THE HUNTINGDON GLOBE, A DEMOCRATIC FAMILY JOURNAL, DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS, &C.

THE GLOBE.

Circulation—the largest in the county.

worthedon. Pa.

Wednesday, November 30, 1859. DLANKS! BLANKS! BLANKS! CONSTABLE'S SALES, ATTACHT EXECUTIONS, EXECUTIONS, DEEDS, MORTGAGES,

CONSTABLE'S SALES,
ATTACHMENTS,
SUMMONS, SUBPCENAS,
SCHOOL ORDERS,
LEASES FOR HOUSES,
COMMON BONDS,
WARRANTS,
NOTES, with a waiver of the $300 Law.
JUDGMENT NOTES, with a waiver of the $300 Law.
ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT, with Teachers.
MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES, for Justices of the Peace and Ministers of the Gospel.

MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES, for Justices of the Peace and Ministers of the Gospel.

COMPLAINT, WARRANT, and COMMITMENT, in case of Assault and Battery, and Affray.

SCIERE FACIAS, to recover amount of Judgment.

COLLECTORS' RECEIPTS, for State, County, School, Borough and Township Taxes.

Printed on superior paper, and for sale at the Office of the HUNTINGDON GLOBE.

BLANKS, of every description, printed to order, neatly, at short notice, and on good Paper.

New Advertisements. Dentistry, by Dr. J. Locke. See Illustrated Life of Washington. Auditor's Notices, by J. D. Campbell. Leather and Shoe Finding Store, by J. C. Adams

The Latest News.

Judge Terry has been indicted by the Grand Jury of San Francisco, for killing Senator Broderick, and placed under $10,000 bonds.

The fifth barn was burnt at Reedsville, Mifflin county, on Saturday night last .-It is now suspected that a woman dressed in man's clothing, has done the mischief-but no arrest has been made.

The Harrisburg Daily Telegraph of Monday, says:---

This morning between one and two o'clock, Mr. John O. Rockafellow, a gentleman well known in this community, while laboring under an attack of mania-potu, jumped through his chamber window on the third story of the State Capital Hotel, and falling on the brick pavement below, was almost instantly killed. He was picked up and carried into the bar room, and in a few minutes breathed his last. Mr. Rockafellow was a gentleman of considerable wealth, and of fine social qualities, but strongly addicted to the intoxi-

The following extract from the Richmond Enquirer of Friday last is a specimen of the late editorials of that journal:

"What have the Governors of Pennsylvania and Ohio done to protect a sister State from the lawlessness of their own people?—And what has the President of the United States done to guard a sovereign State from lawless invasion? Nothing! We have been left to our own resources, just as though Ohio and Pennsylvania were hostile States to Virginia, and as though no Confederation existed. The silence of the Executive of these States, and of the Union, is almost a tacit admission that the Confederacy has virtually ceased to exist, and that each State must protect its own sovereignty.

"We cannot understand this ominous silence. Here is a State of the Union arming her people and assembling her forces; other Southern States tendering the aid of their military, and all the preparations of actual war on foot, and the Governors of adjacent States issue no proclamations warning their people to desist from unlawful schemes, of which they have been duly informed by the letters of their own citizens; and the Executive of the Federal Union sits a silent and indifferent spectator to the marshaling of hos-

"We sincerely hope these efficient Executives may not be disturbed by a collision at Charlestown, but should such an event arouse them from their singular indifference, they will have themselves to blame."

The Enquirer forgets that Gov. Wise took great pains to announce to the world at the commencement of the Harper's Ferry difficulties, "that Virginia could take care of her-

Baltimore, Nov. 27.—A steamer arrived from Norfolk with two companies of military numbering a hundred and seventy men.-They will proceed to Charlestown by a special train to-night.

