LOCAL & PERSONAL.

OUR "KEEPERS."-On Thursday morning last, we received by the hands of a friend, a package, accompanied by the following note:

we assure our friend that our "keeper" will children of cousins. At Danville there are not feel the least offended.

Mr. Frederick Schneider, sr., several pounds another family there, a sister and brother, of excellent sausage. These came in good children of cousins. There is another intime, as we were out of the article, and our stance of sister and brother there, also deaf "keeper" ditto.

In the evening of the same day, we received from our young friends, Geo. & Wm. McCabe, a large sirloin roast and a large sirluin steak of fine beef. We can't complain of our "keepers"-one and all have our thanks.

CHRISTMAS IN HUNTINGDON.—Some of our citizens who were afraid their turkeys might spoil, observed Saturday, but Monday was more generally observed as the holiday .--The young American Lancers, under command of Maj. The gentle- John Russell, Jr., farmer, Hopewell. men of both Bands have our thanks.

THE LOST LETTER.

Mr. Elitor:—The silence of Colon in his last organ on the lost letter question, is strong presumptive evidence that the "unity," "simplicity" and "beautiful rounding" of my article was perfectly clear to his understanding. If not, why did he not ask for further explanation upon that question. If he will meet the issue like a man. I will give him something more rointed-something that will be proof positive that my process of thinking is preeminently worthy of belief.

Marriage of First Cousins.

The evil consequences of the marriage of blood relations have become so formidable that Abraham Renner, cabnet maker, West. they have finally commanded the attention of | David Stever, farmer, Cassville. Chief Executive Officers and Legislatures of | Daniel Shaffer, farmer, Morris. several States—usually the very last parties to whose consideration such important facts are presented. In the State of Virginia, the consequences of family inter-marriages have become appalling, and an effort is about to be made to interpose legal obstruction against it. In Kentucky, similar disastrous effects have been realized, and Governor Magoffin, in his late message, dwells upon the subject in language which fairly portrays the extent and magnitude of the evils growing out of legalized incest, and earnestly recommends the passage of a law utterly prohibiting the marriage of first cousins. He says there are over 800 idiots and feeble-minded children in Kentucky, and the number is steadily increasing. He attributes the evil chiefly to the cause above assigned, and while recommending the establishment of a School of Imbeciles, he exhorts the Legislature to pass an act for the "prevention of marriage between first cousins," and proceeds to re-

BENEVOLENCE. We do not think a person can evince a more benevolen trait of character than being moved at the distress and suffering of others, and furthermore, anxious to do all in their power to alleviate by every possible means human suffering. In this view of the case, we do not know how the humane and benevolent can do an action more in acthe humane and benevolent can do an action more in accordance with their philanthropic views, than by calling the attention of their afflicted friends and acquaintances to the fact, that Dr. Seth S. Hance, of 108 Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., has discovered a preparation, which is put up in the form of a pill, that has a specific action for curing Epilepsy, or falling fits, spasms, cramps, and all forms of nervous discases. Among those who have been permanently cured, we might mention a member of the family of James H. Beadle, Huntsville, Alabama: Mr. M. P. Sledge, Cabin Point, Surry county, Va., and Mr. W. P.
