THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Nov. 2, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

Miss Kate Dean, the American Prima Donna, favored our citizens with one of her concerts on Monday evening, in the M. E. Church, and was quite successful. We never before heard any one who had so complete command of their voice as Miss Kate Dean. From the highest soprano to the lowest sound possible. Unlike operatic performers, she articulates in such a manner that all may understand her, and know what she is singing. We have listened to many celebrities and we feel justified in saying that she will compare favorably with any we have yet heard anywhere. Her voice is musical and sweet, and at once captivates the listener. We cannot speak too highly of this gifted cantatrice, but can assure the public at large, that they will deprive themselves of a grand musical entertainment by not embracing an opportunity when it is offered. To say the least we can of her, she is graceful, modest, good looking. and sings charmingly.

THE CONTINENTALS AT LEWISTOWN.—Prof Coyle and the Continentals visited Lewistown last week, and gave two concerts. The Democrat speaks in the following glowing terms of them :-

The Continental Vocalists of Huntingdon, assisted by Prof. Coyle, gave two concerts in this place on Monday and Tuesday evenings, to full houses, and their performance gave universal satisfaction. Although this company has not had the benefit of many years practice, their singing is truly excellent and with a little cultivation, will vie with the first companies of vocalists traveling. They are, withal, gentlemen in the true acceptation of the term, affable, honest, and exemplary, and we commend them to all with whom they may soiourn.

The Gazette has the following: -The Continentals, with Prof. Coyle, the pianist, gave two concerts in the Town Hall on Monday and Tuesday evenings, and were listened to with much gratification by those in attendance. They sing well, are gentlemen in conduct, and deserve encouragement wherever they go.

THEY MUST HAVE THEIR FUN .- The little girls and boys, (and some large and old enough to be better employed) had a 'high old time' on Saturday night, throwing corn against the windows of houses. If we had not known that Hallow Eve was near at hand we might have became alarmed for the safety of our citizens. Their charges upon our windows made us think of the scattering shot of the insurrectionists. The chickens, geese and pigs came in for their share of the fun on Sunday. All who engage in such sport should be careful and not charge too heavily upon glasses easily broken. Be easy, boys and girls.

LECTURE.—We have been informed that the Standing-Stone Literary Association in. tend to give a series of public lectures during the approaching winter. The first lecture of the course will be delivered in the Court by singing House, in this place, during the first week of the November Court, by Dr. R. Shelton Mackenzie, of Philadelphia. We heartily approve this movement, and hope the citizens of the borough and vicinity will liberally sustain the Association in this enterprise. The proceeds of the lectures are to be applied to the purchase of books for their library.

Notice to Boys and others .- Boys and voung men are in the habit of tearing down hand-bills with as much coolness as they do many other mischievous acts. We give them notice now, that hereafter we intend to protect any bill issued from our office, and will have arrested and punished. all who tear down or otherwise destroy such bills. A few days boarding in the County Jail may teach our mischievous boys and young men a lesson they will not soon forget.

WHO CAN BEAT IT?-Late on Wednesday evening last, we received from Geo. F. & W. McCabe, several pounds of a No. 1 sausage, made from a hog they butchered, which weighed five hundred and eighty-one pounds clean meat. If any butcher, or other person can beat the McCabes, we should like to hear of it, and-taste the sausage. Our young friends will please accept our thanks for their generous present.

ANOTHER MUSICAL TREAT .-- Prof. Coyle and his class of young ladies on the piano, intend giving concerts in the Court House on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of the first week of the November Court. We can assure everybody, "the rest of mankind and all their relations," that they may expect a rich, rare and racy entertainment. We feel confident they will be well patronized, as it is for a good cause.

Saturday night, Oct. 29th, 91 P. M .-The Excelsior Cornet Band are now giving us a serenade. Their music always good, appears a little more so to-night. Hope they'll never tire.

11½ same night, were aroused from our slumbers by the String Band. Music never sounded sweeter. Call again.

AN OLD House .- The old one story log house, one of the oldest in town, in which our old and respected fellow citizen, Daniel Africa, Esq., was born, was taken down a few days since. J. Simpson Africa had a correct picture of the house taken by Mr. Camp, and has it set in a heavy gilt frame.

Snow.-On Wednesday afternoon last, we were visited with quite a squall of snow and sleet. It fell to the depth of about an inch, and remained for a day or so, and then disappeared faster than it came.

Capt. Jas. Bell has retired from the Tyrone Star, and is now located at No. 55 North Third street, Phila., selling clothing. M. H. Jolly, Esq., of Altoona, has taken charge of the Star.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

ROCKVIEW, Oct. 29, 1859. Mr. Editor:-Autumn with its many changes is quickly hastening away. Winter with its chilly blasts and robes of snow is fast approaching us. We do yet occupy a space among the living. And will we be prepared to say (?) when autumn closes, The autumn is past the winter has come and we are yet on good terms with our God. It is not my intentiou writing a sermon, so with something else.

I am happy to state, Mr. Editor, that the citizens of Porter township are awakening to the great cause of education. Greater interest appears to be taken in educational affairs this year, than has been for a number past. Why not have as good schools in Porter township as any other township in the county? I say we can have. All that is required is a little more exertion-a little more of that laborious industry which ever climbs the hill of science. When this is done, Porter can boast of as good public schools as there are in the State. Perhaps better.

Our schools opened on the 17th, in charge of the following named teachers: Mr. David Tussey, Loup S. H.; Sam. Hewitt, Knode S. H.; — Grove, Barree S. II.; Harry W. Flenner, Aqueduct S. H. I have not ascertained the name of the teacher employed at Gemmill's house. Schools to be open five months the present year. Six months is generally the regular length of time.

A few evenings ago I had the pleasure of being among the number of a very large party given by Capt. Geo. Whittaker, which was decidedly among the best I ever had the pleasure of attending. I am inclined to think it could not have been otherwise, when such ladies as the Captain's daughters were at the head of it. After enjoying ourselves as young folks generally do on such occasions, we were invited to supper. Finding the table filled with all the good things imaginable, you may rest assured Mr. Editor, we feasted sumptuously. After partaking of a bountiful repast, we continued our former exercises

So singing until I sung my humble self into the toothache, I bade the fair maidens adieu, and turned my face homeward, wishing the past was yet to come. RIDGER. Yours truly,