Two companies, of one hundred men, left Charlestown to-day, for Wheeling, to guard The Virginia "Cadets" and over one hundred volunteers, numbering in all, over two hundred men, went up in a special train this afternoon. These reinforcements will make the force at Charlestown over 1,000. They are quartered in the court house and churches.

for armed men, at all the stopping places in What new information has been received has not transpired. There seems, however, a determination to keep up the panic. The military movements, it is said, grows out of a confident belief that an attack will be made to-night. It is said that Gov. Wise and Mr. Hunter profess to have received information that an attack will be made to-night. Companies from all parts of the State have tendered their services to the Governor; also four companies from Georgia, and one from North Carolina. The services of the latter have been declined. The citizens of Rockinham county have tendered a hundred mounted men to proceed to any point the Governor may require them. The Richmond Dispatch urges the people of Virginia to stay away from the execution. It says that visiters from other States, if they are permitted to be persent at all, will be assigned a position where they can do no mischief. WASHINGTON, Nov. 27 .- Additional military from Virginia passed through Washington to-day, on their way to Charlestown.

CHARLESTOWN, VA., Nov. 27.—All is now comparatively quiet. We have exciting rumors occasionally, but we are getting used to them. They have been so numerous, that until after we had received Bigler's letter inif a genuine attack was made the people would be likely to consider it a joke or a

The howitzer company of Richmond, who returned to Richmond with Gov. Wise, arrived here to-day.

Gov. Wise professes to have received information after his return which induced him to send them back. The barns of Thomas H. Willis were set on fire yesterday, and destroyed. Loss $2,000.

The P. O. Organ and its Clique. CHAPTER I.

Knowing the object for which The Union was established, we have carefully avoided being drawn into a controversy with it until dislike newspaper quarrels, to permit us to pose to broad daylight, the rotten political scamps who are the stockholders in, and distinguished head of that refined sheet.

A few weeks ago, we stated that some of our subscribers east and west, did not receive their papers regularly, and we expressed a hope that there was no disposition on the part of those connected with the P. O. Department, to "double team" us-and this dignity of P. M. Colon, and the only thing citizens. The office key for opening the we had said that was calculated to impress our friends with the belief that we were being | we saw it in the possession of a gentleman, unjustly dealt with. The Post Office organ, The Union, owned in chief and controlled by said Post Master Colon, immediately pitched into us, and endorsed the falsehoods of the Journal. We proposed an investigation of the manner in which the duties of the office had been discharged under our term, and since that time, by Mr. Colon. He declines to go into such an investigation, but shows a willingness (over the left) that the people should know what means were resorted to, to defeat Mr. Wm. Dorris, Sr., and secure the office for himself. To gratify him, we are willing to commence with the petition of Mr. Dorris, and will give facts that neither Wm. Colon nor his man Friday, R. Bruce Petrikin, dare deny. Mr. Dorris asked for the office only in case the Department should determine upon making a change, and his petition was signed by almost every male citizen of Huntingdon. Of course, we could have no objection to his petition-it was perfectly fair and honorable—but we have ever contended that political offices of profit should be given to party men, who labor and spend their time and money to secure success to their party. We had assurances from Wm. Bigler that we would certainly be continued—that he had seen the P. M. General, and learned from him that our removal had not been asked for, and that we would be all right when the time for making the appointment should arrive.-So the question stood until it was rumored that Judge Jeremiah S. Black, high in the Cabinet, was opposing our continuance .-Immediately, Black was written to, and his answer dated May 22d, (now in our possession,) informed us that "until very lately" he had no doubt that we "ought to be appointed," but as we persisted in advocating the sale of the Public Works, they (the Cabinet) had determined upon removing us from office. On the day after the reception of Black's letter, Colon came into the Post Office, and we informed him that he might stand some chance for the office, if he was opposed to the sale of the Public Works, and if he could take that position, he had better make application, as that was to be a test of Democracy by those at Washington having the disposal of the office. We urged others to make application, but they could not be persuaded to come down upon their knees before Porter, Brawley, Plumer & Co. Not so with Colon. The dollars and cents in the office were sufficiently weighty to put him in proper position, and the next day he called upon our citizens for their signatures, and after traveling our streets up and down, "the laziest man in all the town." he succeeded in persuading about seven free white men to sign his petition. His next move was to get a letter from us in his favorand in opposition to Mr. Dorris-in this he failed, as we had no recollection of him having spent the first cent of his own money for the success of Buchanan or any other Democratic candidate. True, he did splurge through the county with the Band, but it was done by contributions from some of the liberal citizens of the county, added to which he had pocketed a snug pile of "aid and comfort" from abroad. He was thought extravagantly liberal with his money, until it was discovered that he was Every car that passes through, is searched turning a handsome penny in the transaction.

