THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Tuesday, October 4, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL. no On Saturday evening last, some fellow, we did not learn his name, set up shop in the Diamond, on a dry goods box, and opened out a drug store, comprised of a few bottles of w-o-n-d-e-r-f-u-l stuff, for the cure of all the diseases the flesh is heir to, as well as a few balls of the best polish, for brightening silver-ware, tin-ware, and earthen ware, if you like, ever known in the wide, wide world .-He talked long, he hollowed, he yelled, and he expostulated with our citizens, but all to no purpose, they wouldn't bite. Finally, after letting off all the gas he contained, he retired in disgust, no doubt, at the ignorance of our citizens, for not procuring a bottle or two of his renowned medicine, or some of his celebrated polish.

ORDINATION .- The exercises connected with the ordination and installation of Rev. W. Kidder as pastor of the Baptist Congregation in this place, will, by Divine permission, take place in the Baptist Church, on Friday the 7th inst., commencing at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The ordination sermon, it is expected, will be 00 our readers may remember on several accordance to a disordered condition of the nervous system. The horrors of Epilepsy, or Falling Sickness, arise in most cases from this cause.

R. McDivitt, Ch. Clerk.

NEW BRIDGE.-We notice that our borough fathers are having a new bridge crected across the tail race of Fisher & McMurtrie's mill, at the upper end of town. We are pleased to see this, for a new bridge was badly needed. It is being put up by our young friend Mr. John Black, who was awarded the contract, and is a good piece of mechanism, and reflects credit on the builder.

Some outlawed rascals, in the absence of any other mischief to employ their idle hands with, are in the habit of extinguishing some of the street lamps in the back streets. Who ever they may be, we inform them that a strict watch is being kept, and, should they attempt the like again, they will, in all probability, be caught in the act.

THE HUNTINGDON BAND.—No part of the performances of Encampment week, afforded more satisfaction than the music of the Excelsion Band of Huntingdon. As musicians we believe they will compare favorably with any Band in the State, and as tip-top, clever Tellows, they made hosts of warm friends while here. Lewistown Democrat.

Mr. James Magnire of this place, has entered into the wholesale grocery business in Philadelphia, at No. 121 North Water st. His many friends in this county, the merchants in particular, would do well to favor him with their orders. We hope Mack. may meet with abundant success in his new bu-

ERRATA. -- In the communication from St. Louis, published in our issue of the 14th ult.. two errors occured. Where it says, "which will yield 90 tons of iron," it should read "90 per cent." Again, where it says "this company is shipping about 200 tons of ore to Wheeling and Pittsburgh, per month," it should read, "200 tons per week."

Wm. P. Schell will offer for sale, on Friday next, all the furniture of the Coalmont Hotel. Persons in need of household articles will do well to attend the sale, as all the furniture is as good as new, and rare bargains will be offered. Read the advertisement.

We will delay our paper one day next week, for the purpose of giving the election returns as full as possible, and we hope our friends in the several districts in the county will send in the returns.

The Concert by Prof. Coyle and the Continentals, will come off this evening, in the Court House. We bespeak for them a crowded house. They will also give a concert to-morrow evening.

We date the inside of our paper and send it out one day earlier than usual this week, to give the big devils and little devils all a chance to see the sights at the Fair.

The little folks will find a handsome assortment of new books at Lewis'. Toy bibles, song and picture books by the thousand. Call and please your children.

Mr. John White, jr., is opening a new store in Portstown at Harrison's old stand .-His goods will be new and selected with great | Hunti care to please.

G. Ashman Miller has received a new supply of Groceries, Confectionaries, &c., &c., which the public are invited to call and

T. P. Love has received a new stock of Groceries and Confectionaries, which the public will do well to call and examine.

Our Ex-Reporter will be on the Fair grounds, and will give a full report of the proceedings in our next.

Our friend, Wm. A Saxton, has opened out a grocery store in Bricker's old stand-We wish him success,
