THE GLOBE.

Huntingdon, Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1859.

LOCAL & PERSONAL.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—We scarcely ever open an exchange paper but what we see recorded, accidents from the explosion of fluid lamps, and now it becomes our sad duty to chronicle a shocking case which happened on Friday evening last, at Elizabethtown, eighteen miles below Harrisburg, to a young and promising lad, named Alfred McCallister, of this place, who had gone there for the purpose of attending the telegraph office for a few days. He was in the act of changing the wires for some purpose or other, and had the lamp in his left hand, and whilst he was working with the wires, it exploded; he threw it from him, and in its course, it struck another fluid vessel close by, which contained about a quart of the fiery element, exploding it also, and burning young McCallister's face and hands in a most shocking manner. A boy that was in the office with him at the time, and who was standing near the fluid vessel, was also seriously burned. The noise of the explosion brought timely assistance, and the flames were speedily extinguished, otherwise the whole building would have been consumed, for the lads were so badly burned, that they were unable to extinguish the fire. Young McCallister was brought home on Sunday morning, and is recovering slowly, although he is unable to see, his eyes being so badly scorched, that it is feared he will be deprived of sight. This is another warning to those who burn fluid. Persons cannot be too careful how they use this distructive, disastrous and ignitable combustible.

CHRISTMAS.—To our readers, one and all. Before we shall again greet you with our weekly budget of news, Christmas will have come and gone. To one and all of you, we wish a merry Christmas. Another year has rolled around, and still we are at the helm, steering our little craft boldly up the channel of truth and fidelity, and ever battling against the evil tide of men. Many have come and gone during the year, and some of us, perhaps, can look back on the past with pleasure, and wish the days gone by could be re-called again, whilst others view the past with remorse and regret. To the first, we say all hail! With the latter, we sincerely sympathize. Another year has almost ended, and we find ourselves so much nearer the brink of death. May the kind Providence who has watched over us thus far in our lives, still keep an eye single to our well-being.

ROBBER ARRESTED.—On Monday morning last, a fellow giving the name of B. Thompson, was arrested near Bloody Run, for stealing goods on Thursday evening last, from the store of Simon Cohn, & co., of Hopewell township, this county. The following articles were found on the person of the thief, but no owners, have, as yet, claimed them: one gold hunting-cased watch, three pair boots, one revolver, two new and two old vests, several boxes of knives, a number of keys, and a number of gentlemen's hair combs. The above named articles are at the office of Esquire Snare, where they can be seen and will be returned to the owners, on their proving property, &c. The scoundrel had a hearing before Esquire Snare, and in the default of bail, was committed to the stone institution at the head of Smith street, to await his trial at the next Quarter Sessions.

THE PLACE TO GET HOLIDAY GIFTS.—A new and handsome stock of Books, Stationery, Gold Pens, Pencils, Money Purses, Pocket Books, Games, Conversation and Award Cards, and a variety of articles suitable for Holiday Gifts, have just been received at LEWIS' cheap Book, Stationery and Music Store. Old and young cannot fail to be pleased. His stock of books for the young cannot be beat. Call and please your children.

☞ We learn from the last Tyrone Star, that John Culvert, the Fostoria foundling, died on the 9th inst., of scarlet fever. The Star adds: "The poor babe found its last resting-place in the same grave with a child of its foster-parents, (Mr. and Mrs. John D. Miller,) that had been stricken down the day before. In death as in life, the foundling was treated as their own offspring."

☞ We are informed that a second edition of the Young American Lancers will make their appearance on Monday next, under the command of General Watson, our present Sheriff. Go in boys. You did finely on the Fourth of July, and we have every reason to think you can even excel your former debut. We like to see boys dressed up a la soldier.

CONCERT POSTPONED.—The concert by the Continentals, proposed to be given on the 23rd inst., for the benefit of the Baptist Church, is postponed indefinitely, it having been found that the said evening would be an unfavorable time. Due notice will be given for some other evening.

☞ Next Sunday is Christmas, and nobody has said Turkey to us yet. Hope we are not entirely forgotten by our poultry growing friends. Bring on your turkeys, or we will have to call on our keeper for one, to make our Christmas dinner go down right. Don't all speak at once.

☞ New or old Books, single or in lots, furnished to order at Lewis' Book Store, at less than city or country retail prices.

☞ An election will be held at the office of J. Simpson Africa, Esq., on Monday, the 2d of January next, for the purpose of choosing five Managers for the Huntingdon Gas Company, for the ensuing year. The stockholders will please attend between the hours of one and four, P. M., on that day.