> Dorris, and Colon was appointed. If Colon did write several letters for us, as he says he did, we should like very much to see their contents, for we well remember that he declined to put his pen to paper for us, forming us that we would be continued .--Then, and not till then, did he offer us a letter. But after he learned that Porter, Brawley, Plumer, Black and Buchanan were opposing our appointment, because of our desire to have the sinking Public Works disposed of, like Bigler, he too had nothing to

His petition ready, in less than twenty-four hours after, he was in Washington with Bruce at his side, ready to "put Mr. Dorris through," but they found that Porter was there, and for the purpose of defeating us, he had already made a favorable impression for Mr. Dorris.

Colon and Bruce at once "pitched in," and on the third day, after they had made many able speeches before the Cabinet, in which they argued that if Mr. Dorris should be appointed, the Republicans would, through his son, have entire control of the office; and as the son was Attorney for the Penn'a Railroad, the same objections could be urged against the appointment of Mr. Dorris, as truths had been told with the desired effect, to please his willing tools, Porter withdrew or deserted the papers of his old friend Mr.

Thus endeth the first chapter.

On the first day of July, 1856, the Post Office was removed to Colon's Book Store, located at "Five Points," the jumping off place for all refined displays of rowdyism now, and we ask those of our patrons who and indecencies. Hundreds of times have we heard citizens say that females could not be a saving to the Post Office, or to some of "pitch in" for a few weeks, that we may ex- call at the office without running a great risk our citizens, of at least ten cents. Robert, of being insulted by rowdies congregated at the door, or be compelled to hear the most | behold thyself-a natural curiosity: "a white profane and indecent language. And up to and black slave," with white skin, but withthis time, the annoyance to our respectable in, a heart as black as the skin of a genuine citizens continues to be the same. The du- African. If you should find any difficulty ties of the office, too, have been neglected by the P. M. A letter containing over a hundred dollars was found in the gutter in front of the office, three or four days after it was the extent of our offending against the had been placed in the office by one of our mails was picked up on the pavement, and twenty miles from town-fortunately, however, the gentleman was honest, and returned it to the office. We might mention other failures to comply with the instructions of the Department, but we defer them for the pres-

> CHAPTER III. After being urged for months by a large number of our personal friends, to open in connection with our job printing office, a book and stationery store, in December last we made a small opening, and immediately we were threatened by Colon with an opposition Democratic paper and job office. For months, Colon could not find a man willing to accept the editorship of his new paper, and was at last compelled to take R. Milton Speer, after we had refused him a situation as assistant editor for the Globe. We knew Mr. Speer to be a violent anti-Lecompton man, and if we had stood in need of the aid of an assistant, his youth, and want of experience, and great desire to distinguish himself, was a sufficent objection to giving him editorial liberties in our paper. But, like Colon, his principles were of a free and easy kind, and he found no difficulty in taking the editorial chair of The Union, a paper established to defend Buchanan in all his faults, as well as to crush us out if it was possible to do so. The paper has been in existence for over three months, but, as yet, Mr. Buchanan has received but a very slight, if any, support for keeping its owner in a fat office. Perhaps all that is demanded by Mr. Buchanan is, that his organ shall continue to abuse better Democrats than himself, or any connected with the Union clique, that the Republicans may more easily succeed in 1860 -if so, he has the right men in the right place, and just so long as he feeds them, he need not fear that their consciences will disturb them in the least.

Chips.

gored. When Lewis was Post Master, the Journal repeatedly charged him with official misconduct."—Fost Master Colon.

True, charges were made then, and repeated now by men of similar character for truth. You are at liberty to back those charges by any evidence you have or can collect. We are prepared to back all charges we make him. against you. When you want the evidence, you can have it.

"Lewis is no sooner kicked out of office than he commences a tirade of abuse against his successor, which is known to be false by every man in this community."—P. M. Colon.

