers and scholars, and these were all brought in two wagons. The wagons were all beautifully decked with evergreens, and the horses with flags. Some schools came singing beautiful hymns with their charming sweet voices; whilst others brought the soul stirring music of the fife and drum. One delegation after another arrived, till the whole campus around the church was one dense mass of human beings. And still they come! Excitement was now raised to the highest pitch. The hills and valleys echo with the martial music of fife and drum; the chief marshal rides to and fro through the crowd, making arrangements for the march, and giving the word of command; the banners and flags float upon the breeze, whilst the eyes of hundreds of children sparkle with delight, and clap their little hands for joy, saying one to another, "This is the Celebration!" Indeed, Mr. Editor, it was worth a ride fifteen or twenty miles, to witness the enthusiasm manifested. One individual remarks to us, he came forty miles, and was amply compensated.

About two o'clock, the word of command was given to march to the camp ground, about a mile distant. This parade was perhaps the most imposing spectacle of the day, and much credit is due to Col. Noss, of Nossville, the chief marshal, for the good order observed. First in the march was the band. followed by the orators of the day; then came the choir; next the schools, thirteen in number, defiled in regular order, followed by hundreds of citizens, and a long train of vehicles, the whole not less than half a mile in length. It was a procession worthy of the day and occasion. It was worth an angel's visit, and we doubt not many an angelic spirit looked with delight on the scene. It was such a sight, as was seldom if ever known, amid these hills and vallies. We agree with one of the eloquent speakers on the occasion, "it was the greatest day of the kind ever known in this region, since God fixed these mountains on their immovable foundations."

By actual count, it was ascertained there were over eight hundred children in the line of march. Each teacher accompanied his or her class. Each school was headed by an appropriate banner; not expensive, yet beautiful and neat, ornamented very tastefully with evergreens and flowers. Several of these banners had inscribed on them beautiful and appropriate mottoes. We noticed the following: "Suffer little children to come unto me," "In the name of our God we will set up our banner," "Choose you this day, whom you will serve," "Feed my lambs," "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." On one we observed the simple but emphatic motto, "Onward." On another two hearts entwined together, and over them the word "Union." Not the least interesting feature in the procession, was a band of little girls dressed in white, with their heads uncovered and beautifully decked with evergreens and roses. We saw one little girl in the procession, who, we were told, had committed to memory this summer, the whole of the New Testament, as far as Galatians, and she hoped to complete the whole book before her school closed. This is one of the blessed effects flowing from Sunday Schools. The minds of the young are richly stored with the precious truths of God's word, which are as a lamp to their path through all the journey of life. The religious exercises of the day were under the direction of the Rev. G. Van Arts-THE CASSVILLE SEMINARY .- We learn that | daleu. After singing the opening ode, com-prayer was offered appropriate to the occasion, in which all seemed to unite. Several addresses were delivered, varying in style A LIVE ALLIGATOR .- Among the many cu- and ability, but each adapted to do good, and riosities to be exhibited at our County Fair was well received by the large and attentive audience. The interest of the occasion was is a genuine live Alligator, sent to this place greatly increased, by the excellent perform-from Alabama, as a present to Master Wil-ance of the choir, of which all speke in praise. There was a spirit—an earnestness about Coming—the Circus. Do. the Ele-their singing, which we have seldom heard excelled. And when they sung the beautiful parting hymn,

"How pleasant thus to dwell below,
In fellowship of love,
And though we part, 'tis bliss to know,
The good shall meet above," many eyes were affected to tears.

The dinner and refreshments provided, were partaken of with a good relish, during an intermission of two hours, a part of which time the band played some of their choicest music. This was another interesting part of the programme. The early breakfast, the long ride, the march, the excitements of the day, all tended to sharpen the appetite. But there was enough and to spare. Such baskets of bread, butter and cheese, chickens and hams, cakes and pies! The children were served first, by their Superintendents and teachers, after which, all were invited to come and partake. And though it was estimated there were two thousand present, all were amply satisfied, and much taken away unconsumed.

This was a Union Sabbath School Celebration, embracing as it did, Methodists and Presbyterians, United Brethren, Lutherans and Associate Reformed Presbyterians, all coming together as one. Denominational differences were forgotten. Each seemed to vie with the other, which should best promote the common cause of Sunday School Educa-tion. It was a glorious, day! It was good to be there! Long will it be remembered by many! The demonstration was eminently calculated to do good, and good effects will inevitably flow from it. Not a single event occurred to mar the pleasure of the day .-About four o'clock, the vast assembly dispersed in good order; the children highly pleased with what they had seen and heard; the Superintendents and teachers forming renewed resolutions to devote themselves more entirely to the noble work in which they had engaged.

B OUS AND MENAGERIE, combined with the Exhibition of SANDS, NATHAN'S & CO.'S PERFORMING ELEPHANTS, ANTONY & CLEOPATRA.

This unique and mammoth establishment combines a greater number of attractions than were ever before offered to the public. The PERFORMING ELEPHANTS, Antony and Cleopatra, are the same which, for months, created the greatest furore in London or Paris, while more recently their performances were the theme of universal admiration for months, at the Broadway Theatre, New York. Their wonderful docility, and the perfection of their training, make them the most interesting specimens of the animal creation that the world has ever seen. All their faculties have been developed to the greatest extent and they stand for Su Generals, the most remarkable of their kind. They stand upon their heads, play upon Musical Instruments, ascend Inclined Planes, and go through all the positions of the most accomplished aerobats.

In addition, Bailey & Co.'s Circus and Menageric comprises a collection of wild animals, including lions, tigers, bears, leopards, hyenas, panthors, Ostriches, etc., besides a large and varied collection of the monkey tribe, and a rare variety of the most beautiful tropical birds.

The troupe of riders, vaulters, lady equestriennes, etc is the largest and most thoroughly artistic now traveling in the United States, and comprise the following distin-

M. Sands, the great Principal Rider.
E. W. Perry, the best Four Horse Rider in the World. S. Ruge, the Wonderful Protean Equestrian. LA BELLA ISABELLA, the Sylph of the Circle.

La June Burt, the greatest rider in the World.
J. Conrad, the great scene rider.
G. Sloman, in his great Globe Act upon horse back, will execute a variety of extraordinary Feats of Equilibrian.
The clowns, WARD & BOOKER, are the very embodiment of Fun and Jocularity. Their jokes are numerous, fresh, spicy, and piquant, full of hits at the times and follies of the day, yet entirely free from anything which the most delicately constituted mind could take the slightest exception to. Bailey & Co.'s Exhibition, therefore, comprises Elegant Horsemanship, a splendid Menagerie, Slack Rope Performance, new Singing, Comic and Classic Dancing, Wonderful Postering, Grand Spectacular Effects, Character Equestrianism, and a more novel and interesting programme than was ever before offered to the public.—Each entertainment will conclude with a Comic After-Piece, introducing all the comic talent in the company.
