LOCAL & PERSONAL.

OUR EXHIBITION .- During the County Fair, our sanctum was thrown open to exhibitors, and after we closed on the last day, we appointed ourself a committee of one to report on the articles deposited with us. Not having the reports of the committees of the County Fair before us, we cannot say whether all of our contributors took first premiums there or not. We give first premiums to all, and will refer our readers to list of premiums of bition. the Society, to be published in the Globe next week, to ascertain how near we agree with the committees.

. The first articles placed on Exhibition in our sanctum, was a dozen of large potatoes by Mr. Daniel Piper. First premium of thanks.

2d. One loaf of fresh bread by Mrs. Daniel Piper, the best we have eaten for many a day, (wonder where she got the flour.) First premium of thanks.

3d. A half bushel of fine potatoes, several Iowa squashes, a large tumbler of home-made days. molasses, and several carrots, by Mrs. Jacob Weaver. First premium of thanks.

4th. Four large heads of cabbage by Mr Frederick Schneider, Sr. First premium of thanks.

5th. Several large apples by Mr. James Hutchison. First premium of thanks. 6th. Several large potatoes by M. F. Camp bell, Esq., of Union township. First premium of thanks.

7th. A large bushel of white and black mercer potatoes, large and small, just as they grew, an excellent kind, by Mr. J. S. Isett. First premium of thanks. The white mercers yielded at the rate of 146 bushels, and the black mercers 290 bushels per acre-having been planted in an orchard, not a fair test. Mr. Isett had also on exhibition several other excellent varieties at the County Fair.

8th. A variety of fine potatoes by Mr. H. S. Isenburg. First premium of thanks.

Colonel R. F. Haslett. First premium of thanks.

10th. Two dozen large bunches of delicious grapes by Mr. Robert Stitt. First premium of thanks.

11th. A bottle of very superior maderia wine, by Mrs. Dr. H. Orlady. First premium of thanks.

THE COUNTY FAIR .- The weather during the three days of the Exhibition, could not have been more pleasant, and the Exhibition was very creditable to the people of this county. The display of stock was not quite as large as it should and could have been, but fully equal to most of the county fairs in the State this Fall. The fruit, vegetable, floral, painting, shell and ornamental departments came fully up to our expectations, and we doubt whether any other county in the State could equal them. All other departments were creditable, and we feel very confident that they will be much improved at the next exhi-went home well pleased. We have been informed by the treasurer. that over eight hundred dollars were received for tickets, sufficient to pay all expenses and leave a small sum in the treasury.

DIED.-At the residence of his father, Daniel Flenner, in Walker township, on the 3rd inst. JONATHAN FLENNER, aged 15 years, 21

This young man, at the time of the colored camp meeting, was slightly afflicted with the scarlet-rash, and we are informed that while he was on the camp ground he was abused by some of the young men of our town, and run and stoned, and so much over-heated and frightened, that he immediately took his bed, and in a few days after was a corpse. The young men guilty of so shameful an act, should be very thankful if they are permitted to escape proper punishment.

MEDICAL IMPOSSIBILITIES.

MEDICAL IMPOSSIBILITIES. For a long time a certain class of diseases have baffled the skill and practice of the most eminent members of the regular medical faculty. Foremost among these we might instance epilepsy or falling fits. Happily now by the skill and invenive genius of an eminent chemist of Baltimore, Md., this dise...se has been brought within the means of a cure. We allude to the preparation called the VEGETABLE EXTRACT EFILEPTIC PILLS, invented and prepared by Dr. SETH S. HANCE, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md. Since their discovery many persons who had given up all hope of ever being cured, have been restored to the full enjoyment of health. Preminent among these we might chumerato Mr. HARRISON LIGHTFOOT, of Huntsville, Ala-bama. Mr. L. has suffered as much from Epilepsy, as any other person in the world; never knowing what it was to pass a week without having an attack, and often falling in the streets of Huntsville. He is now fully restored and has not had an attack for more then a year. Dr. Hance's Pills have been the sure cause of this cure. These pills also cure all modifications of Fits, Spasms, Cramps, &c., and are very serviceable for persons of weak nerves. Jr. Hance, sends them to any part of the country on the re-ceipt of a remittance. Price, one box, $3; two, $5; twolve, $24. Address Seth S. Hance, 108 Baltimore street, Balti-more, Md. nore, Md.

PROF. COYLE AND THE CONTINENTALS .-These gentlemen gave a Vocal and Instrumental Concert in the Court House, on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of last week, to well selected audiences. We have heard in our time, some of the best musical celebrities, domestic and imported, and we say without hesitation, that these gentlemen, in purity of tone and skillful execution, is entitled to rank with any of them. In our humble judgment, they are far superior to many troupes that traverse this Union from one end to the other, and who are applauded wherever they go. We are sorry they did not meet with the reception we anticipated they would-their audiences being rather slim.-We know, however, that those in attendance enjoyed a musical treat of almost unsurpassed elegance, and that they will not forego a repetition of the pleasure on any subsequent effort they may put forth to amuse the public. They visited Hollidaysburg on Thursday, and gave a concert in the Town Hall, in the evening, to a well selected, intelligent and appreciative audience.

We have a word to say to our citizens, on our own hook. For our part, we are not at all pleased with the audiences these gentlemen attracted. Because they were young men of our borough, our citizens did not seem as though they cared about patronizing them. This should not be. Had they been entire strangers, and had not possessed a single particle of musical talent, the fact of their being strangers, and had glaring posters posted on every house and fence in town, would have attracted an audience entirely too large for our spacious Court Room, no doubt; but as we all know them, persons would say, "We have heard them before, and they can't sing a bit." Such is not the case. They are good musicians. From what we learn, the gentlemen themselves are not entirely dissatisfied with their audiences, but we are, for they deserved better. If you did not wish to hear their music, you should have attended anyhow, to have shown them that you appreciated their efforts, at least. We hope the next time these gentlemen get up concerts for the bene fit and amusement of our citizens, they will patronize them more liberally. We hope, too, our citizens, will learn to patronize home enterprise more.