Hope you don't hold us responsible for all the abuse you have received from white and black for neglect of duty? "We have never we had felt disposed to complain, it would not have been done in expectation of having you interfered with so long as you obeyed political "instructions" from head quarters .-If the charges we make against you are "known to be false by every man in the community," we challenge you to give the name of a single one, or more if you can find them, who knows them to be false, and you shall have the use of our columns to make us out the liar.

"John Anderson feeds and owns you."-P. M. Colon. If you mean John P. Anderson, we have only to say that we wouldn't want to be fed by a better man; but there must be a slight mistake somewhere, as we have been under the impression that quite a respectable number of friends have had a hand in feeding us. truth of your assertion, however, by ordering a supply of feed for the winter, and if he owns us, he cortainly will not refuse to feed us.

"You wrote to Pershing last fall for $200, and got it."-

If we did, we done well-and you have acted the part of anything else than a gentleman towards Mr. Pershing by connecting his name with that little arrangement.-With Mr. P's permission, we will have somewere urged against us. Finally, after many | thing more to say upon the subject. Perhaps we may find out where the money is we did not receive. Two hundred dollars, and we got it! Good.

"Lowis wrote to Washington: 'I have carried this county, and I ALONE!!"-P. M. Colon.

Too strong to be swallowed, whole. Give us the documents. We helped to carry it for 'Old Buck" a little further than it will ever be carried for him again.

"His (our) subserviency to Anderson—who voted for Buchanan under protest—killed him (us.)—P. M. Colon. But we didn't stay kilt-and that's what troubles you and your masters at Washington. Perhaps the distinguished editor of your organ, who has his knife ready for slaughtering, may next try his hand at killing us. We are still alive, and Anderson, if willing, is able to feed us, if nobody else

A FREE EXHIBITION OF A NATURAL CURI-OSITY—" a white and black slave."—R. Milton Speer says he has never heard of "a white and black slave," and is anxious to see one. If he will follow our advice he can see the critter 'free gratis for nothing,' which will stand up before thy mirror, look into it, and recognizing yourself, call to your aid the "Big Yank," or his lap dog, who can satisfy you from experience, that it is just as possible for a slave to be both white and black, as it is that there are white black birds. Barnum need not come to Huntingdon for such natural curiosities-he will soon be able to get them at Washington at half price.

Hon. Jacob Fry, present Auditor General of the State, is strongly urged by the Democracy of the eastern counties of the State, for nomination by the next State Convention as the Democratic candidate for Governor. The following extract we take from an article in a late number of the Montgomery Ledger, and print it with pleasure.

"Mr. Fry is a descendant of the good old German settlers of Montgomery county—the same stock that gave Pennsylvania her lamented Shunk, and the former was the personal and intimate friend of the latter. Mr. Fry has represented Old Montgomery four years in Congress, two years in the Legislature, and has for the last three years filled the important office of Auditor-General, saving by his watchfulness over the State finances, and determination to make all corporations live up to the strict letter of the law in returning their taxable property, thousands of dollars to the Commonwealth annually .-If the Democrats of Pennsylvania wish to present a popular candidate and tried statesman, they could not do better than nominate

THE DEFEAT OF GEN. WRIGHT, THE DEMO-CRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR IN NEW JERSEY.—The Hackettstown (New Jersey)

"GEN. WRIGHT IN SUSSEX.—In Sussex, a county that alone should have given Mr. Wright a greater majority than received by Mr. Olden in the whole State, and where the divisions of the party in reference to the Lecompton folly of Mr. Buchanan had just been compromised and healed, the wounds were opened afresh by the removal, on the part of the Administration, of a worthy and popular Democrat from a petty post office, on account of his entertaining principles in harmony with those of Judge Douglas, and also with Mr. Buchanan when he was elected in 1856. The result is, that this staunch Democratic county-always good for from 1,500 to 2,000 Democratic majority—gave Mr. Wright but a meagre majority of 635."

The Huntingdon Journal and Huntingdon American will, after this week, be united, and one paper take the place of the two. John A. Nash and Samuel G. Whittaker, both practical printers, will be the editors and proprietors of the new paper. The press and part of the Journal materials have been purchased by Mr. Lutz of Shirleysburg, for the purpose of commencing again the publication of the Shirleysburg Herald. Mr. Brewster retires to private life-peace be with

Our young friend, Mr. Robert B. Brown, of the Brownsville Times, has been circulating himself amongst his friends in this neighborhood for a few days. We would not suspect him of being in hunt of a well, that's his business, not ours. We are pleased to learn that he has a paying estabmentioned it," until very lately. Indeed, if lishment, and that he will soon be able to support an assistant.