CONCERT.—We understand that the Continentals, accompanied by Prof. Coyle and some of his pupils, purpose giving a grand soiree in Petersburg on Saturday evening a week, —night before New Year's Day. We predict for them a crowded house and a galorious time.

OUR NEW SIGN.—On Monday last, we had a beautiful new sign put up in front of our Book, Stationery and Music Store. It was designed and gotten up by Mr. Adam Hoffman, of this place, and in our opinion, is rather a neat affair.

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE GLOBE.

The Farmer's High School.

Every individual in this commonwealth who has a single wish for the general good, the improvement of the intellect, and a relief from the slavery and drudgery of fruitless toil, will watch with anxious care the progress—the growth and prosperity of the Farmer's High School. The advancement already made by those having the work in charge, is generally understood from its published reports. Even that advancement has required a struggle, a vigorous effort. I have listened with attention to the arrangements, and wished success to all that has been promised by its sanguine friends; but to some extent, have doubted the realization of those results which would be so desirable. If it were possible to select from the rising sons of toil, those who have, or who may acquire a desire to apply scientific truths to the cultivation of the earth, or to any commendable branch of industry, then the result need not be feared or doubted. For it would matter very little in that event, what deficiencies or delinquencies were found elsewhere, the genius of these intellectual and physical giants would sustain them, and the institution, with its glorious results, would rise above every obstacle. But if this school will have no means for protecting itself from imposition, i. e. if it is to be accessible by those who live to idle away life, who cannot be made to feel that there is a dignity and pleasure in labor; if it is to be filled to any considerable extent by the scape-goats and scape-graces of indolence or licentiousness, then all that the State, all that its friends, and all that an able faculty can do, will be comparatively fruitless.

The experiment is now begun; one year has elapsed; the index on the dial counts one. The result still carries its doubts. As has been the case in all other institutions of learning, the students of this are subjected to corrupt associations, the blight and mildew of student life. One example will be sufficient to indicate the character of the present class of students. At the close of the session last week, some fifty or sixty found it convenient to pass through our county en route for the R. Road and their homes. About fifty called at a highly respectable hotel, registered their names, called for supper, and a part of them for rooms. The stay was characterized by drunkenness, profanity, and confusion, and their departure by a non-payment of bills by about a dozen of the party.

If the institution was a reform school, those dozen would doubtless be its proper inmates, but as it was and is intended to be the fountain from which knowledge is to flow to all parts of the State, to keep its current clear from such influences, will be a matter of no small account. At spes non fracta.

INTERESTING POST-OFFICE DECISION.—Postmaster-General Holt has recently decided an interesting and novel question. A husband, who had been separated from his wife, demanded that his village Post-master should deliver her letters to him, and threatened a suit at law. The wife on the other hand, forbade the delivery of her letters to the husband. In these circumstances, the Postmaster appealed to Mr. Holt for instructions.—That officer pronounces the claim advanced by the husband too preposterous to be seriously refuted. Indeed, he says it is abhorrent to law as it is to Christian civilization of the age, and he directs the Postmaster to deliver the letters to the wife.

BENEVOLENCE.

We do not think a person can evince a more benevolent trait of character than being moved at the distress and suffering of others, and furthermore, anxious to do all in their power to alleviate by every possible means human suffering. In this view of the case, we do not know how the humane and benevolent can do an action more in accordance with their philanthropic views, than by calling the attention of their afflicted friends and acquaintances to the fact, that Dr. SETH S. HANCE, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., has discovered a preparation, which is put up in the form of a pill, that has a specific action for curing Epilepsy, or falling fits, spasms, cramps, and all forms of nervous diseases. Among those who have been permanently cured, we might mention a member of the family of James H. Beadle, Huntsville, Alabama; Mr. M. P. Sledge, Cabin Point, Surry county, Va., and Mr. W. P. Ligon, Grenada, Missouri. We might go on enumerating a number of others, until we had entirely filled up this column of our paper; but we think we have said sufficient to satisfy every person that the subject under consideration is one of vital importance to every one. Reader! if you are a well man or woman, and have no need of a remedy, perhaps you know some person who is not equally blessed as yourself, if so, cut out this notice, and send it to him or her. It will cost you but little trouble, and probably it will make you instrumental in curing some poor, afflicted mortal of that dreadful visitation, Epilepsy or falling sickness.

Dr. Hance sends his pills by mail, free of postage, to all parts of the world, on the receipt of a remittance. His prices are: one box, $3; two, $5; twelve, $24. We have given his address above.
