

Scissorings.

Wit once bought, is worth twice taught.
 "Let 'em rip!" as the boy said when he tore his trousers.

The young lady who saw a baby without kissing it has acknowledged that her friend's bonnet is handsomer than her own.

There is only one objection to people who "mean well," and that is they never can spare time to carry out their meaning.

Advice to young men—live temperately—go to church—attend to your affairs—love all the pretty girls—marry one of them—live like a man, and die like a Christian.

Some think that since the triumph of the Yankees in steaming and sailing, Yankee-doodle-do, should be changed in England, to Yankee-doodle-br.

Be ever kind to woman. She is the mother, sister, daughter, and companion, without whom life would be intolerable to man.

It takes three editors to start a paper in New Orleans—one to get killed in a duel, one to die of yellow fever, and one to write an obituary of the defunct two.

A man has just published a book, advising all men "to mind their own business." Why doesn't he mind his instead of telling other people what to do?

The meanest man in the world is in London. He buttons his shirt with wafers, and looks at his money through a magnifying glass to make half-dimes look as big as quarters.

A loafer happened in one of the printing offices at Boston, a day or two ago, and asked "what's the news?"

"Two dollars a year in advance," was the reply. He subscribed.

Sax, Sammy, why don't your mother mend that rip in your breeches?"

Oh, she's away to the sewing circle to make clothes for poor children."

A man who won't take a paper because he can borrow one, has invented a machine with which he can cook his dinner by the smoke of his neighbor's chimney.

"Bubbs, why don't you go home and have your mother sew up that hole in your trousers?"

"Oh, go long, old woman, our folks are economizing, and a hole will last longer than a patch."

"Boss, I want twenty-five cents," said a jour-printer to his employer.

"Twenty-five cents! How soon do you want it, Jake?"

"Next Tuesday."

"As soon as that? You can't have it—I told you often that when you are in want of so large a sum of money, you must give me at least four weeks' notice."

Dr. Bond says: "According to our experience, men talk more scandal than women, indeed most of that which the ladies hear, comes through their male friends. We have learned too, that women keep secrets better than men—what wife ever blabs the confidential communications of her husband?"

A boy got his father's gun and loaded it; but was afraid to fire; he however, liked the fun of loading and so put in another charge, but still afraid to fire. He kept charging, but without firing, until he got six charges in the old piece. His grandmother, learning his temerity, smartly reproved him, and grasping the old continental, discharged it. The result was tremendous, throwing the old lady on her back. She promptly struggled to regain her feet, but the child cried out—"Lay still granny, there are five more charges in yet."

Ten tam rowdy comed in, and axed me to sell him some beer. I tells him he had more as would do him good. He call me von tam ole Tuch liar, and pegun to broke two tumblers. My wife she call for de vatch 'ouse. 'For de vatch 'ouse got dare, de tam rowdy he klick Hans Scroggle pehnt his pack, kissed my tautger Petey before her face, broke all ter tumblers 'cept ter old stone bittcher, and spilt my vife and toddler peer parrels town in ter cellar.

Waiter?

What, sir?

Got any green peas?

Yes, sir—have some?

Yaas.

Have anything else?

Yaas, a slice or two of strawberry, cut thin.

Certainly, sir, anything more?

More, sah! What do you take me for—a perfect hog, sah?

THE HOUR OF DEATH.—I have lived to see that this world is full of perturbations; and I have long been preparing to leave it, and gather comfort for the awful hour of making up my account with God, which I now apprehend to be near. And though I have, by His grace, loved Him in my youth, and feared Him in my age, and labored to have a conscience void of offence towards all men; yet, if thou, Lord, shouldst be extreme to mark what I have done amiss, how shall I abide it? Where I have failed, Lord, show mercy to me; for I plead not my righteousness; but the forgiveness of my unrighteousness, through His merits Who died to purchase pardon for penitent sinners. And since I owe thee a death, Lord, let it not be terrible, and then choose Thy own time; I submit to it. Let not mine, O Lord, but Thy will be done.—Richard Hooker.

TAKE NOTICE.
 All persons knowing themselves indebted, either by note or book account, will save cost by calling forth with and settling up, as I am determined to have all my old accounts closed.

1859. FALL & WINTER CLOTHING.
 The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of our friends and customers, as well as the citizens of the town and country generally, to our new and extensive assortment of consisting of every article of gentlemen's furnishing made, and deem it unnecessary to make a newspaper flourish, being confident that a call and an examination of our goods, will satisfy all, that our goods are just what we recommend them to be, well made, of good material, and as cheap as the same quality of goods can be bought in the county of Huntingdon. It is not our desire, as is not the policy of honest men, to deceive, but this much we will say, that we will guarantee to all who may favor us with their patronage, entire satisfaction as to quality, and should gentlemen desire any particular kind or cut of clothing, not found in our stock, by leaving their measures they can be accommodated at short notice. Call at the corner of the diamond, Long's new house.
READY-MADE CLOTHING,

GOOD NEWS!
 WASHINGTON CLOTHES BY PRESSURE!!
 After fifty years experimenting, the proper article has at last been invented for women, in their hard labors on the washing day.
"IT IS EVEN SO!"
 Come and be convinced that we are ahead of every machine in use. Half the time, half the labor, and half the wear and tear, saved, and the clothes are as good as new. The undersigned have purchased the exclusive right of Huntingdon and Mifflin counties, to make and sell, and to use, a machine for washing and pressing clothes. We desire the public to call and examine this truly labor-saving machine. It can be seen at our shop on Washington street.
DALL & FEIGLITZ.

We, the undersigned, having thoroughly tested the above machine, take pleasure in recommending the same to the public, assured that they will find it all that is above mentioned.