> The Wheeling Intelligencer of Monday, says: We learn that certain suspicious-looking boxes, consigned to the vicinity of Harper's Ferry, have been detained at Benwood Station, supposed to contain blunderbusses 'and things," for rescue and insurrectionary purposes. Previous to the Harper's Ferry outbreak, and since, a number of coffins, supposed now to have contained arms, passed over the road.

Ut nix etz.—The learned scribbler of the P. O. Organ, after spending years at hard study, is not able to read or spell correctly the most common latin. His head must either be empty at times or he has grossly We may be mistaken. We shall test the imposed upon his profession. "Ut mix etz" -go to your books you blockhead, and never expose your ignorance again. Quix nux et

Dr. W. G. Bigelow of Reedsville, lost his barn by fire on yesterday two weeks .-Most of the articles in the lower part were saved. It was not known how the fire originated. Several barns in the neighborhood have been destroyed by fire during the past three

We should like to have an opportunity to look upon and take by the hand the editors of the Middleburg Weekly Tribune .-They print a most excellent independent paper-and feel right towards men like themselves. Bro's. Heintzelman & Young, send us your pictures, taken as natural as life.

New York, at the late election, elected a Democratic Canal Commissioner, the State Engineer and Surveyor and the Secretary of State, with the aid of the American party, by small majorities. The balance of the State ticket elected are Republicans.

Congress will meet on the 5th of next month. We shall keep our readers advised of everything of interest that may come before the honorable body.

The Excitement in Virginia.

Governor Wise Visits the Prisoners-Brown Ready to Die-Cook Wants to be Shot-Wise Urges Them to Prepare for Death-Military on the Ground.

CHARLESTOWN, VA., Nov. 22. Governor Wise is here reviewing the military, and in the afternoon he had an interview with the prisoners. The Governor urged upon them the necessity of preparing for death, as the sentence of the Court would be carried out, without any interference on Brown declared himself ready to die. He ustified his course, only regretting his error in not allowing the train to pass without interruption.

Cook said he was willing to be shot, but always had a great repugnance to hanging. Governor Wise said that Coppee was the only one that he had ever thought of commuting, but he had now determined to hang Governor Wise, yesterday, received a dispatch from the Governor of South Carolina, tendering him any amount of military aid, in the defence of Virgina. Mr. Wise replied by thanking him for the offer, but assuring the Governor that Virginia was able to defend

The Richmond military were all ordered o return home yesterday, but the people protested against such a course, declaring that if there was any necessity for them to come, that necessity still existed. Finally, Governor Wise ordered two Richmond companies to remain, and also the Petersburg Ar-

Several of the Richmond companies started for home this morning, and others will go to-

Governor Wise and his staff left this morning. He expresses the intention of having a thousand military present on the day of Anonymous Letters from the North—The "Noble Sons of Liberty"—Rescue of "Old Brown"—More Startling Developments.

The Richmond Enquirer publishes extracts of letters received by Governor Wise from reliable persons" in the North, detailing the plots of secret organizations for the rescue of Brown and the rest of the insurgents.— The names of the writers are not given, and the tone of the letters show that they were written for the purpose of "hoaxing" Gov. Wise and adding to the fears already existing among the panic-stricken Virginians.— We subjoin extracts from letters purporting to emanate from Harrisburg and Lewis-

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM HARRISBURG. "I will reveal to you a conversation beween myself and a man from this town, who has traveled recently through New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois. His statement is this: He conversed with a man in Ohio who told him that he knew the North too well not to reprieve those men under sentence; and that if you did not reprieve them they would certainly rescue them. He was then told there, by a man who was favorable to the South, that there was certainly a movement on foot to rescue them with aid from New York."

"He says the New York people are decidedly in favor of rescuing him (Brown.)-Consequently I think it would be right and proper to be well fortified in case of an emergency. I think it would be well to have a considerable force at Charlestown proceeding the day of execution."

