ENDEAVOR to have a comely grace in holding thy peace, and a lively force in speaking. "UNION is not always strength," as the sailor said when he saw the purser mixing his rum with water.

Good sense is the father of Wit, Truth his grandfather, and Good Humor his boon companion. The time young men generally entertain notions of marriage, is exactly when they have no more need of wives, than a dog has of a spare tail.

DURING the present Napoleon's reign, the French have constructed railways to the extent of more than 4,500 miles.

"Look here, Pete," said a knowing darkey, "don't stand ar on de railroad!" "Why, Joe?" "Kase if de cars see dat mouf of yours, dey tink it am de depot, and run rite in."

In the United States there are six thousand brokers and six thousand barbers, but the census does not tell which class does the most shaving.

A LOVING husband at St. Louis, recently telegraphed to his wife as follows: "What have you got for breakfast, and how is the baby?"

The answer came back, "Buckwheat cakes and the measles."

At a late celebration the following "dry" toast was given, (the author of which got battered when he got home): "The press—the pulpit—the petition—the three ruling powers of the day. The first spreads knowledge, the second spreads morals, and the last spreads considerably."

You must persuade a child to place confidence in you, if you wish to form an open and upright character; you can not terrify it into habits of truth.

What is fashion? A beautiful envelope for mortality, presenting a glittering and polished exterior, the appearance of which gives no certain indication of the real value of what is contained therein.

THERE is one thing that the most successful man rarely succeeds in—and that is in making others forgive him his success.

A MERCHANT in a certain city, who died suddenly, left in his desk a letter to one of his correspondents. His sagacious clerk, a son of Erin, seeing it necessary to send the letter, wrote at the bottom, "Since writing the above I have died."

A FUNNY writer advises that when your friends are laid up with rheumatism, always press them to come over and take tea with you. While such acts of kindness entail to expense, they procure for you a larger reputation for sympathy and neighborly kindness. With proper discrimination, there is nothing that pays a better profit than "goodness of heart."

CHERISH patience as your favorite virtue. Always keep it about you. You will find use for it often than for all the rest.

It is said that chickens of a new breed called "Eoliplendean" are being introduced into this country. Instead of feathers, they are covered with fine hair like that of lapdogs, very white, soft and beautiful, and have curious red ornaments on their heads.

NEVER forget the kindness which others do for you, nor remind others of the kindness which you do for them.

LABOR to be rich in grace. A little star yields but a little light, and a little grace will yield but a little comfort; but great measures of grace will yield a man not only a heaven hereafter, but also a heaven of joy here. Divine comfort is a choice flower, a precious jewel, and only to be found in their bosoms who are rich in grace.

"My dear," inquired a young wife of her husband, as she reached up her rosy little mouth to be kissed on his return from business, "have you seen the magnificent set of walnut furniture which the Jenkinses have bought?" "Hem, no, my love, but I have seen the bill, which quite satisfies me."

Dr. South says: "The tale bearer and the hearer should be hanged up together—the former by the tongue, and the latter by the ear."

Some persons are always noting signs, a few of which we will interpret: "To hear a death-watch, denotes there is a little insect near you. A ringing in your ear denotes that you have taken cold. To see strange sights or hear dismal sounds, is a sign there is something to cause them, or that your head or nervous system is disordered. To have frightful dreams, is a sign that you ate too much for supper. To see an apparition, or to be bewitched, is an inconceivable evidence that you are either feverish, or lacking common sense.

DO NOT WASTE UP THE BIRD

THE HISTORY OF "HOOPLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of LIVER COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach. Place it among the most astonishing discoveries that have taken place in the medical world.

The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal, that there is no remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation. It is a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what is called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent your resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as Hoopland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it. Why should you discard it? Judges, who have considered men of talent, and do not see it in their own families, or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised medicines, deserving the public commendation.

These Machines sew from two spools, as purchased from the store, requiring no re-winding of thread; the Hem, Pull, Gather and Stitch in a superior style, finishing each seam by its own operation, without recourse to the hand-needle, as is required by other machines. They will do every thing a sewing machine can accomplish, and even if the work for one cent an hour, and are, unquestionably, the best Machines in the market for family sewing, on account of their simplicity, durability, ease of management, and adaptation to all varieties of family sewing—executing either heavy or fine work with equal facility, and without special adjustment.

"Having had one of Grover & Baker's Machines in my family for nearly a year, I can truly and with pleasure commending it as every way reliable for the purpose for which it is designed—Family Sewing."—Mrs. Joshua Leavitt, wife of Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent.

It has always been ready for duty, requiring no adjustment, and is easily adapted to every variety of family sewing, by simply changing the spools of thread."—Mrs. Elizabeth Christian, Rev. Dr. Strickland, Editor of N. Y. Christian Advocate.

"After trying several different good machines, I preferred yours, on account of its simplicity, and the perfect work it executed. In fact, I have had more strength and durability of the seam. After long experience, I feel compelled to speak in this manner, and to confidently recommend your Grover & Baker Sewing Machine."—Mrs. E. B. Spooner, wife of the Editor of Brooklyn Star.

"I have used a Grover & Baker Sewing Machine for two years, and do not find a better one than yours. It is simple, strong, and durable, and does not require any oil. It has been worn out without the giving way of a stitch. The Machine is easily kept in order, and easily used."—Mrs. P. C. Leavitt, Rev. Dr. Leavitt, Editor of N. Y. Independent.

"Your Sewing Machine has been in use in my family the past two years, and the ladies request me to give you their best wishes for its success. It has been a great labor-saving quality in the performance of family and household sewing."—Robert Bloomer, New York.

For several months we have used Grover & Baker's Sewing Machine, and have come to the conclusion that every lady who desires her sewing beautifully and quickly done, would be most fortunate in possessing one of these reliable and indispensable Sewing Machines. Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines are, in every respect, of superior quality, strength and simplicity, are invaluable."—J. W. Morris, Co. Editor of Gen. Co. W. Morris, Editor of the Home Journal.

"I had a great deal of trouble in getting a Sewing Machine of good quality in the past two years, and I had no choice but to purchase one of Grover & Baker's Machines, and a single seam done with one of them is worth ten seams sewed by sailors with a needle and twine."

"If I Homer could be called up from his murky lares, he would sing the advent of Grover & Baker as a more beautiful miracle of the age than the flight of Vulcan's lightning. He would denounce midnight shirt-making as the direful spring of war unnumbered."—Prof. North.

"It is a beautiful thing, and puts everybody into an excitement of good humor. Were I a Catholic, I should insist upon Saints Grover and Baker leaving an altar; in commemoration of their good deeds for humanity."—Cassius M. Clevy.

"I think it by far the best in use. This Machine can be adapted to do the finest and most delicate sewing. It sews stronger, faster, and more beautifully than one can imagine.