EXTRACT FROM A LETTER FROM LEWISBURG,

UNION COUNTY, PA., NOV. 15, 1859. "As a friend to the constitution and the Union. I feel it my duty to apprise you of a sworn, secret and lawless band of fanatical Abolitionists and Black Republicans now forming in this, as well as several other counties in this State. The principal organization is in this village, and auxiliary societies exist in the neighboring towns. They call themselves 'The Noble Sons of Liberty, and as far as I can learn, number about five hundred in all, and are led by Capt. Smelly, alias 'Limber Jim,' an ultra Abolitionist of this village. They are armed with a pair of Colt's revolvers each, and design dropping into Charlestown and the adjacent places by ones and twos, so as to avoid suspicion, and when all are collected at Charlestown, at a certain signal, pounce upon the jail and demand the release of that old villain, John Brown, now a prisoner in the hands of the judiciary of your State. The reason for using revolvers is, that they can be carried about the person without attracting attention or exciting suspicion. The exact time for collecting the forces of the brigands above mentioned, I could not ascertain, but they will go to Charlestown in disguise, and mostly by night, which, I believe, is a plan adopted by their ringleader.

"Thus far they have observed the utmost secresy as to the existence and object of their association, and to avoid suspicion on the part of all outsiders here, they will leave gradually, so that their motives will not be suspected until a day or two previous to the execu-tion of Brown. * * * I was ushered into a large room, where, to my astonishment, I found about seventy-five persons congregated, and seemingly conversing upon some topic which they wished kept secret. * While I was in the room several persons were initiated, and took the oath of mem-

A Guard along the Line—An Alarm—Panic Among the Nervous.

CHARLESTOWN, Nov. 23 .- Governor Wise left Harper's Ferry this morning for Richmond.

After the departure of the Governor, Col. Elliott addressed the military, telling them it was possible that they might have to undergo arduous and perilous duty, and he felt satisfied that if the venerated Commonwealth should be invaded, they would effectually wipe out the stain. Last night, at 9 o'clock, an alarm was given by one of the sentinels firing his rifle.

Military orders were immediately sounded from one end of the town to the other, and the panic among the women and children, and some of the men (whose nervous systems have become much disordered by the late events) was very great. Shutters were closed and lights extinguished in quick time.

The excitement continued until 10 o'clock. when it was ascertained that the sentinel had mistaken a cow for a man-that she would not halt when he commanded, and he fired. ANOTHER ALARM.

At three o'clock this morning another alarm was occasioned by the report of three guns. A sentinel came rushing in and reported having hailed three men, who, instead of halting, fired at him.

Scouts were sent out, but no men could be balance of the night.

The fact is that the soldiers regard their present occupation as a frolic, and it is believed that some of them, under the influence of whiskey, were playing pranks on their comrades.

All has been quiet to-day. HARPER'S FERRY, Nov. 23.—Major General Taliaferro arrived here by express last evening, and assumed, by directions of Governor

Wise, the command of all forces on duty. A rumor was affoat to-day that there was party of marauders in the mountains, near Cherry Run, and that the sentinels at Charlesown were fired on last night.

Governor Wise exhibits no sort of fear of any rescue, but thinks it best to have a good force out. In reply to a gentleman who asked him this morning if he had any fears, he replied that he never had the least, but considers it the finest opportunity ever offered, to put the State in military training. I can now teach my boys how to carry biscuit in their knapsacks, and to arrange bullets in their cartridge boxes.

Another Virginia Excitement—Alleged Attempt to Run Off Slaves.

Norfolk, Nov. 23 .- A special messenger has arrived from North Hampton, on the eastern shore of Virginia, for volunteers, it having been ascertained that an attempt is to be made on Friday, the 25th, to run the slaves off to Canada. Great excitement pre-

Brown Becoming Repentant—Military Prep-

CHARLESTOWN, Nov. 25. All is now quiet, with the exception of occasional alarms and rumors amounting to little or nothing. Four companies of military are quartered in the Court House. General Taliaferro has taken command over Colonel Davis.

It is rumored that Brown has greatly changed during the last twenty-four hours, having become quite repentant.

RICHMOND, Nov. 25.—Gov. Wise has ordered five hundred additional troops to be present at the execution of Brown, on Friday next. The Enquirer says the rumored despatches from Gov. Packer, tendering military aid, and from Gov. Chase, cautioning him of the approach of filibusters from Ohio, are altogether unfounded.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26 .- According to the reported conversations with Gov. Wise recently in this city, he has no doubt of the exisence of secret societies in various portions of Ohio and elsewhere, the members of which are bound by horrid oaths, not only to rescue Brown, but to take revenge on those who were instrumental in the conviction of him and his associates for their offences at Har-

Gubernatorial Candidates.

We clip the following paragraph from the Easton Sentinel.

Bring Them Out.—The names of a number of gentle-tlemen of this State are being mentioned in connection with the next Gubernatorial nomination, both on the Democratic and Black Republican side. In the last Mon-roe Democrat we notice a correspondent names our fellow-townsman, Hon. David D. Wagener, in this connection.— This is right—bring out the metal in advance of the meet-ing of the Convention, and let all have an opportunity to examine their qualifications.

That is the true doctrine-" Bring out the metal in advance of the meeting of the Convention," and give us a chance to canvass the merits of the respective candidates. David D. Wagener is a good man and a sound Democrat—so is Jeremiah Shindle, so is Henry D. Foster, so is William Wittie, so is Jacob Fry, so is Hendrick B. Wright, so is George gentlemen would fill the Executive chair with credit to themselves and to the party.-But let us consider a moment. If the policy of the National Administration—the policy of proscription-is not stopped; if the union and harmony upon principle is not secured; our State Convention will be but a farce, an assemblage of men to resolve that defeat and not victory is what we desire. Look at the candidates named; Wagener, Shindle, Foster and Wittie, &c. We believe we are not mistaken when we say that the first and last named of these gentlemen have stood steadfastly by the National Administration, while Shindle and Foster have, in some respects, differed from it. Now, if by-gones are to be by-gones, all this is nothing to us. We could cordially support any of the candidates-but our support would not avail, nor would the support of every Democratic paper in the Commonwealth avail it, by our platform, we are pledged to sustain the course of the National Administration. Drop that, and we can elect our State ticket-endorse it, and no matter who the candidate may be, he will be defeated.—Harrisburg State Scatinel.

The Presidency.

Judging from the number of names which have been presented to the public, there is no reason for apprehending any lack of interest in the contest for the Presidential nomination. The following names have been mentioned in connection with the Presidency: Illinois-Stephen A. Douglas.

Kentucky—John J. Crittenden, Jas. Guth-rie, John C. Breckinridge. Pennsylvania-Simon Cameron, John M.

Reed, Geo. M. Dallas, James Buchanan. Oregon—Joseph Lane. Tennessee—John Bell, Andrew Johnson.

California—John C. Fremont. New York-Daniel S. Dickenson, Horatio Seymour, Wm. H. Seward. Michigan—Lewis Cass.

Mississippi-Jefferson Davis, Albert G. Brown, James Thompson. Virginia-R. M. T. Hunter, Henry A. Wise, Wm. L. Goggin, John Minor Botts, A. H. H. Stewart, W. C. Rives.

Texas—Gen. Sam Houston. Louisiana-John. Slidell.

Georgia-A. H. Stephen, H. Cobb. Massachusetts-N. P. Banks, Chas. Sumner, Edward Everett, R. C. Winthrop.

Maine-Wm. Pitt Fessenden. Ohio-Thos. Corwin, John McLean, Salmon P. Chase.

Missouri-Edward Bates, Trusten Polk, J. Alabama-Wm. L. Yancey.

New Hampshire-Franklin Pierce, J. P. Hale.

South Carolina-James H. Hammond, Jas.

PENNSYLVANIA CANAL.—Navigation on the canal is to be kept open very late this season. A notice issued by the Superintendent states that the eastern division will be kept open until the first of January, and if previously closed by frost, a force will be employed to break the ice and keep the communication open. The Juniata and western divisions are also to be kept open until the first of January, unless the boats are previously withfound, and the town was in an uproar for the drawn or laid up, when the water will be drawn off, and navigation suspended.